BACKS JOHNSON'S 10 PCT. INCREASE

Package Extends Car, Phone Excise Tax; May Have Trouble Passing In House

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate passed today a grab-bag tax bill after tying to it President Johnson's 10 per cent income tax increase and a $6 billion federal spending cut.

The measure, debated by the Senate for seven days, was sent to conference with the House.

There seemed to be little chance the House would go along with the package amendment containing the income tax hike and the federal spending controls.

However, the amendment was adopted by a surprisingly large 53-35 vote in the Senate.

Sen. George A. Smathers, D-Fla., one of the package's sponsors, conceded it probably would be lost in conference with the House but said he felt the Senate vote might give a boost to eventual House action on an income tax hike.

As the bill came to the Senate from the House, its chief purpose was to extend existing excise tax rates on autos and telephone service.

But the Senate loaded it down with 18 amendments on other subjects.

The tax hike is the same 10 per cent surcharge on corporate and most individual incomes recommended by Johnson last August. It would be retroactive to Monday and run to June 30, 1969, as he proposed.

The increase on both individuals and corporations would raise an estimated $11.7 billion in additional federal revenue for the 15-month period.

The spending cut would be achieved by a mandatory $180.1 billion ceiling on federal outlays for fiscal 1969 starting next July 1. This compares with the $186.1 billion spending total in Johnson's budget.

The package amendment contains two other spending restrictions.

One would slash appropriations for fiscal 1969 by $10 billion. But it is estimated this would not reduce actual spending by as much as the $6 billion resulting from the ceiling.

The other would require a rollback in the federal employment total of 315,000 to the number of employes on the rolls in September 1966. This would be achieved by filling only one of each two vacancies.

The package originally con-

Alioto Urges Merger Of City With Marin

Supervisors, Mayor Clash On Tax Plan

By WAT TAKESHITA

SAN FRANCISCO — Marin County supervisors and Mayor Joseph L. Alioto of San Francisco clashed politely but firmly yesterday on whether Marin commuters spend more money in San Francisco than they receive in benefits from services provided.

This was the major point of disagreement in the two-hour debate in San Francisco City Hall on whether Alioto should go ahead with his proposal to slap a one per cent commuter tax on Marin residents who work in San Francisco.

Alioto declared he would not give up his commuter tax or "earning tax" idea unless an economic study convinces him otherwise.

In addition to the commuter tax, which Alioto described as a short-range solution, he pushed for a merger of Marin and San Francisco.

"I foresee a day when we will have an economic community . . . somewhat after the model of the European Economic Community, said the mayor. "How about a political merger of the two counties. Would you agree to that?"

No quick answer is possible without careful studies to determine what would be a "viable political area," replied Supervisor Peter H. Behr.

Supervisor John F. McInnis called a political merger at this time "totally impossible" and suggested they stick to the issue at hand — the proposed commuter tax.

ASKS FOR FACTS

Alioto said, "You must demonstrate to me — and I don't think you will — that what we get from the commuter is more than what they get from us." At his suggestion, both San Francisco and Marin administrative staffs will develop figures on the amounts spent and benefits received by Marin commuters who work in San Francisco. These figures will be exchanged.

Marin County supervisors also welcomed a suggestion by Alioto that he and Marin supervisors hold quarterly meetings hereafter to discuss mutual problems.

The next meeting will be a luncheon in Marin on May 29, when Alioto and his staff will be guests of Marin supervisors.

SINGLE COMMUNITY

On a long range basis, Alioto aid he foresees a single economic community for the Bay Area instead of isolated political subdivisions. He said the commuter tax idea is a short range solution to help San Francisco homeowners on low fixed incomes.

"In terms of your major costs," said Behr, commuters do not contribute to the costs at all, welfare and education costs for example."

"Our budget for last year was $450 million," said Alioto. "Of that $450 million, a lot more than $13 million is being expended for services to the commuters."

"You have to offset that by

CRISIS SESSION SET

Tam Bonds Might Drop Off Ballot

By JOHN F. KEARNEY

The $9,900,500 bond issue proposal for new schools in the Tamalpais High School District is in danger of being dropped because of adverse publicity on the board's handling of money matters.

Trustees agreed last night to hold an urgent workshop session with the campaign steering committee Thursday to discuss whether to go ahead with the June 4 election, or withdraw in the face of growing criticism. The district has until April 11 to make up its mind.

The issue reached crisis proportions yesterday with the publication in the Independent-Journal of a letter of resignation from Joyce Ladar of Mill Valley, a long-time member of the steering committee.

Trustee Berton C. Jacobson bitterly attacked the publication of the letter calling it "completely out of line." He did not criticize the contents of the letter, he said.

Mrs. Ladar had complained of the "careless way" the district handled public funds and listed specifics she considered could result in a difficult passage for the bond proposal.

Among her points: the casualness with which Oliver Bonner, director of maintenance and operations, was awarded an increase of $4,188 and confusion surrounding payments to architects Gromme and Priestly for work on the San Geronimo Valley High School.

Mrs. Ladar found several allies on the board and in the audience.

David Ring of Tiburon, a co-chairman of the committee, said Mrs. Ladar's letter reflected the concern of many members of the committee.

"How can we go to the community and ask for more money where there are questions about how the money we have available is being spent?" he asked.

The lack of confidence of the steering committee was not based on antagonism against the board, rather on a valid concern

Humphrey Asks LBJ's Counsel On Party Role

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Johnson met with Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey today for the first time since pulling out of the presidential race but gave Democratic leaders no immediate guidance on his future role in the campaign.

While Humphrey was seeking Johnson's counsel on the possibility of a presidential bid by the vice president, Democratic leaders in Johnson's home state of Texas took what some interpreted as a move to ultimately commit the state's 104 national convention votes to Humphrey.

Humphrey conferred with Johnson over breakfast today for the first time since the President announced he would not seek re-election. Sources said Humphrey planned to return to the White House later today for private talks concerning his political future.

In Austin, Tex., the governing body of the state Democratic party unanimously endorsed Gov. John Connally as a favorite son candidate for the presidential nomination.

Some members said the action of the Texas Democratic

Wisconsin In Heavy Turnout, Despite LBJ

MILWAUKEE, Wis. (UPI)— Wisconsin Democrats and Republicans swarmed to the polls at a brisk pace today, even though their presidential primaries, once regarded as crucial tests, have been almost stripped of meaning.

The turnout had been expected to fall short of the record 1.3 million or more forecast before President Johnson's Sunday withdrawal action. However, state elections supervisor Leo Fahey said in Madison today it "should hit 1.3 million anyway."

"I still think people will turn out," Fahey said. "It's been played pretty good and it's on people's minds. It's a pretty nice day."

Skies ranged from cloudy to partly cloudy, and the weather bureau predicted possible showers in western Wisconsin in the afternoon. Most polling places opened at 7 a.m. CST. All of them close at 8 p.m.

Supporters of President Johnson still were urging votes for him instead of Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy of Minnesota.

250-MILE AREA

Planes Can Still Hit Near Hanoi

SAIGON (UPI) — American spokesmen today revealed U. S. planes still can strike targets 45 miles from Hanoi and 30 miles from Haiphong under terms of President Johnson's bombing pause. The bombers already have struck far deeper into North Vietnam than had been expected here following the pause order.

The spokesmen said the limits, not previously defined in public, still allows bombing of all military targets in a 250-mile stretch running north of the North-South Vietnam border.

U. S. jets launched raids four hours following Johnson's pause order yesterday and struck supply centers around Thanh Hoa, 205 miles north of the border and 81 miles below Hanoi.

In his speech announcing the pause, Johnson said he ordered a bombing halt "except in the area north of the (border) Demilitarized Zone (DMZ) where the continuing enemy build-up threatens allied forward positions.

American military sources here said that at first it was expected the limit would be about 90 miles north of the DMZ, taking in the southern panhandle. But the spokesman said it runs all the way up the panhandle.

Most of North Vietnam's population is in the northern regions near Hanoi and Haiphong and about 90 per cent of the populace would be spared the bombing under the Johnson edict.

Most of their raids hit just north of the DMZ and near the Mu Gia pass entrance to the Communists' Ho Chi Minh supply trail to the south.

In other developments:

President Nguyen Van Thieu told a news conference South Vietnam's mobilization should be strong enough by year's end to permit the start of "gradual withdrawal" of U.S. troops from South Vietnam.

American spokesmen said that in Operation Scotland, the Marine battle in defense of the surrounded Leatherneck fort of Khe Sanh just below North Vietnam, a total of 204 Marines have been killed and 1,622 wounded since the Communist siege began Jan. 21. Scotland

Guerrilla rocket teams today shelled the Tan Son Nhut air and war base on Saigon's west side.

Soviets Remain Silent To Britain Peace Bid

LONDON (UPI)—British officials said today the government has received no response so far to the urgent appeal for a new Vietnam peace initiative.

However, it was reported from Moscow that the North Vietnamese army newspaper, Qan Dio Nhan Dan, claims President Johnson is trying to mislead public opinion with his order limiting bombing of the north.

It was the first North Vietnam reaction to LBJ's proposal made Sunday night. The report said Johnson still has not agreed to halt bombings ond other military actions unconditionally.

President Ho Chi Minh's regime has declared repeatedly there must be an unconditional halt to the bombings before peace talks can begin.

The Kremlin was understood to be in consultation with Hanoi and an early statement from Ho was expected.

As the British cabinet reviewed the latest developments in the Vietnam situation, diplomatic sources said that the latest American bombing raids only 80 miles south of Hanoi were causing considerable anxiety in allied quarters.

British Foreign Secretary Michael Stewart, who met with Soviet Ambassador Mikhail Smirnovsky last night, stood ready to fly to Moscow for talks with Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko if an encouraging word was received from Moscow.

Britain and Russia are co-chairman of the Geneva Conference which in 1954 settled the Indochina War.

Communist diplomats here cautiously conceded that the latest presidential move has taken them by surprise. Some backed Moscow's suspicion that the decision to de-escalate was a mere electoral manuver. Others accepted Johnson's statement at its face value, but "the hard liners in Hanoi have apparently been proved right," one informant added.

Lynda Back To Magazine Job

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson's daughter, Lynda, said today that her husband, Marine Capt. Charles S. Robb, has arrived in Vietnam, but she hasn't heard from him yet.

Lynda, 24, was back at her desk ready to start work again in the Washington office of McCalls magazine where she hopes to begin a writing assignment soon.

Narcotics User Number Rising

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Bureau of Narcotics says the nation's number of known drug addicts climbed last year to 62,045—half of them white, half nonwhite.

Henry L. Giordana, commissioner of narcotics, presented the statistics at a recent hearing of a House Appropriations subcommittee. His report was made public today.

The increasing use of marijuana, Giordana said, particularly by those under 25, is almost certain to lead to stronger, more dangerous drugs.

Commuters Face Uncertainty On Greyhound Strike

I-J Special Report

SAN FRANCISCO — The more than 4,000 Marin commuters who use Greyhound Bus Lines cannot be certain of service tomorrow because of a strike deadline at midnight tonight, a Greyhound spokesman said late this morning.

Negotiations between Greyhound and the Amalgamated Transit Union were to resume today in the Federal Building, "but no new deadline has been established," the spokesman said.

Weekend negotiations resulted in postponement of the strike deadline to tonight, but Greyhound has refused to extend the contract beyond the deadline.

The contract dispute involves wages and fringe benefits. The two-year contract expired March 1, but was extended for continued negotiations. The contract covers 5,000 Greyhound workers in 11 Western states.

Powell In Hospital

DURHAM, N.C. (AP) — Adam Clayton Powell, former Harlem congressman, was admitted to Duke Hospital yesterday because he had "symptoms that seem due to exhaustion," his physicians said.

Troops Patrol Rio

RIO DE JANEIRO (AP) — Tanks and armored personnel carriers loaded with combat troops patroled Rio through the night after students rioted in the metropolis and four other cities. At least one person was killed in Rio and another death was reported in Goiania. The rioting stemmed from the death of a student last week when police broke up a demonstration over student restaurant conditions.

Troop Boats Sink

PORT HARCOURT, Nigeria (UPI) — Rebel Biafrian troops damaged or sank eight boats ferrying troops of the federal government across the Niger River to attack the town of Onitsha, according to reports reaching here yesterday.

U.S. Of Africa Born

FORT LAMY, Chad (UPI) — The presidents of the Congo, Chad, and the Central African Republic gathered today for the signing of a charter for the new "United States of Central Africa." The group originally was to be larger but several states pulled out amid chagers that it was an attempt by the United States to gain an African foothold.

Russ Nobel Laureate Dies

MOSCOW (UPI) — Lev D. Landau, a Nobel Prize winner and one of the Soviet Union's most respected physicists, died yesterday after a six-year battle against injuries suffered in a 1962 automobile crash. He was 60.

Landau

Doctors said Landau was "clinically dead" four times after the accident, but he was saved by a team of physicians in what many considered to be one of history's great medical feats.

Landau won the 1962 Nobel Prize in physics for his work with helium. His experiments with the gas, an important theoretical advance, enabled scientists to predict certain new features at extremely low temperatures.

He was given the prize in his Moscow hospital bed 11 months after the crash in January, 1962.

High Czech Judge Found Hanged

PRAGUE (UPI) — Czechoslovakia's deputy chief judge was found hanged in a small suburban wood today, the government announuced. Jozef Brestansky had disappeared last Thursday after a newspaper accused him of committing one of the Stalin-era crimes he was investigating.

The interior ministry said the 42-year-old vice president of the Supreme Court was found in the woods 12 miles west of here.

Brestansky

Police said Brestansky Thursday received a telephone call telling him a Bratislava newspaper had accused him of framing the conviction of chemical plant workers on sabotage charges in 1955. The judge had been at work on rehabilitating victims of the Stalin era now being denounced in the wave of reform sweeping Czech Communism.

The trade union newspaper Prace said Brestansky vanished after being summoned to an "important" party meeting.

Lodge Approved

BONN (UPI) — West German diplomatic sources said yesterday that the appointment of Henry Cabot Lodge as U.S. ambassador to Bonn was known in advance and the government has already agreed to the appointment.

British Gold Shrinks

LONDON (UPI) — Britain's gold and dollar reserves fell $48 million in March and now stand at $2.72 billion, the treasury announced today. But gold prices dropped on both the London and Paris markets, easing the pressure against the pound.

Most of the wild horses of North America are domesticated animals that returned to the hills to resist man's habits.

Apartheid Eased

CAPETOWN, South Africa (UPI) — South Africa eased its rigid racial segregation laws today to accommodate the Malawi embassy's first secretary, Joe Kachingwem, the first Negro diplomat based in South Africa. An order circulated by the government ordered all-white hotels and restaurants to serve him, his family and friends.

Swedes Refuse Asylum To German Soldiers

STOCKHOLM (UPI) — The Swedish Aliens Commission today rejected political asylum applications from five West German soldiers who fled to Sweden to escape service in the West German army.

The commission ordered the five expelled from Sweden.

Thieu Assents To Troop Withdrawal

SAIGON (AP) — President Nguyen Van Thieu said today his government could agree to a gradual withdrawal of U.S. troops beginning by the end of this year, but he made clear he would hate to see them go.

In his first comments on President Johnson's de-escalation speech Sunday night, Thieu told a news conference that only more troops can hasten the end of the war. He also said if the United States withdraws from Vietnam, "they will be avoiding their responsibility and deserting the free world."

But when asked by what date he thought the United States could begin to withdraw, Thieu replied: "If the United States requests a withdrawal of its troops, we can agree to a gradual withdrawal beginning by the end of 1968. Of course, we will never ask the United States to go home, but if the U.S. government wants it, we can begin to relieve some American troops with our new effort to mobilization."

Thieu recently announced the South Vietnamese armed forces would be increased 135,000 men by the middle of the year and said general mobilization would be necessary after that.

Although an aide said earlier that Thieu had accepted President Johnson's invitation to visit the United States, Thieu said the invitation was still under consideration. He said the formal invitation had been received "only this morning," some hours after Johnson revealed it in a speech in Chicago.

A spokesman for the South Vietnamese government said earlier that the date of the visit would depend on Thieu's schedule and Vice President Nguyen Cao Ky would not accompany him.

Nixon Holds Off Asia Plan, Cites LBJ Peace Attempts

NEW YORK (UPI)—Richard M. Nixon will delay for several weeks a "comprehensive" statement on the Vietnam war to give President Johnson's efforts at peace in Southeast Asia a chance to germinate.

Nixon Sunday postponed a national statement of policy on Vietnam just before Johnson's withdrawal as a candidate and the President's announcement of curtailed bombing in North Vietnam. Nixon said yesterday he was putting off his remarks to "avoid anything that might even inadvertently cause difficulty for our negotiators."

Nixon was to fly today to Cincinnati to confer with Gov. James A. Rhodes, Ohio's favorite son, who controls 58 key delegates to the Republican national convention. The governor has been under heavy pressure to cast his lot with Nixon, and has been mentioned frequently as a possible GOP vice presidential candidate.

J. Wayne Womack is mayor of Novato.

LBJ Meeting Bid Accepted By Kennedy

NEW YORK (UPI)—Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, with a White House invitation to discuss politics with President Johnson, yesterday told a wildly cheering crowd that if elected "we'll move this country and the world."

The New York Democrat, after praising Johnson's "magnanimous" decision to retire from politics, took his campaign for the Democratic presidential nomination into Pennsylvania and New Jersey yesterday.

At a partisan rally in Camden, N.J., he drew sustained applause when he praised Johnson, and got a standing ovation when he said:

"I want to be President because I think we can do better. We'll move this country and the world."

Kennedy returns to Pennsylvania today, having received assurances from Johnson of an appointment at the White House. A date convenient to both men has not yet been agreed upon.

WITHDRAWAL IMPACT

Kennedy Forces Woo Johnson Delegates

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Sen. Robert F. Kennedy's forces are staging a lightning raid on the remains of the Johnson campaign in California, hoping to assure victory in the Democratic presidential primary.

The men and women on the delegation favoring the President in the June 4 primary scheduled a meeting for tomorrow, and one of them, Assembly Minority Leader George N. Zenovich, said "I'm going to recommend going for Kennedy because I don't think (Sen. Eugene McCarthy can do it."

On the Republican side, the President's withdrawal from the election touched off quiet activity by GOP leaders who believe Gov. Ronald Reagan has a better chance of beating a Democrat than does former Vice President Richard M. Nixon.

Reagan's friends increased their pressure on the governor to become an active candidate. As one Republican source put it: "I think he has an opportunity to the party and himself. I think he can beat Bobby Kennedy. I believe the people will cotton to him."

Kennedy's campaign chief in California, Assembly Speaker Jesse M. Unruh, opened the effort to capture the members of the slate that had backed the President.

Backers of Senator McCarthy of Minnesota also are trying for Johnson supporters, but they are at a strategic disadvantage inside the Johnson delegation. Several members of the slate had announced for Kennedy even before Johnson withdrew, but none defected to McCarthy.

But Democratic National Committeeman Eugene Wyman said he would resist attempts to swing the Johnson slate over to either Kennedy or McCarthy.

"I am going to recomend that the delegation stay intact," he told a reporter. That means the delegation would continue to campaign in the primary, hoping to beat Kennedy and McCarthy under Lynch's leadership, and then go to the convention uncommitted.

Narcotics Denied

EDGARTOWN, Mass. (UPI) — Kingman Brewster III, son of the president of Yale University, pleaded innocent yesterday to being present where a narcotic drug was illegally kept.

revenues provided by commuters," said Behr.

"I agree we have to offset that," replied Alioto. "But do you believe the offset equals the expenses?"

"Absolutely!" said Supervisor Chairman Ernest N. Kettenhofen.

That's when Alioto suggested an economic study by both his staff and Marin to compare figures.

Kettenhofen declared the mayor was making no distinction between commuters from the Sunset District and from Marin. "Those from the Sunset District require schools but those from Marin don't."

Instead of imposing the commuter tax, Behr suggested that Alioto take the leadership in developing a regional government that could get a part of the federal income tax to meet regional needs.

McInnis charged that the commuter tax appears to be "a direct effort to bring benefit to residential property owners of San Francisco at the expense of those of us outside San Francisco."

The mayor said he is convinced the pensioner and those on low fixed income will move out of San Francisco into suburbs like Marin unless they get tax relief.

Both Kettenhofen and Behr asked simultaneously: "Where will they go? Our taxes are higher than yours?"

"If you pursue your commuter tax," warned McInnis, "you will get nothing but antagonism. I believe your approach is quite wrong and I urge you to reconsider."

Supervisor William A. Gnoss cisco."

McInnis raised the possibility of a shopping boycott. "What is your appraisal of the potential economic impact to San Francisco if the outlying residents don't shop in San Francisco?"

Alioto said this possibility does not worry him. "People, in the final analysis, if they realize declared that families in North Marin are young people with large families. "I don't think it is fair to put an added burden on our people," said Gnoss. "You are taking from Peter to pay Paul."

"Any additional tax on Marin residents, I'd have to be against," said Supervisor Thomas T Storer. He said the commuter tax might be more palatable if the revenues were used to improve mass transportation between Marin and San Francisco instead of relief to San Francisco homeowners.

Storer also suggested that if the Golden Gate Bridge District can be taken over by San Francisco and Marin, the money could be used to improve mass transit "and take 5,000 cars away from downtown San Fran- the economic justification for the tax, I don't think they will act in a spirit of revenge."

"How about a political merger of our two counties?" asked Alioto.

"I would not want to give up the idea of an earnings tax on all, including our residents," said Alioto.

He said the only thing that would change his mind would be a Marin economic study that would show that Marin commuters leave in San Francisco more than they get in services.

All agreed that the quarterly meetings between San Francisco and Marin would be useful in solving mutual problems.

Voting Is Light On School Bonds

Eighty-two persons had voted by noon today in the Bolinas-Stinson School District's $325,000 school construction bond election.

The figure was 12.5 per cent of the district's 655 registered voters. At Bolinas School, 45 had voted of 372 registered. At Stinson Beach School, 37 of 283 had voted.

The bond issue is to finance construction of six classrooms, a library and an administrative office at Bolinas School, plus purchase of four acres for future school expansion. All grades would be taught at the school after the new rooms were built.

Polls will be open until 7:30 p.m. today.

10,000 Idled As Union Strikes

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — A mushrooming machinists' strike has idled about 10,000 workers in 100 Bay Area manufacturing plants.

In addition, 2,400 employees represented by the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers failed to report to work yesterday after their contract expired with Lenkurt Electrical Co., Inc., at San Carlos.

The walkouts at manufacturing plants began after the International Association of Machinists rejected, 2,765 to 31, a contract offer by the California Metal Trades Association.

Registered Nurses Win Salary Hikes

PALO ALTO (AP)—Registered nurses at Palo Alto-Stanford Hospital won salary increases of $516 a year for two years, retroactive to last Sept. 1, by decision on an arbitrator today.

Jointly chosen by the hospital and a nurses committee, J. Keith Mann, associate dean of Stanford Law School, served without pay in what is believed to be the first such use of voluntary arbitration for hospital nurses.

Under the new contract, monthly salaries for nurses will range from $573 to $825 a month for the first year, from $616 to $868 for the second year.

the issue would not pass at this time.

"We have fewer members on the committee now than when we started and there is some doubt as to whether we can recruit a full committee," he said.

Earlier, Mrs. Ladar, sitting in the front row, bristled when Jacobson said he questioned "the value of sending a letter of this type and having it splashed on the front page of the newspaper. I do not believe in trying this in the newspaper."

He said that it contained criticism which was damaging in its implication. Many of the points dealt with Mrs. Ladar, he said, were already under investigation by the board.

A series of rebuttal letters may be needed to erase wrong impressions, he said, and "I doubt if the newspaper would play up those as a page one answer to your letter."

Mrs. Ladar declared her letter had not been the cause of the difficulties, only the result.

Jacobson retorted: "I say your letter is playing on them to the detriment of the public interest."

Her husband, Jerold M. Ladar, rose to her defense. He is the recently promoted chief of the criminal division at the U.S. Attorney's Office in San Francisco.

He also decried trial by newspaper but if publication did one good thing, he said, it brought the matter out into open discussion despite what he called a newspaper's "unfortunate and sometimes harsh" treatment of the facts.

Trustee Mrs. Gloria Melbostad said she did not interpret the letter as accusations against anyone personally.

"Let's get at the facts," she said. "If they are as they should be, no one should worry about having them exposed. This is a public agancy and there is nothing that should be secret about it."

Supt. Chester G. Carlisle, who had been subject to some criticism over the Bonner salary at previous meetings, was not present last night because off illness. Trustee William B. Lewis was also absent.

tained a freeze on U.S. public works projects. But the Senate stripped this from the amendment last week by a 42-37 vote.

Earlier today, the Senate added to the excise tax bill an amendment by Sen. Russell B. Long, D-La., which he said was an administration-backed revision of the 1967 Social Security Act.

Under the 1967 law, states were required to make available family planning services to recipients of aid to families with dependent children in order to continue to get federal aid for such payments.

Long said it had been found that in two states, Wisconsin and Massachusetts, there is a ban on supplying of such birth control information.

The amendment would give the two states an additional year to change their laws so they could continue to get U.S. matching for AFDC payments.

Earlier, the Finance Committee had amended the excise tax bill to make some additional changes in Social Security laws.

Innocent Plea To Drug Selling

Andrew Segal, 21, of Cotati, pleaded innocent in Marin Municipal Court yesterday to a charge that he sold about two pounds of marijuana to a drug abuse agent in Sausalito Jan. 22.

Preliminary hearing was scheduled for May 17 on the charge that the youth sold the marijuana for $95.

Attorney Carl Shapiro asked Judge Hadden W. Roth to release Segal on his own recognizance, saying he is a student at Sonoma State College and his parents, Dr. and Mrs. Adolph Segal, live in San Anselmo.

Judge Roth declined, but reduced bail from $5,000 to $750.

Marijuana Suspect To Juvenile Court

Jonna Britta Kristensen, 18, of Gate 5, arrested for marijuana possession during February's county-wide narcotics roundup, was transferred to juvenile court from Marin Municipal Court yesterday to face the charge.

Miss Kristensen was arrested with several other persons when drug abuse agents allegedly found marijuana on the houseboat Becky Thatcher, where she was staying.

Thief Tidy; Cleans Up After Meal

Robert F. Oakley of 8 Davis Drive, Tiburon, had some neat, but uninvited and sticky fingered guests at his Stinson Beach cabin recently, the Marin sheriff's office reported today.

Oakley went to the cabin Saturday and found he was missing linens, kitchen utensils and some food.

Later investigation disclosed that the thief broke into the house, cooked and ate a steak dinner, cleaned up, then left with the missing items, deputies said.

Other home thefts reported by deputies today included:

The theft of two rings worth $500 from a jewelry box in Thomas C. Marshall's bedroom at 1 Orchard Way, Kentfield, sometime between Feb. 21 and March 1 was reported Friday.

Thieves also broke through a window of the principal's office at Mary Silveira School in Marinwood Saturday, ransacking the office and stealing a key to the library, deputies said.

Executive Committee was designed to hold the state's 104 convention votes for Humphrey.

George Christian, White House press secretary, said Johnson "did not refer" to Humphrey's possible entry into the Democratic presidential race when he met for breakfast this morning with the vice president and the Democratic congressional leadership.

Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield told reporters the group largely discussed legislative matters, and Christian said politics came up only in "casual conversation."

Christian said the Democratic leaders made a "general request for advice on what general direction to take," but Johnson told them "he was not going to give them any such advice this morning."

Mansfield told newsmen following the breakfast meeting he did not expect the President to endorse Humphrey or any other candidate.

Describing Johnson as "a man at peace with himself," Mansfield said, "I think he will keep hands off and let the convention decide. Whomever the convention decides to nominate will have the president's support."

About 250 cheering supporters greeted Humphrey at the airport on his return last night from a diplomatic mission to Mexico, chanting "we want Humphrey" and "go, go, Hubert Horatio."

Humphrey said he was sorry about Johnson's decision not to seek re-election.

"As to my future plans, I shall continue to fullfill my responsibilities to the best of my ability," he said. "I shall be meeting with the president tomorrow. You would not expect me to say more."

Crash Survivor Faces Charge

A Mill Valley man, who survived a bruising crash on Second Street in San Rafael yesterday morning, was arraigned in Marin Municipal Court later in the day on a charge of drunken driving.

Richard G. Lahrson, 22, of 130 Homestead Avenue, reportedly told police he was driving at 120 miles per hour on the Miracle Mile and slowed to 75 to take a bend.

He crashed through a fence at 1859 Second Street, struck the porch at 1855 Second Street, then slammed into a tree. He was uninjured.

Hub Library Board Views Suggestions

The San Anselmo Library Board yesterday discussed the library visit last Tuesday of Louise Stubblefield of the state librarian's office in Sacramento.

Board members said Mrs. Stubblefield declared the San Anselmo system appeared adequate, but said she would send suggestions for improvement in the near future. She plans another visit in a few months to see if the suggestions are helpful, they added.

Japan Plans Stamp To Honor Compact

TOKYO (UPI)—Japan will issue a special postage stamp to commemorate the return of the Bonin Islands from U.S. control.

The Postal Ministry said a 15-yen stamp, depicting dawn over the Pacific viewed thrugh the leaves of a betel-nut palm on an island coast, will go on sale the day Japan and the United States sign a treaty returning the islands to Japan. The ministry said this could possibly come in June.

Barbers May Expect Happier Days Again?

HINCKLEY, England (UPI)—The Sugar Machine pop group decided the bald look was "in" and had their long locks completely sheared off at the local barber shop.

"Going bald was a big sacrifice," said lead vocalist Arnold Christmas, "but at least we will lose the tag that pop groups are nothing but long-haired twits."

Pact Cancels Threat Of New Glass Strike

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (UPI) — Negotiators reached a settlement to end the threat of a nationwide strike by 10,000 machine operators in the glass container industry.

A strike of the machine operators could have renewed the shutdown by another union that paralyzed the industry across the nation for 51 days earlier this year.

Supervisors Favor Dump, Parks Idea

County Recreation Director Pierre W. Joske's proposal for a dump and fill operation in the Corte Madera marshlands to create a 250-acre park and recreation center won solid backing from the Marin County board of Supervisors this morning.

The supervisors suggested variations of the plan, such as allowing the dumping of debris only, and inducing private enterprise to develop the area without garbage fill.

STUDY REQUESTED

Supervisors Peter H. Behr moved that the county director of public works and other county staff members be asked to study the cost of land, revenue from sumping, and the amount of fill needed and report back to the supervisors.

John F. McInnis seconded the motion, which passed unanimously.

The supervisors took the action after watching colored slides of dump and fill operations in other parts of the state, presented by Joske. He reported that the Town of Corte Madera had rejected the park project by dump and fill.

'COUNTYWIDE INTEREST'

If the supervisors are convinced that the dump and fill will not be detrimental to the surrounding homes and the project is needed, said Supervisor Behr, "then I don't see why a small town should stand in the way of overriding countywide interest."

Behr said that key persons in Corte Madera and surroundings should be shown the site and be given exposure to the plans, and if the supervisors are convinced the park is needed for the county, "I'd cram it down the teeth of Corte Madera."

More than half the population of Marin lives within four miles of the site, said Thomas T. Storer. "I feel strongly that if Corte Madera insists on objecting after exposure to Joske's plan, we have the power to condemn. . . . If worse comes to worse, let's go for broke."

Chairman Ernest N. Kettenhofen said that debris dumping might be substituted for wet garbage dumping to allay objections in Corte Madera. He said he cannot see "voting over the heads of city officials" and forcing a city to accept a garbage dump.

TIME CITED

McInnis declared that debris dumping alone would take much more time than the 15 to 17 years envisaged by Joske. He noted that the Japanese have developed a method of compacting garbage and rubbish into building blocks. Why not set up a demonstration project for either compaction or the dump and fill method in the Novato airport area to show what can be done, suggested McInnis.

Storer said private enterprise or a syndicate might be induced to develop convention sites and resort facilities without the use of dumping.

Lack Of Quorum For Session By Trustees

The special meeting of the Tomales Elementary School District board to discuss the curriculum and building program of the district, scheduled for 8 p.m. last night, was not held for lack of a quorum, according to Supt. David Raffo.

The meeting has been rescheduled for 8 p.m. next Monday at the school, Raffo said.

ROBERTA WINANS

OBITUARIES

Roberta Winans Dies At 76

Roberta Winans of Mill Valley, world traveler and retired social worker, died yesterday at a local convalescent hospital after a short illness.

Miss Winans, 76, wandered the globe, usually alone and with only a sketchy itinerary, by freighter, raft, bus and on foot, spending approximately half her time after retirement in travel.

At 74, she took a five-week raft voyage along the Mexican coast. At 70, she took a six-month freighter tour through the Mediterranean. She traveled around the world in 1964, took an African safari in 1965, and cruised along Australia's great barrier reef.

Miss Winans was born in Ridgewood, N. J., and lived in New York City many years. She was a state supervisor in nursery schools and parent education in New York. During World War II she developed nursery school in Vallejo, then spent 10 years in child welfare work in Marin County. She retired from that position and then worked with the San Francisco Committee for Service to Emigres.

Miss Winans received her bachelor's degree from San Diego State College, and a master's from Columbia University in New York City. She also did graduate work at Northwestern University, the University of Chicago and the University of California.

Miss Winans was also an enthusiastic gardener and hiker. She was a member of the Sierra Club, the Audubon Society and the Marin County Conservation League.

She is survived by a sister, Mrs. Lillian W. Parker of Mill Valley. Private memorial service is pending at Russell and Gooch Funeral Chapel, Mill Valley.

LLOYD ACKERMAN

Funeral for Lloyd S. Ackerman, San Francisco attorney and father of Mrs. Richard Finnie of Belvedere, was held today in the Colma Chapel of the House of Peace Cemetery.

Ackerman, who was 85, died Sunday after a short illness.

He was senior partner with the firm of Ackerman, Johnston, Norberg and Parkinson and had practiced law in San Francisco since 1904.

Ackerman served on the San Francisco Park Commission from 1943 to 1945 and was a Public Utilities Commissioner from 1945 to 1948.

He is also survived by his wife, Louise; a son, James, who is a professor at Harvard University; a sister, Florence Ackerman of Los Angeles and eight grandchildren.

GIRARD ELLENBERG

Private funeral for Girard H. Ellenberg of Mill Valley was held yesterday at Russell and Gooch Funeral Chapel, Mill Valley. Inurnment was at Mount Tamalpais Cemetery, San Rafael.

Ellenberg, of 111 Montford Avenue, died Wednesday at a local hospital after an illness. Retired, he was formerly chef at the Blue Rock Inn, Larkspur. He was a native of Germany and had lived in California 60 years and in Marin 34 years.

He is survived by a son, Gerry Ellenberg of Novato, and six grandchildren.

MANUEL POLITIS

Manuel John Politis, 42, of Sausalito, died early today in a local hospital after suffering a heart attack in his home at 504 Olema Street.

A native of Fresno, he had lived in Sausalito for about 35 years. He was a truck driver with the S. J. Sturiale Fish Co in Sausalito.

He is survived by his mother, Mrs. Elsie Costa, and two sisters, Mrs. Russell Terris and Mrs. Fred Mancebo, all of Sausalito, and a brother, Albert Kraeber of Sonoma County.

He was a member of Sea Point Parlor No. 158, Native Sons of the Golden West.

Funeral will be at 11 a.m. Friday at the Frank J. Keaton Mortuary, Sausalito. Burial will be in Mount Tamalpais Cemetery, San Rafael. A service will be held at the mortuary at 8 p.m. Thursday by Sea Point Parlor No. 158.

ELTON G. ROSSI

Funeral for Elton G. Rossi Sr. of Redwood City, brother of George J. Rossi Jr. of Novato, will be at 1 p.m. tomorrow at Redwood Mortuary in Redwood City. Entombment will be in Skylawn Memorial Park, San Mateo.

Rossi, 49, died Sunday. He was a native of San Francisco.

He was a member of Occidental Lodge No. 22, Free and Accepted Masons of San Francisco, and of the Brotherhood of Railway Clerks, No. 2222, San Jose.

He is survived by his wife, Rena; three children, Elton G. Rossi Jr. of San Francisco, Elena D. and Debra D. Rossi of Redwood City; his father, George J. Rossi Sr. of San Francisco; a sister, Mrs. Audrey Costa of Woodside; his brother, and one granddaughter.

His family asked that memorial contributions go to the Heart Fund.

THERESA TAFFI

Requiem High Mass for Theresa C. Taffi of San Rafael will be held at Mission San Rafael Arcangel at 9:30 a.m. tomorrow. Burial will be in Mount Olivet Cemetery.

Mrs. Taffi, who was 58, died Sunday at her home at 4 Blossom Drive after a short illness.

She was the wife of Elio D. Taffi, accordion maker and owner of the Guerrini Accordion Co., San Rafael.

Born in Chico, Mrs. Taffi had lived in San Rafael for the past six years.

She is also survived by three daughters, Joyce Taffi of San Francisco, Mrs. Myra Lago of Daly City, Marsha Taffi of San Rafael; a son, Eliott Taffi of San Rafael; a brother, Leo DeStefani of Redwood City; five sisters, Mrs. Edith Gheno of Cupertino, Mrs. Rose McCaffery of San Carlos, Mrs. Pierinia Cristoni of Mill Valley, Mrs. Augie Deguara of Menlo Park and Mrs. Ramona Gauglianoni of Hayward, and two grandchildren.

Rosary will be recited at 8 p.m. today at the Harry M. Williams Mortuary.

Two-City Land Swap Delays Office Plans

The Belvedere City Council last night held off on confirming planning commission approval of a real estate office until neighbor city Tiburon is consulted.

"Belvedere is in the process of delicate negotiations with Tiburon to swap that area for seven houses within its boundary at the entrance to Belvedere," Mayor John R. Moore explained to attorney Joseph E. Sheeks, representing the Home and Land Co. The firm wants to move the building from Lyford Drive to the southeast corner of Tiburon Boulevard and Mar West Street.

The commission granted architectural approval of the building last month.

"It's a very elegant building. Since the lot is empty, landscaping would be a desirable addition," Sheeks argued, protesting that negotiations take time.

The matter was added to the agenda for an adjourned meeting on April 15, which will also be a hearing on an assessment district for fire mains at Cliff, Crest and Eucalyptus roads, at 8 p.m. in the Community Center.

Councilmen were displeased with the slow progress of a community antenna television service in the city.

Rober Lewis, of Cable Television of Marin, explained that the "prime difficulty is the overhead poles." He said Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Co. puts telephone service first and television antenna service second.

Lewis told councilmen he has been negotiating with lagoon property owners for approval to lay an underground cable in the lagoon area.

"There has been no follow-up to letters from the company to property owners in the past eight weeks. I know. I live on the lagoon," charged Councilman Sally Mathews.

Councilman Thomas S. Price said there had been no follow-up with the telephone company either. "We have not had the action we deserve."

Mayor Moore asked Lewis to make another progress report at the council's May 6 meeting. "We're getting a lot of heat on this," said Moore.

Belvedere City Council Also:

BEACH ROAD PROJECT — Discussed what type of railing should be installed on upper Beach Road, which is being repaved from Beach and Bayview avenue to Blanding Lane. Directed City Mgr. William L. Cavalli to work with architect Allen Steinau to present more details on the project before the council calls for bids.

UNDERGROUNDING — Introduced an ordinance establishing procedures for the undergrounding of untility wires in the city.

BACKYARD BURNING — Decided to support the supervisors position to outlaw backyard incinerators, if an alternative for disposing of rubbish if found.

HEALTH AND HAPPINESS — Passed unanimously a resolution expressing appreciation and thanks to the Kiyoshi Kuwatani family for its participation in the community and wishing them "health and happiness in their retirement" from ownership of the Belvedere-Tiburon Laundry.

LEAKY ROOF — Debated whether the contractor, the architect or the city was responsible for a leak that has developed in the recently remodeled Community Center and which drips water into the firehouse dormitory below. Councilman Thomas S. Price reported an estimate from the Filippo Construction Co. Showed the work would cost $1,187. Deputy City Atty. Robert Mackay was directed to look into the legal aspects of responsibility and Cavalli was asked to research the possibility of a three-way split to pay for the repair.

Commissioners Reject Study Of Transport

A two-year $71,800 "balanced transportation study" proposed yesterday to the Marin County Planning Commission by its staff, after more than a year of preparation, failed to win approval in a split vote.

Planning director Paul C. Zucker argued for more than two hours that the need for the study was "evident and urgent," but won only three of the seven votes, commissioners Hugh Dougherty, Dr. William F. Upton and Mrs. Margaret Azevedo.

COMPUTERS HIT

Commissioners Niels Schultz Jr. and Michael Praszker voted against a motion to endorse the proposal. "It would just give us a lot of fancy computations," said Schultz, "when good old-fashioned normal evaluations are needed." Noting that computers "today take the place of the Bible," Praszker said, "I have doubts that your program (the study) will lead to the results that are needed to get a transportation system going."

Chairman Eugene R. Trombley cast the third dissenting vote, explaining he would need to know more about the proposed study before considering an endorsement of it.

NO CONS HEARD

Commissioner Walter F. Freitas produced the split by abstaining. He said he "felt uncomfortable" because no opposition to the proposal was presented by the staff and public.

The proposal was to be heard later today by the board of supervisors.

The cost of the study, said Zucker, would be "a supplement" to the planning department budget. The study would produce information "very much proved as a working tool," he told the commission.

His statement, however, was contrary to his own written report on the proposal, which stated that much of the study "is innovational and there is no guarantee that everything will run as smoothly as in a program that has been run for the hundredth time."

The information produced would allow quick measure of the effects of a particular transit system on land use, and the effects of a particular land use on transit, said Seymour Kashin, Marin Transit District manager. "It would help us make the most educated kind of guesses we can make," he said.

BOARD REQUEST

A report on the feasibility and nature of such a study was asked by the county supervisors on Dec. 6, 1966, after hearings on Route 17 conducted by the state Division of Highways. "A balanced transportation system," supervisors agreed then, would include "possible freeways and expressways as well as other alternative means of transportation."

Most of the information needed for such a study already has been collected by state agencies, Zucker said, but it needs to be "assessed and evaluated" so it can be adapted to county use.

The cost does not include computer processing, he said, adding that he hopes the state will assume this cost. The Golden Gate Bridge and Highway District, San Francisco and the federal government might share the cost, too, said Zucker.

Marin County Planning Commission also:

BUDGET — Declined to support Zucker's appeal to the county supervisors to restore the $17,000 cut from his 1968-69 budget of $399,891.

POINT REYES — Agreed not to apply "interim zoning" to the Point Reyes National Seashore area, and to consider such a step only if major development starts there. It is now zoned for limited agricultural use, which allows a 7,500-square-foot minimum residential lot.

MOBILE PARKS — Set for hearing April 29 a proposal to include single-family homes as an allowable use in mobile home park zones.

FEES — Set for hearing May 20 a revised fee schedule for planning department services to the public. In some case, fees would be doubled.

$750 Burglary

A burglar last night stole jewelry, clothing, a stereophonic phonograph and a television set valued at a total of $750 from the residence of Albert E. Corners, 445 Sausalito Boulevard, Sausalito police reported today.

Guilty Plea Cuts Narcotics Charge

Joel Smith Norton, 20, of Muir Beach, pleaded guilty in Marin Municipal Court yesterday to a misdemeanor charge of possessing a hypodermic syringe in San Anselmo March 19.

The district attorney dismissed a felony charge that Norton possessed morphine that day, saying there is not enough evidence to support the charge.

Norton was released from jail, where he has been held since his arrest by San Anselmo police, and told to appear in court April 19 for sentencing.

Point Reyes Station Auto Storage Yard Turned Down

Marin County Planning Commissioners yesterday denied the use of land on Mesa Road, Point Reyes Station, for storage of wrecked and abandoned automobiles, despite pleas from the California Highway Patrol and a sheriff's deputy.

Capt. Theodore F. Parnow of the CHP asked that Adolph Cheda of Cheda Chevrolet be allowed to continue using the Simone Dilena property on Mesa Road near Cypress Road to store old automobiles because Cheda's Chevrolet has space for only about three cars.

Cars wrecked or abandoned have so little salveage value that the highway patrol and sheriff's deputies have a difficult time getting any garage to tow them away, said Captain Parnow. "Right now Mr. Cheda is providing a public service by taking these cars off the highways," he said.

Sgt. Robert Bertrand of the sheriff's office echoed Captain Parnow's views.

Residents of Point Reyes Station, armed with a petition signed by 36 persons, objected to the car storage area as unsightly and a public nuisance. The car storage area, which has been in use for about a year, is located in the West Marin interim zone area, formerly zoned agricultural.

The planning commissioners agreed that a problem exists in finding a suitable area for storage of old cars. However, they declared that the present location is too close to Shoreline Highway and is in the wrong place.

On a motion by Niels Schultz Jr., the commissioners voted to deny Cheda a use permit for the car storage area "without prejudice" and asked the planning staff to cooperate with Cheda in finding an alternate site.

Pueblo Crewman Writes Of Death

TOKYO (AP) — One of the crewmen of the USS Pueblo was quoted today as saying the 82 crew members will be executed for spying if the United States fails to apologize.

The Korean Central News Agency distributed a letter it said was written by Lt. Stephen R. Harris, research officer of the ship, which pointed out that the penalty for espionage is death.

After saying "our lives have been spared because we sincerely and frankly confessed the crime," he added that the crew would not be released unless the United States confesses to espionage activities in North Korea's waters, assures the North it won't happen again and delivers an apology.

Wallace Sees Better Chances For Success

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (UPI) —Former Gov. George Wallace said yesterday President Johnson's withdrawal may improve Wallace's chances for the presidency as a third party candidate.

Wallace said he was "stunned and shocked" by the President's decision to quit the White House after his current term expires, but he said, "I'm not going to withdraw under any circumstances."

Seamstress Wins Permit Despite Neighbor Protests

Mrs. Allan Krause can make a few dress alterations for money in her home at 18 Flying Cloud Course, Corte Madera, despite the vociferous protest of the Mariner Cove Improvement Association.

This ruling came on a unanimous vote of the Corte Madera Town Council last night after an hour-long debate on fears of commercial encroachment and radio and television static.

Most adamant objector to the home occupation permit was retired Adm. John F. Flynn of 25 Sea Wolf Passage, who complained that his television and four radios run amok with static every time Mrs. Krause stitches with her portable sewing machine.

He expressed distrust for a report of the town's zoning administrator that the cause of the static originates in his own home.

Adding to the debate was Howard Harvey, president of the Mariner Cove Improvement Association. A home occupation permit threatens the residential nature of the area, he said.

The council voted unanimously to approve the permit after Councilman Holmes S. Norville said:

"I don't see how we can find this an objectionable home occupation. I'd like to see the income tax returns of all the people in Corte Madera who write off portions of their house payments because they bring home work from the office."

Corte Madera Town Council Also:

REZONED — Introduced an ordinance rezoning Peter J. Hunt's property at 195 Tamal Vista from highway commercial to light industry to allow use of the land by a firm manufacturing plastic cups.

CLUSTER — Passed a zoning ordinance amendment on cluster housing, permitting development of a concentrated cluster of houses on a small portion of land, leaving the remaining area as open space.

PARKING — Rejected, with a tied vote, a resolution forbidding parking in nine spaces on Casa Buena Drive and Conow Street near Bianco Cadillac. Holmes S. Norville and Robert P. Simmons voted no. Harold B. Wagstaff and William W. Collier voted yes.

EGG HUNT — Voted 3-1 to close Montecito Drive during an Easter egg hunt in Menke Park April 13 from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. Wagstaff dissented.

TIME — Created two-hour parking zones on Redwood Avenue near Tamalpais Drive and on Casa Buena Drive from the Cadillac agency to Marin Joe's.

FEES — Agreed to waive the business license fees for the Sertoma Club carnival in the Corte Madera Shopping Center next week.

FIRES — Authorized the fire chief to respond to fires outside Marin County if requested by the State Division of Forestry or the State Disaster Office, if the chief feels Corte Madera citizens would not be left unprotected.

BIDS — Called for bids, due April 15 at 10 a.m., on street resurfacing projects and the project to reconstruct Gove Avenue and widen portions of Montecito Drive.

ATTORNEY — Authorized payment of $330 to Town Atty. Sherrod S. Davis for the period ending March 25.

FILL — Authorized filling the Muzzi property on San Clemente Creek with spoils from the Corte Madera Creek Flood Control District dredging.

ADJOURNED — Adjourned to April 16.

Bolinas Volunteer Fire Deputy Resigns

Raymond Saraille, first assistant chief, submitted his resignation at last night's meeting of the Bolinas volunteer fire department. Saraille is moving to Inverness.

Donald Pepper was named first assistant chief until the end of Saraille's term in July.

San Clemente Creek Dredge Costs Boosted

Corte Madera residents along San Clemente Creek can have boating in their back yards, if they want to pay taxes of about $275 a year each to get it.

This was the report given last night by acting town engineer Philip B. Lygren on the feasibility of dredging the creek for an assessment district of boating enthusiasts.

Cost of the project would be about double that originally estimated, Lygren said, and work on it could not begin until the summer of 1969.

In October, before he began his $16,741 report on engineering specifications for dredging the creek, Lygren estimated the cost at $206,500.

Last night, he said the minimum project would cost $410,500 and the maximum project would cost $453,200.

For a typically assessed lot, the cost would be $275 a year for a 15-year bonding period, he said. In addition, the improvement to the property would raise the lot's assessed value about $1,050 a year, raising that average tax about $126 a year.

The cost of berthing facilities would be about $2,100 for each dock, he said. Members of the assessment district would also have to pay about $1-a-year per $100 assessed valuation to maintain the dredged channel, he said.

Lygren recommended that the council give the residents of the assessment district a chance to back out of the deal in light of the cost.

Property owners representing 66.8 per cent of the district had petitioned the council to form the district for dredging of the creek from Paradise Drive to the bay.

Depth of the channel dredged for the minimum project would be minus-3 feet in the interior channel and minus-5 feet in the outer channel, Lygren said.

The optimum channel would range from minue-3 to minus-7 feet, Lygren said.

The channel would be created with a suction dredge, with the spoils being dropped on the Muzzi property, which now receives spoils from the Corte Madera Flood Control project. The spoils could not be placed until the Summer of 1969.

The council last night accepted Lygren's report, paid him out of town funds, and sent the report on to the 144 property owners involved. They asked for a report from the property owners in three months.

Shirley Attacks LBJ Leadership

COLUMBUS, Ohio (UPI) — Dimples flashing, Shirley Temple Black criticized President Johnson for a lack of leadership yesterday in a speech to some 300 Republican women and state officials.

"Now that we have found the land of milk and honey, why is it that we gag on it," said the former chi'd star turned politician. "I'll tell you why. We lack leadership at the top."

"The man at the top has one hand on the reins and the other on a 10-gallon hat," she said. "What we need is a fresh breeze."

Live Grenades Found In Package

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Customs Bureau found live grenades, submachine guns, marijuana and switchblade knives in a test opening of all foreign mail packages at just two ports on one day.

"Absolutely amazing," said Rep. Silvio O. Conte, R-Mass., after Commissioner Lester D. Johnson told a House Appropriations subcommittee about the tests at San Francisco and New York. He didn't say when the tests were made.

Practically all of the military weapons came from the Vietnam area, Johnson said—some possibly as souvenirs. He said military authorities are moving to crack down on the situation.

His testimony was made public today.

Mill Valley Asks Plan For Street Lighting

The Mill Valley City Council last night directed the city's planning commission to make a study and come up with recommendations for a street lighting plan in Mill Valley.

The Pacific Gas & Electric Co. was urged to wind up the first phase of its current street lighting program in Mill Valley, including the addition of 20 lights supplemental to the program.

COMPLAINTS CITED

The recommendations were in response to complaints of Mill Valley residents that PG&E has removed some lights during the current project, and that there have not been needed lighting improvements in other areas.

City Manager Bert A. Balmer, who came up with the idea for a lighting study and plan, also recommended that the council make provisions to hear complaints of residents during the drawing of the lighting plan. Balmer indicated there will be consideration of pedestrian lighting, low intensity lights on short light poles.

TOUR REPORTED

Balmer said he took a nighttime tour of the city last month and was generally satisfied with the adequacy of the lighting at intersections, but saw spots where more lighting could be added. The supplemental list of 20 lights was given to PG&E.

The council, which has not been able to reach an agreement with the Alto Sanitary District for shared costs of trunk line and lift station improvement on Camino Alto, served notice last night that it will terminate its present agreement with Alto, in favor of a more equitable future agreement with the district.

The council approved plans for the Camino Alto sewer work and voted to put the job out to bid.

Balmer said that under Mill Valley's present agreement with Alto, Mill Valley would pay 95 per cent of the cost of the $78,000 for the trunk line and lift station, rather than 65 per cent, which would have been its share if a special assessment district were set up for the work. The sewage from the Alto Sanitary District is transported on city lines.

The councilmen will hold a special meeting at 8 p.m. Thursday to conclude an agreement between Mill Valley and the Mill Valley School District for joint development of property at Camino Alto and Sycamore Avenue as a recreation area and a site for a new middle school.

COST SHARING

The agreement provides that if it becomes necessary to move the existing Community Center on the property when a new school is built, the school district will contribute $20,000 to the cost of relocating the center.

The councilmen were ready to approve the agreement, but they wanted to have the pact before them in all its details before voting for it.

The Mill Valley City Council also:

HARBOR — Rejected a proposal from developer Paul B. Fischer that he serve only as management consultant for a proposed yacht harbor in the Enchanted Knolls area, rather than as the builder of it. The council wants Fischer to go ahead with his original plan to handle the whole job and it asked him to let the city know whether he will go ahead on that basis.

AGREEMENT — Directed the city attorney to draw an agreement with developer Eugene Harter under which the city would get the fill from Enchanted Knolls for its yacht harbor, and in return, would provide Harter with planning and sewage connection services when he begins home building on his Enchanted Knolls property.

Guilty Plea To Marijuana Count

Two Pennsylvania brothers, arrested after a battle with bailiffs in a county courthouse corridor March 4, entered guilty pleas to charges of marijuana possession and resisting a peace officer in Marin Municipal Court yesterday.

Alan Bruce Charne, 21, of Elkins Park, Pa., pleaded guilty to felony marijuana possession. His brother, Andrew Lee Charn, 18, pleaded guilty to the misdemeanor charge of resisting.

Both were originally charged with felony assault on a police officer and possession of marijuana.

Alan Charne was told to appear Monday in Marin Superior Court for sentencing.

IN CORTE MADERA

600 Voters Get Wrong Directions

About 600 Corte Madera voters could have gone to the polls April 9 in the wrong place.

Voters in precincts 4.703 and 4.704 were told by the county elections department to cast ballots in the town council race at the town recreation center on Tamalpais Drive.

Town officials said that the elections department acted without approval from the town council. Peter Meyer, assistant county clerk for elections, asserted his office has a statement from the Corte Madera town clerk designating the recreation center as the polling place for precincts 4.703 and 4.704.

But the town council wanted a change made because, under the county elections department's plans, there would be six polling places, one more than the town thought was needed. Voters in precincts 4.703 will now vote at Town Hall and those in precinct 4.704 will vote at Neil Cummins School. Elections officials have mailed corrective notices.

41 Autos Vie In Economy Race

ANAHEIM (UPI) — Forty-one automobiles were flagged off at one-minute intervals today bound for Times Square in New York on the annual Mobil Economy Run.

The first overnight stop on the 3,000-mile, five and one-half day trip is the Grand Canyon in Arizona where the cars will be impounded under guard.

Crews will compute the mileage and fuel consumption for the first leg of the run to the accuracy of four decimal places. Winners will be determined by the highest overall miles per gallon totals. First, second and third place winners will be judged in seven classifications based on weight, size, wheelbase and cost.

$1,280 Auto Parts Tools Are Taken

Thieves removed doors to the service department of Scripture Oldsmobile Inc., 750 Francisco Boulevard, San Rafael, over the weekend and store parts and tools valued at $1,280, police reported.

The company also reported theft of a $135 radio from a locked car on the used-car lot at the location.

Fire Panel Opposed To Any County Tax

The Kentfield Fire District board last night passed an annual resolution excluding the County of Marin from imposing a structural fire protection tax for district property owners because the district itself taxes for that purpose.

Fire Chief Kenneth Kamp said the board also approved the purchase of 600 feet of one-and one-half inch water hose for about $528 and approved sending five district firemen o the California Rural Fire Association's annual fire protection conference in Salinas April 25-28.

Tam High Teachers Raised; Administrators To Wait

Tamalpais High School District Board last night approved a teacher salary hike proposal, representing a 4.5 per cent increase, but no raise for administrators for the time being. (Another Tamalpais High School Board story, page 1.)

Administrative salaries appeared too many and too high and Trustee Berton C. Jacobson proposed the matter go back for discussion with Supt. Chester G. Carlisle, who was absent last night because of illness.

He said the teachers' proposal, raising the $6,455 to $13,300 pay schedule to range from $6,770 to $13,900, was a fair and reasonable one.

Trustee Gloria Melbostad said the administrative salaries contained eight people "who are paid more than the superintendent of Mill Valley District, who has a doctorate." She was referring to administrators paid more than $18,170 a year.

The controversial salary of Oliver Bonner, district director of maintenance and operations, was not discussed. His name was on the administrative salaries list but the dollar figure left "to be determined."

Robert D. Torrey, assistant superintendent, said it was the policy of the board to pay among the highest salaries in California in order to attract the talent. This was particularly true in regard to teachers.

Mrs. Melbostad wondered out loud whether, if the teachers were so good, the district really needed so many administrators "to ride herd on them."

President John C. Siemens countered by suggesting one reason good teachers came to Tam District was the quality of administrators.

The teachers' increase will cost the district $160,000 a year. Trustees passed the proposed classified salary schedule which will increase the salary bill by $34,500.

Trustees ordered Frank A. Cassou, business director, to check out several auditing firms for an audit of payments to Gromme and Priestly, architects for the proposed San Geronimo High School. The district is unsure the amount paid so far for site studies.

Tamalpais High School District Board Also:

UNWED — Recommended the Marin County Board of Education assume responsibility for the program for educating pregnant teen-agers to enable them to return to school. (See story page 10.)

USE — Stated they had no objection to a chage of use of land in Marin City owned by the district. The Redevelopment Agency of Marin said it was proposed to amend use of the site from a high school to convalescent hospital.

RESIGNATIONS — Accepted the resignations for personal reasons of Redwood High School teacher Mary Jean Odmark, custodian Albert Coats and maintenance man Robert Burns.

Fairfax Planners Revoke Permit On New Carport

The Fairfax Planning Commission last night revoked a permit given to a couple to build an addition to their carport. The couple, Mr. and Mrs. James T. Wenster of 28 Spring Lane, did not install a storm drain under the driveway, as the variance requested.

The vote was 5-0. One member, Harold S. Lezzeni, a neighbor of the Wensters, did not vote.

The Fairfax Planning Commission also:

SEWING — Approved an application from Eileen Casady of 75 Pine Drive to conduct sewing classes at 11 Bolinas Road.

ENCROACH — Approved the application of Tom Fong Jr. for a two and a half foot encroachment on city right of way to remodel his Fairfax Market, 14 Bolinas Road.

HEARING — Set a public hearing for 8 p.m. April 25 on an application from James Johnson, Belvedere, for a change of zoning, from commercial to residential, on property he owns on Sir Francis Drake Boulevard, adjacent to the Fairfax Nursery.

Fund Controls Switch Being Urged By Hollis

Marin County Superintendent of Schools Virgil S. Hollis last night declared that finances of the county schools department should be in the hands of the county board of education not the Marin County Board of Supervisors, which now sets the budget for the department.

Conceding that probably only one supervisor now in office would vote for such a change, Hollis at last night's education board meeting, said that members should begin to consider the plan, because the coming election may change the make-up of the board of supervisors.

Board members last night also approved proposed 1968-69 budgets for the operations of the office of the superintendent of schools and for special education, including programs for physically and mentally handicapped children. The budgets, which total $593,074 for the county schools office and $1,079,000 for the handicapped, will be presented to the Board of Supervisors in June.

They also recommended a proposed administrative salary schedule which would pay the assistant superintendent $18,000 to $19,000 a year in three steps; director, $17,000 to $18,000; supervisors, $16,000 to $17,000; coordinator, $15,500 to $16,500; consultant, $14,500 to $15,500.

The Marin County Board Of Education Also:

GIFTS — Accepted gifts from Elu Wa Toa Campfire Girls, San Rafael Rest Home, Radio Corporation of America and Bill Hecomovich and family.

RESIGNATIONS — Accepted resignations from Philip Kranz, teacher's aide at Sunny Hills; Warren Pendleton, librarian and Clay Wilson, guidance consultant.

EMPLOYMENT — Recommended hiring as consultants Paul Ricciardi, reading specialist; Victor Piltch, reading specialist, Mrs. Mary Collins, conductor of listening center workshop; Merle Wood, data processing consultant; Richard H. Blum, Eva M. Blum and Joseph D. Lohman, to conduct drug abuse education workshop.

AUDIT — Accepted annual audit report by Sleezer and Eckhoff.

APPLICATIONS — Made application for federal funds for San Quentin literacy program, for audio-visual aids for social science and science projects, for guidance project and for Angel Island project.

LIFE DIPLOMAS — Approved life diplomas for Sharon F. Branderburger and Linda G. Hall, kindergarten;primary; Millie R. Campbell, Rulon H. Cook, Hazel Gravem, Wanda M. Heise, general administration.

Petaluma Is In Mood To Quit ABAG

PETALUMA (AP)—In a split decision, the Petaluma City Council voted last night to withdraw from the Association of Bay Area Governments.

There were strong indications, however, that the action would be rescinded.

Dissenting Councilman David Brainerd declared he would move to reconsider the matter at the next meeting attended by the full council.

Two members were absent last night.

Vice Mayor Ken Colin based his opposition on grounds that neither Sonoma County nor Petaluma would have fair representation on ABAG with a one-man one-vote ruling as ordered in a Supreme Court decision.

He contended that more heavily populated counties would "overwhelm" Sonoma.

County Takes Over Unwed Teen Program

The Marin County Board of Education agreed last night to take over the operation of an education and counseling program for pregnant teen-agers for the rest of the school year.

The program, which is headquartered in Marin City, has served 52 girls in the two years of its existence, board members were told by Thomas C. Place of the Economic Opportunities Council.

FUNDS ENDING

The EOC and Tamalpais High School District, in which most of the girls live, both asked the county to take over the project because federal funds which have been partially financing it ended March 31.

State financing is available to continue the program, board members learned, but not to a local district such as Tamalpais High. Because the project is classified by the state as a class for handicapped students the money would have to be dispensed through the county schools office, which operates all classes for handicapped youngsters.

In the two years of its existence the program has cost $21,438, of which the federal portion was $17,733. Place explained that EOC funds are often dispersed like this with the plan of getting a program started, which local groups will then take over.

Place described the success of the program, saying that none of the 52 girls had become pregnant a second time and that all but two of them had returned to regular school after birth of their babies.

ONE STUDY HOUR

One hour of academic study a day is included in the four-hour course, with the rest of the time being devoted to individual counselling, instruction in pre- and post-natal care, nutrition, birth control and other related subjects.

Many of these services are provided by volunteers, Place said.

On the motion of Patrick W. Pollock, who said the board should run the program for the next three months and then make a decision whether to continue it next year, board members voted unanimously to do so.

Downtown Permit, Mobile Home Park Rules Favored

The Novato Planning Commission at a special meeting last night approved a proposed ordinance limiting businesses in the downtown area during a study to be made of the area.

The board also approved a new set of standards for mobile home parks.

Both recommendations will go before the City Council when it meets at 8 p.m. today in the Novato Community House.

The interim ordinance would allow certain businesses in the commercial area only under use permits during the time that the proposed study is being made.

PERMITS REQUIRED

Businesses which must obtain a use permit include: automobile related businesses, including service stations, drive-in restaurants and food dispensing establishments, commercial parking lots; combination industrial uses with sales, such as bakeries and printing establishments, commercial places of amusement, laundromats and grocery stores.

Stores permitted in the commercial zone without a use permit include: book stores and rental libraries, florists, variety, hardware and similar retail businesses.

TEMPORARY CONTROL

This proposed ordinance is an amendment to the existing zoning ordinance and is only an interim ordinance to be in effect during the time required for the downtown study.

The mobile home park standards were changed by the commission and these also will go before the council tonight for its approval.

These changes include: mobile home parks shall not be subdivided for individual ownership; minimum density shall be seven units per acre rather than the current 12; minimum size shall be 14 acres with approximately 100 units on it; 200 square feet of recreational space shall be provided for each facility and a maximum of three feet slope shall exist between lots.

SALES CONTROLS

Other recommendations of the commission were that a plan of the proposed mobile home park be submitted at the time that the rezoning is requested. If the mobile home park is not developed within 18 months of rezoning, it would be reviewed by the commission. The commission would control the sale of mobile homes within the mobile home park.

The commission approved the small changes in the sign ordinance introduced by the council at its meeting last Tuesday.

Stolen Sausalito Clothing Found; Two Arrested

Thieves took stereo equipment, clothing, television sets and radios valued at a total of $4,000 from 515 Sausalito Boulevard, residence of George Dornin, Steven Schaub and Stanley Evans.

On Friday, Sausalito police learned that San Francisco police had arrested a man trying to cash a check on Schaub's account.

Yesterday, Sausalito Sgt. James R. Nunes, Detective Kevin J. Sharp and a San Francisco police inspector went to a San Francisco hotel and interrogated Woodrow F. Bowers, 20, and Joseph Baker, 21, and found a large quantity of clothing in their room. The clothing was later identified as belonging to the three Sausalito men.

Bowers and Baker were booked in San Francisco on suspicion of receiving stolen property. Investigation is continuing.

Sewage Plant Approved For Paradise Drive

Directors of the Tiburon Sanitary District last night voted to go ahead with plans for a treatment plant to be built at Paradise Cove.

The district's attorney, Lawrence Jensen, was authorized to negotiate with Simon Furman, developer of the subdivision, according to Edward P. Ward, secretary.

The first unit of the plant will accomodate 30 families and cost between $25,000 and $30,000, Ward said. More units will be added as the area grows or as adjacent property owners wish to hook into the system, according to Ward.

The board granted permission to the Belvedere-Tiburon Landmarks Society to post a directional sign for Old St. Hilary's museum on or near the treatment plant at Mar West Street and Tiburon Boulevard.

Director Robert A. Sterling was absent.

Extra Hours Set For Registration

The county clerk's offices in the county courthouse and at the civic center will remain open to 9 p.m. Monday through Thursday next week to register eligible Marin voters for the June 4 primary election.

The deadline to register or to change political affiliation for the election is April 11. Deputy registrars also are available at fire stations.

Any voter who moved since he last registered would have to re-register for the election, as would any who have just qualified to vote in Marin. To register, one must be 21 years old as of the election date, have lived in California for one year, and in Marin for 90 days.

Sanity Trial Ordered In Quentin Murder

San Quentin convict Leo Estrada Robles, 22, yesterday demanded that a jury be empaneled to determine if he is sane enough to stand trial for the throat-slashing murder of another inmate Nov. 6 in the prison's psychiatric ward.

Judge Harold J. Haley of Marin Superior Court suspended the murder trial proceedings against Robles and continued the case until Monday to set a sanity trial date.

Robles has pleaded innocent and innocent by reason of insanity to charges that he killed Forrest W. Smith, 22-year-old forger and burglar.

Dmith was found beaten over the head with heavy weights and with his throat slashed by a razor blade which had been imbedded in a tooth brush.

Robles is serving time for the hanging murder of his Santa Clara County jail cellmate in August 1965 and for assault with intent to commit murder the same month.

He is charged with both assault by a life prisoner on another inmate and murder, both death penalty offenses.

Tribunal Hearing Anti-Riot Law Invalidation Plea

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — The California Supreme Court met today to hear arguments in a suit to invalidate California's 1966 anti-riot law, passed at the urging of Los Angeles officials in the wake of the 1965 Watts disorders.

The law makes it a misdemeanor to engage in conduct conducive to setting off riots in threatening situations, or to urge others to do so.

Two residents of the Negro neighborhood of Venice were prosecuted under this law during a disturbance there in September, 1966. The American Civil Liberties Union of Southern California has challenged the statute on behalf of the two defendants, Joseph Davis and Larry Tabay Atkins.

Two Cars Looted Over The Weekend

They stole two guitars worth $300 from the car of John D. Hooper of 214 Magnolia Avenue, Larkspur, parked at Fifth and F Streets, and a $100 stereo and $15 worth of tapes from the car of Gerald A. Hull, parked outside his home at 108 Spring Grove.

Statement of Policy

Regarding Political Advertising

The Independent-Journal does not aggressively solicit or render copy writing service for political advertisements that are argumentative in content. Political advertisements are construed to be all assertions subject to public controversy, whether or not a public election is involved.

Any political advertisement that is not clearly the personal appeal of the elective candidate or candidates involved must show the name of the sponsoring group together with the name or names of one or more persons officiating for such group and their address.

Political advertisements must be submitted in complete and explicit form, ready for the printers, and clearly marked as to size and date of appearance. All political advertisements are payable in advance. Charges are figured at the regular rate.

Advertising deadlines are 4 p.m., two days preceding publication. As example: Tuesday advertisements must be in Friday at 4 p.m.: Monday advertisements must be in the preceding Friday morning. Any intervening holiday advances the deadline by a day.

If a proof is desired, advertisement must be submitted substantially in advance. Corrections, if any, must be ordered by 4 p.m., two working days preceding publication. Any changes from original copy will be charged for on basis of printing work involved.

On the last publication day before an election no political advertisement other than a simple statement of advocacy will be printed. As example: "Vote yes on proposition three," or "Elect John Jones," together with facts as to nature and time of election and, if desired, candidate's party affiliation or occupational identity.

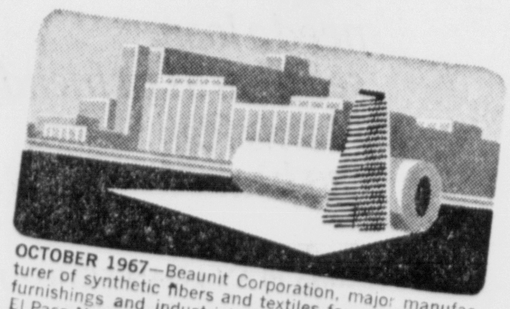
Nearing a public election, no advertisement introducing a new controversial subject will be accepted to run later than the fourth publication day preceding the election. If any new statement or issue should be introduced on the fourth publication day preceding the election, attacking the opposing candidate or issue involved, the newspaper may, at its discretion, make allowance under this rule for the opposing side to answer.

Necessity for the newspaper's disinterested handling of political advertisements is readily apparent. These terms and conditions are adhered to in spirit of fairness to all.

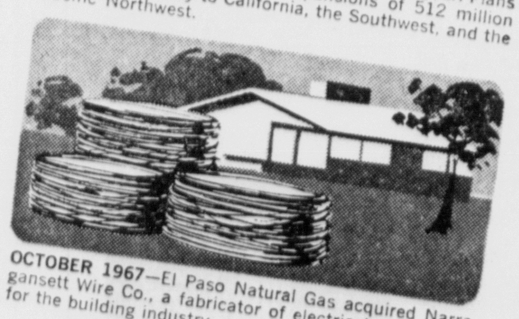
El Paso Natural Gas Is Moving in New Directions

EL PASO NATURAL GAS COMPANY
Progress Report

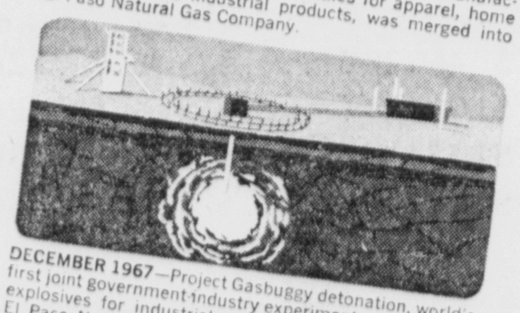
THE YEAR 1967—Record natural gas sales of 1.58 trillion cubic feet were achieved in 1967. Facilities to deliver an additional 253 million cubic feet per day to Southern California were completed by the first of the year. Plans are under way for further expansions of 512 million cubic feet per day to California, the Southwest, and the Pacific Northwest.



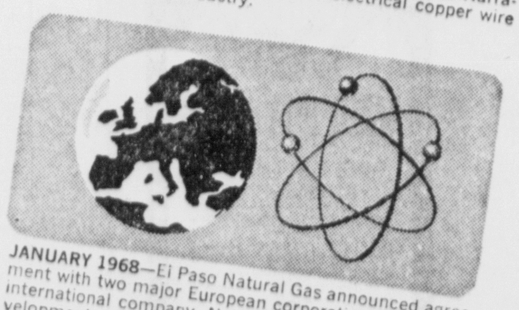
OCTOBER 1967—Beaunit Corporation, major manufacturer of synthetic fibers and textiles for apparel, home furnishings and industrial products, was merged into El Paso Natural Gas Company.



OCTOBER 1967—El Paso Natural Gas acquired Narragansett Wire Co., a fabricator of electrical copper wire for the building industry.



DECEMBER 1967—Project Gasbuggy detonation, world's first joint government-industry experiment using nuclear explosives for industrial purposes, was conducted by El Paso Natural Gas, the Atomic Energy Commission, and the U. S. Bureau of Mines. This pioneering technique may be successful in uniocking hitherto unrecoverable reserves of natural gas.



JANUARY 1968—El Paso Natural Gas announced agreement with two major European corporations to form an international company, Nobel-Paso Geonuclear, for development and promotion of peaceful uses of nuclear explosives outside the United States. El Paso also formed a special nuclear group to spearhead the company's activities in development of peaceful uses of nuclear explosives.

For a copy of El Paso's 1967 Annual Report, write: El Paso Natural Gas Company, El Paso, Texas 79999

El Paso Natural Gas Company is a diversified gas transmission firm, serving 11 western states through a 20,000-mile pipeline network. In addition, it has extensive interests in petrochemicals, agricultural chemicals, electrical copper wiring, plastics, textiles, mining and oil and gas production.

Her Fair Share For Community

Mrs. Harvey N. (Mimi) Black Jr. of Ross, one of the county's best known volunteer leaders, is appealing to Marin newcomers and "newly freed" young matrons to begin giving their fair share in community service, in return for benefits built up for them by others.

Mimi sends out the challenge from Marin's biggest volunteer post for 1968: countywide women's division chairman for the United Bay Area Crusade campaign.

Though she's lived in the county nine years and was 1967 president of the Volunteer Bureau, a UBAC agency, Mrs. Black says she thinks of herself as a newcomer, by virtue of her great freedom to participate in activities outside of her home.

"Many of us have been pretty much tied down, starting our families and with out husbands establishing careers. We've had to leave those volunteer jobs that are so necessary to a good community up to more established women, our predecessors.

"THEY'VE DONE the heavy work for years and years, building up agencies that benefit us such as Scouts, Camp Fire, the Y, Family Service Agency, Caltholic Social Service, Jewish Community Center, Red Cross, Mental Health Association, on and on. They need to be relieved. It's our turn to take part of the burden."

The new Crusade leader compared the situation of the newly freed young matron with that of the new resident in the county.

"Volunteering is one way of becoming directly involved in community affairs. And, Crusade and its 176 agencies touch each of our lives and our families in several ways. United Crusading offers the chance to meet many people, who are concerned with every facet of community welfare."

EXCEPT FOR her recent leadership in Volunteer Bureau, Mrs. Black has, indeed, kept to her activities at home with three youngsters, Tres, 8, Anne, 6, and Caren, 3. Her husband is an attorney with his office in San Francisco. Her interests are gardening, music, tennis and skiing.

As a newcomer to Marin, she volunteered for four years in the Marin City Well Baby Clinic, under the county health department, receiving a wealth of experience in both volunteer service and with the babies.

She is a member of Junior League of San Francisco and a charter member of the newly formed Planned Parenthood Auxiliary of Marin.

A native of Youngstown, Ohio, Mrs. Black was graduated from National Cathedral School for Girls in Washington and Colby College in New Hampshire. She trained as a laboratory technician and worked with an internist in San Francisco before her marriage.

A BUSY VOLUNTEER, Mimi Black still spends much of her time at home in Ross. Here she reads to her youngsters, Caren, 3, Anne, 6, and Tres, 8, (in foreground). She's chairman this year for the Marin women's division for the United Bay Area Crusade campaign.

Youth Turns To Mysticism

Thousands of American youths are turning to Eastern spiritual discipline to gain insight into their lives.

Why are they turning East? The answer according to an article in the April issue of Eye magazine is this:

Many have found Western theology cumbersome, intangible and inappropriate — tuned to a way of life they have rejected on other levels.

Enlightment should lie not at the end of a life of labor but rather behind a corner in one's own psyche. This is a concept which intimidates the American middle-aged mainstream while enchanting its children.

"The appeal of Zen," according to philosopher Alan Watts, "and of other forms of Eastern philosophy, is that it unveils, behind the urgent realm of good and evil, a vast region of oneself about which there need be no guilt or recrimination, where at last the self is indistinguishable from God."

Belief in the power of the mantra — a magic, verbal formula, the repetition of which is supposed to change the universe — is a matter of faith. Belief in the resurrection of Christ is also a matter of faith.

INSPIRED HOUSEWIVES

Woman-To-Woman Program Organized

By MAYBELLE SPECKMANN

Approximately 75 women, some with babies in arms, turned out yesterday morning at St. Paul's Episcopal Church in San Rafael to organize the Woman to Woman program in Marin.

It was a group consisting largely of young suburban housewives fired with enthusiasm for the objectives of the program. These include abolishment of war, "building the earth for the children's sake," working for one humanity, one spirit and one world and providing a focus for the energies of young people in national service.

Started last fall on the Peninsula with about 100 women, largely under the guidance of Mrs. Harry Rathbun of Stanford, the movement has spread all over the Bay Area, extending also to Sacramento and Bakersfield, until it now numbers around 2,000 women.

Mrs. Bruce Weber, coordinator of the meeting yesterday, and Mrs. Dan Dippery, both of Corte Madera, were among the original 100 women.

The meeting yesterday began with the showing of an artistic film in two parts made up of still pictures collected by the women. The first part showed positive accomplishments and potentialities of nature and man, and the second illustrated how man has brought ugliness and violence to the world. It ended with a dramatic recording of "Who Will Answer?" sung by Ed Ames.

Mrs. Barbara Nagai of Berkeley then spoke, saying that it is women who will answer the call to build the earth. She introduced Mrs. Weber, who read an inspirational speech outlining woman's role in providing the answers.

Woman to Woman has been incorporated as a non-profit, non-political and non-denominational organization that is not activist in the marching-demonstrating sense of the word. Members believe the way is through education to make women extend their concern beyond their homes to the community, nation and the world.

They have no official leaders or officers. All are leaders—leading one another on a person-to-person basis individually and in small groups.

Their first concerted project is support of the national service program—a plan to provide youth with a choice of ways to serve their country in addition to military service. The proposal is for young people to give two years to service in such organizations as the Peace Corps and Vista or other areas of their own choice.

This may involve working with the problems of ghettos, poverty and other social evils.

A pilot program is planned in September in which 1,000 Bay Area young people will tackle social problems locally. Eventually legislation will be sought to make national service not a substitute for but the equivalent of military service.

After the meeting all were invited to lunch in the homes of five Marin women, where discussions were held on ideas presented during the morning.

A follow-up meeting is scheduled at 8 p.m. April 8 in the fireside room of the First Presbyterian Church in San Anselmo, when a panel featuring men from the National Service Foundation will explain national service.

Mount Carmel Church Setting For Nuptials Of Edith Kelly

Edith Kelly, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Kelly of Mill Valley, became the bride of Donald A. Politis Saturday in a 1 p.m. ceremony at Our Lady of Mount Carmel Church in Mill Valley.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel A. Politis of New Britain, Conn.

An August 17 wedding at First Presbyterian Church in San Rafael is planned.

FOR THE BEST-DRESSED MEN IN MARIN
TO WEAR IN THE EASTER NON-PARADE

Marinites tend to be non-paraders, even at Easter-time. But that's not to say they don't want (and need) something new as the season and fresh as an egg. A new sportscoat, for instance. For the Man of the Family, Kaufman's own light-but-warm coat of Dacron® polyester and wool in light blue, olive, gold, navy; sizes reg. 38-44, long 40-46, 55.00

For the son and heir, a lightweight Palm Beach coat in a pale Tattersall plaid. Sizes 8-12, 20.00; 13-20 . . . . . 25.00

Kolnisch Juchten (left), the gentleman's cologne from Cologne, Germany, with the crest of Johann Maria Farina, symbol of the oldest existing Eau de Cologne factory.

In three sizes: 5.00, 7.00, 12.50

HELEN HELP US!

By HELEN BOTTEL

Old Pass-The-Butt Trick Gets An Innocent Girl In Trouble

DEAR HELEN :

I was in the girls' rest room minding my own business and putting on lipstick when a girl I hardly even knew suddenly said, "Here, hold my cigarette." I did.

That was dumb. She had seen the vice-principal coming in the door and I hadn't. Guess who got sent home for smoking? Nobody would believe that I don't smoke, and I sure wouldn't fink on the girl.

I told my folks somebody handed me the cigarette and they can't understand why I'd protect a sneak, and why I won't let them go talk to the principal. I'm almost sorry they believe me, as they're mad enough to get me in an awful mess with the kids. You see, they know who the girl is.

Would you please tell parents that nobody likes a tattletale? —ACCUSED ON-SMOKER

DEAR PARENTS OF ANS:

Leave it lay. By this time the principal probably knows which girl was the smoker, so let your daughter earn points for honor. It's a small price for learning an important lesson: Never fall for the old pass the butt trick, among others! —H.

DEAR HELEN:

Can you please tell me why the boys talk and joke around with me at school, but won't ask for a date?

People tell me I'm cute looking. I'm very outgoing and have a good sense of humor. I have lots of friends among boys, but no boyfriend. If there's a school dance, I go stag, but dance all evening and have a good time.

If the guys like me, why don't they ask for dates? Does a girl have to be fast and loose to be popular?

Could you, Helen, and some of your male readers tell me and a lot of other girls what it takes to be date bait?—LONELY TEEN-AGER

DEAR LONELY:

Perhaps the boys still think of you as one of the guys, a good buddy who kids around so much she doesn't let them know she is a feminine-type girl. Work on charm and soft-pedal the old-pal routine.

I'm guessing, of course, but maybe your sharp wit punctures male ego. Boys seldom date the life of the party. They prefer good listeners.

Remember, too, that fellows don't date as much as most people think. They've discovered it's cheaper to meet a girl at a dance than take her there. They shudder at being trapped by the steady system, so they avoid entanglements.

Okay, I've had my say. Now let's hear it from the guys.—H.

DEAR HELEN:

The letter from "Scared" might have been written by me at age 16. I too was deathly afraid of everything — dark streets, getting my drivers' license, crowds.

Now, at 21, I'm still rather timid in certain situations, but I've changed myself radically. May I share with "Scared" the steps I took?

1. Get a new self-concept. Determine your strong and weak points. Work on both. A person who respects himself will be respected by others.

2. Get involved. Remember others are afraid too, and need help.

3. Dare yourself to do that which you fear, provided it's sensible and for your own good. If you fail, learn to laugh at your mistakes, avoiding self-pity.

4. Talk about your fears, as Helen says. You'll discover you aren't alone.

5. Read up on psychology. It helps you know yourself.

6. Love! Love yourself and your fellowman. Accept friendship without suspicion.

Thank you, Helen, for letting me expand on your good answer. I've learned you can change neurotic to normal if you meet your problems head on. —KNOWS

RIDING IN the rumbleseat of the bright yellow 1931 Ford coupe from St. Francis Episcopal Church in Novato following their wedding to the reception at the bride's parent's home are Mr. and Mrs. Mark Heisel. The bride is the former Linda Wright, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Wright of Novato.

Mary Hawkins Engaged To Wed Thomas Hayes

In a traditional candle ceremony yesterday at the Delta Gamma sorority house at San Jose State College, the engagement of Mary Hawkins and Thomas William Hayes was announced. Mary is the daughter of Mrs. Joseph Hawkins of Kentfield and the late Dr. Hawkins.

MARY HAWKINS

The bride-elect is the sister of Peter Hawkins of Walnut Creek, Robert Hawkins of Santa Ana and Maj. Joseph Hawkins stationed in Germany. She attended San Domenico School For Girls and is a student at San Jose State College.

Thomas, the son of Col. and Mrs. William Hayes of Beal Air Force Base, will be graduated from San Jose State College in June. He is the brother of Timothy, Robert, Daniel and Susan Hayes, all of Beal Air Force Base.

The future bridegroom attended Millard Preparatory School and Oregon State University. He will receive a commission with the U. S. Marine Corps in June and the wedding date has been set for July.

New Stewardess

Jo Ann Whiteman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Whiteman Jr. of Peacock Gap, was elected first vice president of Alpha Gamma Delta. She is a junior at the University of Colorado.

Sorority Initiate

A new initiate of Beta Kappa chapter of Delta Zeta sorority at Iowa State University is Erica Schultz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Niels Schultz Jr. of Greenbrae.

Heisel-Wright Vows Said

The bridegroom wore a derby and his attendants wore silk top hats when Linda Margaret Wright and Mark E. Heisel of Moscow, Idaho, were united in marriage at St. Francis Episcopal Church in Novato on Wednesday.

The couple rode from the church in the rumble seat of a bright yellow 1931 Ford coupe to the reception held at the home of the bride's parents.

Linda, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Wright of Novato, chose as her matron of honor Mrs. Steven Green of Oroville.

Mark, the son of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Heisel of Novato, was attended by Vic Smalling of Novato as best man and ushers, Dick and Jim Wright.

The bride is the sister of Bill Wright of Corvallis, Ore., Dick Wright of Corte Madera and Jim Wright of Novato. Mrs. W. E. Wright of Novato is their grandmother.

Linda was graduated from Novato High School and attended Sonoma State College. She is a secretary at the University of Idaho.

The bridegroom is attending the University of Idaho and the couple will reside in Moscow. Mark is the brother of Mrs. J. P. Smalling and Erick Heisel of Novato.

Easter Sunday Customs Vary In Countries Around World

NEW YORK (UPI) — Ever wonder what your "neighbors" around the world will be doing Easter Sunday while you're sporting new finery at church or watching the kids hunt for hidden Easter eggs?

The customs and clothes of Easter vary widely from country to country.

In Bombay, India, Christian women have their own special Easter attire—bright red saris worn to signify rejoicing, says Interflora, the international arm of Florists' Transworld Delivery Association.

THE INDIAN WOMEN join a colorful procession that winds to the top of a hill outside the city of Bombay where stands a shrine that has been visited by Pope Paul VI. A special sweet pastry called Mithai is served to the worshippers.

In Yugoslavia, the youngest girl in the family takes part of the food from the Easter feast to church to have it blessed. The family then ceremoniously eats these morsels before settling down to the rest of the dinner.

IN MOSLEM EGYPT, Easter is a national holiday observed by all sects and religions. They mingle in the parks and on the hillsides to picnic on sardines and Easter eggs.

In Mexico, streets turn smoky the night before Easter as effigies of Judas are burned. In Brazil, Easter is heralded by an intensive radio and press campaign to get people to go to church Sunday.

Rome has many special observances to mark Easter. The streets are fragrant with the scent of special pastries being turned out by the bakeries, and crowded with the faithful who have come from outlying districts.

IN THE HOLY LAND, in addition to other observances, a ceremony called "the miracle of the holy fire" is held. The fire is lit in the Church of the Holy Sepulchre by patriarchs of the Eastern sects. From this flame runners light torches and race away to the waiting faithful. Men and women crowd close to the runners to light their own candles from these fires.

A colorful ceremony is held in Florence, Italy, where four white oxen are driven through the streets pulling a cart laden with fireworks. A custom preserved from the Middle Ages, it annually marks the passing of Lent and serves as an omen for the coming year. A flaming torch is thrown into the cart among the fireworks. If they go off, good luck is assured for the coming year.

Town & Country Village

It's Eastertime in The Village! From Tuesday, April 9th through Saturday, April 13th, you'll find an Easter animal corral of baby farm animals located at the rear of Safeway Market . . . hours are 10 to 6. And, from 12:30 to 4:30, a "real live Easter Bunny" will stroll through The Village with candy and coloring books for children with adults. Happy Easter!

Proud new owners of CARLTON'S VILLAGE SPORTSWEAR, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Zeplowitz, escorted me around this good-looking shop last week. Main point of interest was their new Junior Man Department. Of course, they still carry fine lines for men here, too . . . Arrow, Catalina, Martin, Lord Jeff sweaters, Pendleton, etc. I think their idea with the Junior Man Dept. is excellent and certain to be popular. In sizes 14 to 20, they offer all the looked-for labels . . . Robert Bruce, Levi, Catalina, Arnold Palmer sweaters, Jockey underwear and much more. I wouldn't hesitate to turn loose my "pushing 15" year old son here. He couldn't go wrong, really, the way these new owners have stocked this department . . . up-to-date styles, all in excellent taste. They carry a great robe that will interest ladies as well as males . . . a robe for lounging or poolside that comes in bright terrycloth on one side and a harmonizing cotton print on the reversible side. Very smart!

Whee . . . lookie what THE HOUR GLASS has for very special Easter gifts, and at very special prices. There is a nylon tricot baby doll set in Easter Egg colors for $3.98. For the "mini minded," THE HOUR GLASS offers nylon tricot half slips for $2.98 . . . these are in splashy prints that look for all the world like a spring garden.

Found at ALBERTA OF MARIN, wee tiny baskets to fill with her miniature spring blossoms as a memorable gift for shut-ins (or anyone, for that matter). Also lots of supplies for Easter decorations and arrangements.

VILLAGE LIQUORS is ready with the perfect potables for those first patio parties. Keg beer (including the Tapper size) . . . also, honest to goodness Hard Cider in a classic half gallon jug. Should spring sunshine bring a boating invitation, a host gift to guarantee an all-season welcome could well be the handsome Captain's Decanter of Old Kentucky Tavern bourbon I noticed in the window at VILLAGE LIQUORS.

All you transplanted Easterners, get in line . . . after me, you come first for THE HICK'RY PIT'S Every Friday Special. This is really homemade New England Clam Chowder (the creamy kind with lots of those little clam-rascals in each bowlful. Delicious!) I'm reminded that besides the above treat there are numerous other Lenten dishes on the regular HICK'RY PIT menu. Of course, there are some in our tribe who never seem to get past those barbecued spareribs at this popular priced family restaurant. But it's a nice rut to be in . . . these spareribs are lean and meaty with a sauce that is seasoned "just right" for everyone.

News from INN MARIN . . . a Fizz Brunch will be served on Sundays from 11 to 3. Chef Jim (Scotty) Davidson promises his famous, homemade Scottish Scones on the Bruncheon menu. Easter dinner will be served at INN MARIN from three o-clock. Besides their regular menu they will feature roast leg of lamb and baked ham. As always they will offer a special children's plate at a special child-size price.

Peeking around a veritable zoo of stuffed bunnies at PATTON'S CHILDREN'S SHOP, I found some adorable Easter outfits for little girls. My favorite is a Kate Greenway A-line dress of black with large white polka dots, white cowl collar, cuffs and hem . . . and with its own slip. This sprightly number would team up beautifully with PATTON'S bright red straw Breton sailor hat with its red grograin ribbon trim.

All sorts of decorative ideas for your Easter table at FIESTA CANDLE SHOP. There are Easter Egg candles embossed with tiny flowers, just right for each place setting and to travel home with guests. Also, as a gift or for your own enjoyment, fat candles in spring colors, atop a carved golden pedestal. The candle is surrounded by a color-harmonized wreath of "roses."

Looking for a nice little "about-a-dollar-size" Easter gift? . . . look at the choice at THE GOLDEN CHERUB. This charming bath boutique carries numerous gift boxes of fancy soaps that are color-keyed to match any decor, pretty soap dishes, a chunky little bathroom glass hand painted in gold and an unusual sachet . . . a tiny bouquet of scented "violets" in a white glass vase.

The Bunny has already visited EDY'S OF MARIN and left behing all sorts of treasures for you. There are many sizes and styles of baskets filled with that famous EDY'S candy . . . colorful foil wrapped chocolate eggs and Easter figures, cream-filled chocolate eggs, bright papier mache, candy-filled eggs to delight a teenager and lots of do-it-yourself fixings for Easter baskets. As if this wasn't enough, the Bunny left his own image in delightful stuffed animals . . . also chicks and ducks, too.

At VILLAGE SHOE DEN Small Daughter found just the shoes she wanted to lead the Easter Parade. Typically female, she had a dreadful time choosing between the Poll Parrot patents in T-strap style of Mary Janes (those neatly old-fashioned kind without rhinestones or what-have-you). Of course, she was more than just a little pleased with her free Poll Parrot silver "shoe" filled with candy and trinkets . . . just like the one Captain Kangaroo talks about. For playtime, we found leather sandals at VILLAGE SHOE DEN, also by Poll Parrot. There is a wonderful contest going on here with four valuable children's prizes . . . just go in and register—nothing else required.

"Fresh as a daisy" sounds a bit trite when used in connection with THE DAISY-BUG but the phrase certainly describes their Villager and Ladybug spring suits. This collection is in a whole rainbow of spring colors . . . also, always smart red, white and blue checks. Featuring this season's fashion headliner, the dirndle skirt, they offer a very pretty white pique suit. Be sure to see the new shoes and purses at THE DAISYBUG, they are better looking than ever and complement the suits very nicely.

For a "Something Different Easter Basket" see what RANCHO RAVIRI has done with their many flavors of almonds. There is a whole line of pastel colored and candy coated almonds (you know they really do look like Easter Eggs) plus their zippy cocktail flavors. This newish Village shop offers many unusual taste treats and you are always welcome to nibble on samples before you make up your mind.

Wonderful Hallmark Easter cards at ROJEAN'S CARD & PARTY SHOP. The "Thought o' You" line is especially noteworthy . . . egg shaped, spring colors, short 'n sweet messages. ROJEAN'S also carries many lovely, inspirational religious cards.

Discovered Charlie Brown and the whole "Peanuts" gang side by side at CAPRICORN BOOKS in a series of $1.00 books. Looking out at our windy hillside, "Go Fly a Kite, Charlie Brown" seems appropriate for the season. And "You're Something Else, Charlie Brown" certainly qualities for year-round appeal. Since we are all "Peanuts" fans at our house, we were glad to see that CAPRICORN BOOKS stocks "Peanuts" sweatshirts in all sizes, colors and characters. If Charlie Brown just isn't your bag, maybe you'd like to talk to the animals so, CAPRICORN BOOKS has all the Dr. Doolittle books. Free gift wrapping and mailing here . . . also free delivery in Southern Marin.

Now that we're all coming out of winter hibernation, let's plan a party . . . the kind the hostess enjoys too. No such thing? . . . then you haven't heard about L'ENTREE catering, dear. Master Chef, Louis Reimers, is a past master at all types of entertaining. For instance, his cocktail-buffets are a marvel of ease for the hostess and delicious eating for her guests. L'ENTREE'S hors d'oeuvres menu is spectacular and this catering service carries right through with rentals, maids, etc., if needed.

One of the few restaurants I know that really welcomes small banquets is KUBLAI KHAN. The setting here is so attractive and the superb Oriental and Continental cuisine pleases any palate. Said "small banquet" might well be an annual gathering of your club or organization . . . or perhaps a holiday gathering of "the clan."

Innocent Plea To Hitting Officer

Haakon Adelston Fuiren Jr., committed to Atascadero State Hospital in October when a Marin Superior Court judge determined he was not sane enough to cooperate with his attorney, returned to Municipal Court yesterday to face a charge of striking a police officer.

Fuiren, 37, of no fixed address, pleaded innocent to the charge and was told to appear at a preliminary hearing Thursday.

Fuiren is accused of assaulting San Rafael Patrolman D. A. Merkley Sept. 13 on B near Second Street.

Judge Joseph G. Wilson of Marin Superior Court ordered him to Atascadero State Hospital for an indefinite treatment period Oct. 4, after a sanity hearing.

Another Minor Airport Mishap

The second non-injury accident at the new Marin County Airport at Novato occurred at 4:05 p.m. Sunday, according to Francis E. Torr, airport manager.

A Cessna 172, owned and piloted by William Markler of Colma, was coming in for a landing at the time, Torr said. The left wheel skidded 150 to 200 feet and the plane went over on its nose, Torr said.

There was no fire or damage to the landing strip. The plane, which sustained considerable damage to its left wing and nose, was towed to its regular tie-down spot at the airport, according to Torr.

Markler was not hurt, Torr said.

Council To Study Avenue Widening

A continued discussion of widening plans for Magnolia Avenue from the north city limits to the 900 block of Magnolia Avenue is scheduled for the 8 p.m. meeting tomorrow of the Larkspur City Council at city hall.

The council plans to keep the widening project within the existing 60-foot right-of-way, but hasn't decided the extent of parking facilities or number of lanes, officials said.

The council also will hear a report on the proposed widening of Redwood Avenue and Oak Road, consider introducing an underground utilities ordinance, and set a public hearing date for the proposed amended sign ordinance.

Eight Racing Pigeons Are Reported Stolen

Eight racing pigeons, valued at about $300, were stolen Friday from the coop of David Moon at 41 Meadow Drive, Santa Venetia, sheriff's deputies reported today.

Officers were told it was the second time in a week pigeons had been taken from the coop by someone cutting the wire.

Election Set

A new chairman and vice chairman will be elected when the Mill Valley Architectural Advisory Committee meets at 8 p.m. today in the city council chamber. The committee will also study recommended changes in the sign ordinance.

Special Session Set On Charges In Hub

The San Anselmo City Council will hold a special meeting tonight to answer charges of two office seekers that the council blew chances to save the taxpayers some money.

Mayor Arthur W. Smith said he is the only incumbent running for re-election, but he said two other councilmen, Robert W. Scott and Woodrow V. Capurro, are also angry about the charges and asked for tonight's meeting, which will be at 8 o'clock in the city hall.

The city didn't support a proposal to exempt cities from paying taxes for police services in county area.

City councilmen are drawing $9,000 a year in salaries which the taxpayers didn't have a chance to vote on.

The city is getting $20,000 more a year in cigarette taxes, but not because the city pushed the increase in the lefislature.

Mayor Smith said none of the charges are true, and the council will prove it at tonight's meeting.

"We got every dollar that was available to us from the water district," said Smith, "and we did support the proposal to relieve us of taxation for county police services.

"It's not true, either, that we didn't push for the 3-cent-a-pack increase in cigarette taxes."

The councilmen's $150 a month salaries were set by the Legislature, said Smith, and there is a proposal on the ballot to reduce them to $25 a meeting, or a maximum of $75 a month, Smith said that when the councilmen accepted the Legislature's salary schedule for cities of San Anselmo's size last year, they promised to put the salaries to a vote at the first election.

Mayor Smith said he also had an answer for another charge in the Reed-Anderson campaign flier. The flier asked, "Are you frustrated when you read about the council wasting its time on trivialities?"

"I don't know what they mean by that," said Smith. "Reed and Anderson come to every council meeting, and they have questions to ask about everything that comes up.

"If anyone is wasting time on trivialities, they are the ones who are doing it."

This is the first election try in San Anselmo for Reed and Anderson, both businessmen. One councilman, John W. Reichmuth, is not seeking re-election. The fourth council candidate, in addition to Smith, Reed and Anderson, is Harold E. Matteuci.

Tape Recorder Reported Stolen

Weekend break-ins in San Rafael netted a tape recorder, pool sweep and silver dollars for the thcieves, according to police.

Harold Wagner, manager of Rafael Racquet Club, reported the theft of a $240 pool sweep and two sets of swings, valued at $50.

Silver dollars and silver certificate $2 bills were stolen from the home of Fred P. Schwab at 21 Dolores Street, said police.

Boys' Club Week Being Observed

National Boys' Club Week is being celebrated this week by the Boys' Club of Southern Marin with a number of events, including fathers' night at 7 p.m. tomorrow at the Marin City Community Center.

An awards banquet will be held at 7 p.m. Friday at the Corte Madera Recreation Center. Willie Hector, head football coach at Tamalpais High School, will speak.

Jewelry Stolen

Lillian Loran of 3475 Paradise Drive, Tiburon peninsula, reported to sheriff's deputies Thursday that jewelry, including three rings, clothing and a tape recorder were taken from her home sometime between 12:30 and 3 p.m. The value of the missing items was not listed.

Cyclist Treated For Cut Ankle

Bryce C. Anderson of 412 Fawn Drive, Sleepy Hollow, was treated at Marin General Hospital.

The accident occurred four miles north of Marshall at 10:30 p.m. according to the California Highway Patrol.

5-Year Status On Low-Cost Housing Asked

San Rafael city councilmen want a five-year residency requirement and priority for elderly in any leased housing program for low-income families in the city.

The Marin County Housing Authority requested the council in February to approve a program whereby the authority would lease private housing units in the city.

FOR PROTECTION

Councilman Louis H. Baar said, "This should be for people who have lived in San Rafael for some time, and particularly for senior citizens."

At hand was a letter from Donald O. Stutsman, executive director of the authority, requesting the council to consider as a resident anyone who has lived in the city one year.

"I was thinking of at least five years," said Baar, "and I suggest 80 per cent of the rentals for the elderly."

This, he said, would be in keeping with the council's initial intent, rather than providing the housing "for the people who move in for this type of benefit."

SERVICE PLEA

In his letter, Stutsman noted that there are "250 senior households and, perhaps, about the same number of younger households" who would qualify. "It is our joint obligation to serve both groups."

Senior citizens could be given priority, Stutsman wrote.

Councilmen asked City Mgr. Dan E. Andersen to check the existing vacancy rate in housing, and postponed action on a resolution approving leased housing until May 6.

Novatan To San Rafael's Finance Job

James H. McCown, 55, of Novato, finance director of San Pablo, Contra Costa County since 1964, was appointed last night to become San Rafael's finance director April 16.

McCown, a retired Air Force colonel, served as comptroller of the Fourth Air Force, Hamilton Air Force Base, from 1958-60.

$1,000 A MONTH

He was hired at a salary of $1,000 a month to succeed Orin C. Wendling, who resigned last month to accept a similar job in La Mesa, San Diego County. Wendling had been receiving $1,020 a month.

McCown served in the Army and the Air Force from 1935-1950, and then served as director of finance for Air Materiel Command, Wright-Patterson Air Force Base, Ohio, and comptroller Air Material Depot, Chateauroux, France.

Then came his two years at Hamilton Air Force Base, and three years as director of accounting and finance, Air Force Systems Command, Andrews AFB, Washington, D. C.

While at San Pablo he has served as civil defense coordinator and as a member of the advisory committee on data processing at Contra Costa College.

CHICAGO GRADUATE

McCown is a graduate of the University of Chicago School of Business and received his masters degree at Duke University, Durham, N. C.

McCown, his wife, and two sons, live at 17 Truman Drive.

Wisconsin City Votes On Peace

MADISON, Wis. (UPI)—The number one issue in the country, the Vietnam War, went before Madison voters today in the form of a referendum.

A majority of "yes" votes on the referendum would make Madison the first city in the nation to officially oppose the war. The voting itself climaxed one of the most heated referendum campaigns in recent years.

The referendum asked voters to say whether:

"It is the policy of the city of Madison that there be an immediate cease fire and withdrawal of troops from Vietnam, so that the Vietnamese people can determine their own destiny."

JOHNSON GREETS A BUDDY

President Johnson gives Chicago's Mayor Richard Daley an affectionate hug as the president arrives in Chicago yesterday to address the National Association of Broadcasters. Daley, head of the large Cook County Democratic organization and a strong Johnson backer, said later he would remain silent for a while regarding support of any presidential candidate. His decision followed Johnson's announcement he would not seek re-election. (AP Wirephoto)

Action Delayed On Proposal For Curfew On 21-Year-Olds

San Rafael City Council postponed action last night on a proposal to extend the age limit for the curfew law from 18 to 21 years of age.

The delay came at the request of Deputy Police Chief Joseph Brusatori, who said he wanted to bring the matter before the Marin Police Chiefs Association. Cities now have a uniform curfew ordinance, he explained.

Along with boosting the age limit, the council will consider changing the curfew hour from 11 p.m. to 10 p.m. Councilmen postponed action on the proposed new regulations until May 20.

The San Rafael City Council Also:

CIRCUS PERMIT — Granted North Bay Chapter No. 15, International Footprint Association, a police booster group, a permit to conduct a circus at the Northgate Fashion Mall, May 25 and 26.

ZONING CLARIFICATION — Approved an amendment to the zoning ordinance to clarify the status of property in planned unit development districts, after no protests were heard at a public hearing.

BUILDING CODE — Gave first reading to an ordinance adopting the 1967 uniform building code, and set a public hearing for May 6 at 8 p.m.

ELECTRICAL CODE — Gave first reading to an ordinance amendment to permit the fixing of electrical permit fees by council resolution.

LIGHT STATION — Took no action on a recommendation from the city planning commission to support Richmond's campaign to preserve the Brothers Island Light Station as an historic San Francisco Bay landmark.

ACCESSORY STRUCTURES — Indicated they would favor labeling existing side-yard structures such as sheds and arbors "non conforming" and applying recently enacted regulations to future structures of that type.

CLAIMS DENIED — Denied the claims of Mrs. Ray S. Maggard, 259 Center Street, for $60, and Mrs. Ralph Brisbin, 263 Center Street, for $35 for damage allegedly caused by a sewer backup March 12; the claim of Mrs. Barbara Meislin, 116 Lyford Drive, Tiburon, for $1,000 plus medical expenses for foot and ankle injuries suffered on Fourth Street, near Macy's, on Jan. 6, and a claim from Salts Fish and Chips, 247 Third Street, for $6,793 in business loss and damages, for an alleged sanitation breakdown.

PARKING ORDINANCE — Gave first approval to an ordinance limiting the parking of commercial vehicles in both residential and commercial areas to one hour, except for loading or unloading or when being used in connection with work underway or a service being provided.

FIREMEN'S MASKS — Approved the purchase of plastic masks for firemen, 50 to 60, whatever needed, at a cost of $12 each, if funds are available in this year's budget.

PUBLIC HEARING — Set April 15 for hearing an appeal by San Rafael Cayes Inc. of the planning commission's approval of a 60-acre sanitary fill area north of the San Quentin disposal site along Highway 17.

DREDGING FUNDS — Urged Congress to accept the Marine Affairs Conference request for California navigational needs, which City Mgr. Dan E. Andersen said might bring funds to the city for dredging San Rafael Canal.

APPOINTMENT — Appointed Councilman Louis H. Baar to represent the city at meetings of the Tri-Partite Transportation Committee.

Lodge Appointed Envoy To Bonn

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson has nominated Henry Cabot Lodge, former ambassador to South Vietnam and the Republican vice presidential nominee in 1960, to be ambassador to West Germany.

Lodge, 65, will replace George McGhee, who will return to Washington to become a special ambassador. McGhee, 56, is a former ambassador to Turkey and a former undersecretary of state.

The president announced the job shift in the cabin of his plane Monday on his return from Chicago where he made an address. Lodge has been a special ambassador since he returned from Vietnam.

West Germany has approved the assignment.

Strike Hits Qantas

SYDNEY (UPI)—The Flight Stewards Association went on strike today against Qantas Airlines, grounding the airline's planes all over the world. Safety provisions and a dispute over use of Australian domestic staffs on flights to New Guinea were major issues.

Rec Program Held Hurting Businesses

San Rafael City Councilman Fred E. Jensen ripped into the city recreation department last night for programs "competing with private enterprise."

"Judo, slim-trim programs, yoga . . . this doesn't belong in the recreation program," Jensen said. "Now they're talking about giving piano lessons."

He charged that such programs are "running competition" to "people trying to make a living. They are taxpayers and they have to help pay for their own competition."

HURTING OTHERS

Jensen also contended that the expanding recreation program has adversely affected organizations such as the Young Men's Christian Association and Catholic Youth Organization and others . . . "practically putting them out of business . . . and San Rafael is paying for it all."

Andrew J. Snyder, parks and recreation director, noted that fees are charged for special programs and they are mainly self-supporting.

"I don't think we should approve competing with private enterprise," Jensen said. "The recreation department is going overboard."

ASKS BUDGET DROP

He advised Snyder to "get the program down, not up, and get the budget down."

Snyder said the program was expanded this year without affecting the budget by a system of "fees and charges."

Councilman Louis H. Baar suggested that the council review the recreation program to determine where it's "stepping on private enterprise."

Mayor C. Paul Bettini suggested that there be caution on extending the recreation program in areas related to private enterprise.

Trio Bound Over On Check Fraud Charges

Three men accused of trying to bilk the Bank of Marin in San Rafael with fraudulent checks Feb. 13 denied the charges in Marin Superior Court yesterday and were scheduled for jury trial April 29.

Walter and Mark Jenkins, aged 29 and 23, and Henry Charles Kates, 23, all of Richmond, pleaded innocent to charges of possessing fraudulent checks.

Center Support Rally Is Slated

A rally in support of the $550,000 Fairfax civic center bond issue will be held at 7:30 p.m. April 18 at the Fairfax Women's Club.

The committee to promote the bond issue, headed by Frank Blake and Mrs. Fay Jensen, has selected a name for itself, Taxpayers for Planned Progress.

Innocent Plea To Marijuana Charge

Phillip David Brown, 21, of Sausalito, pleaded innocent in Marin Superior Court yesterday to a charge he possessed a marijuana cigarette Oct. 15 at a College of Marin dance.

Artist Quesada's Works On Display

Paintings by former Marin artist Rodrigo Quesada will be on display through June at the Northwestern Savings and Loan Association office at 130 Throckmorton Avenue, Mill Valley.

Quesada, a native of Costa Rica, now lives in Santa Cruz. He was a resident of Mill Valley and Stinson Beach from 1963 through 1965.

Creative Art Classes Slated

Two summer sessions of creative art for youngsters from 4 years, 6 months to 8 years old have been scheduled at San Domenico School in San Anselmo.

Dancing, painting, poetry, music, ceramics, drama and nature study will be included in the courses. The sessions are scheduled for June 24 to July 11 and from July 16 to Aug. 2, both from 9:30 a.m. to noon, Monday through Friday.

Four Students Win Superior Ratings

Four Redwood High School students have received top rating for performances at the solo and ensemble festival at Travis Air Force Base March 16, school officials announced yesterday.

They are Celis DeMartini, Tiburon, for her viola solo; Jane Everett, Tiburon, violin solo; Carl Johnson, Tiburon, trombone and baritone solo; and David Treganowen, Kentfield, clarinet solo.

FILM — Photographer Eric Pavel will narrate a two-hour film on "Paris and the French" at Olney Hall, College of Marin, at 8:15 p.m. Thursday. This is the last of the current Explorerama series of color travel and adventure films presented by the Explorer Club of San Francisco and the Associated Students of College of Marin.

Course In Negro Literature Offered

An adult education course in American Negro literature is being offered at Redwood High School in Rood 182 at 7:30 p.m. each Monday.

Teachers Micahel Thatcher and Maurine Ballard said the 11-week course, which started March 25, explores how Negro authors have attempted to cope with an influence their environment.

Theater Building Change On Agenda

Plans to convert the Gate Theater building to commercial use will be presented when the Sausalito Planning Commission meets at 8 p.m. tomorrow in the city council chamber.

Architects Lannier and Sherril will present the request for a conditional use permit to remodel the theater and change the use.

Music Chest Sets Series

A contralto, a violinist, a piano team and a dance company have been scheduled for Marin Music Chest performances this summer in Forest Meadows, San Rafael, according to Mrs. Carl Riznik, Music Chest president.

The season will open with a recital by Lili Chookasian, Metropolitan Opera contralto, on June 30. On Aug. 3 the Bayanihan Philippine Dance Company will present a program of native songs and dances.

Peggy and Milton Salkind of Mill Valley will give a piano recital Aug. 25, and the last program will feature a young Korean violinist, Kyung Wha Chung, on Sept. 29.

Tiburon Artist Designs Stamp Honoring Ford

The 12-cent stamp honoring Henry Ford, seen in Friday's Independent-Journal, was designed by Norman Todhunter of Mill Valley

The stamp is latest in a series honoring prominent Americans, and will be issued July 30.

Todhunter has designed many U. S. stamps, the last before the Ford stamp being a $1 issue honoring Eugene O'Neill, released last October.

He was named a member of the United States Stamp Advisory Committee by the late President John F. Kennedy.

Todhunter has just been commissioned to design his first foreign stamps. An agent for 20 young nations throughout the world, such as Dahomey and the Maldive Islands, commissioned Todhunter to design individual stamp series for each nation.

New Library Exhibit

STATUS SYMBOLS GONE

Jewelry Thefts Fail To Halt Creativity

By ALAN JONES

A status seeker, a columnist wrote recently, is someone who uses a roach clip to smoke tobacco cigarettes.

Anyone can buy a roach clip these days. They are those elaborate little wire or wrought metal cigarette crutches, usually in copper, bronze or iron wire, which in folklore and presumably in fact are used to hold marijuana cigarattes.

They are sold openly in youth-oriented shops in Sausalito, Mill Valley, the Haight-Ashbury and other turned-on locales.

But if you want to go first class, there is only one place you can buy a sterling silver roach clip. More exactly, there used to be.

Susan Mary Gancher, 22-year-old Mill Valley jewelry maker, has turned out a set of four sterling roach clips in recent months, along with a wild variety of other jewelry, for sale and for art shows.

But two weeks ago someone broke into her car and stole the roach clips and another $500 worth of her sterling and gold work.

It was the second time in nine months a thief had wiped her out. At the Mount Tamalpais fantasy fair last June, someone tole an even larger collection from her car, worth $1,500 to $2,500.

"I had just about got back on my feet from the first time," she said.

The most valuable items taken in both thefts were one-of-a-kind jewelry, pendants, earrings, necklaces, slave bracelets and rings she was preparing for art show exhibit as well as for sale.

There were also considerable quantities of "stock" — standard hoop earrings and other items Susan makes in quantity for wholesaling to jewelry dealers.

Most exotic items stolen two weeks ago were the four roach clips and a silver cocaine cup and spoon. The thimble-sized cup, linked by a chain to the spoon, was surmounted with a burnt lapis lazuli stone.

What's it for? "I wanted to make something cup-shaped," Susan explained. "And a friend wanted me to make a cocaine spoon."

But her favorite piece, and one that wasn't stolen, is a tiny sterling sailboat, which she mounts on a flat piece of California jadeite. In front of it goes a diamond-cut clear blue aquamarine.

"I love looking at that piece," she said. "It makes me feel good."

She made the roach clips originally as a novelty item for a nationally-known sporting goods firm, but the company drew back from the deal because of the drug implications.

"I'll be making some more" for sales to individual buyers, she said.

Her supply of items stripped almost to nothing by the theft, Susan has gathered a little of her earlier work from friends for display, and is starting work again in her Sausalito studio on a new collection.

She can easily be spotted around Mill Valley and Sausalito, if not by the clear plastic box of jewelry she carries, by her hat, a beautiful floppy wide-brimmed felt hat in bright turquoise, trimmed with a rawhide thong strung with wood beads and eucalyptus pips.

Working only in silver and gold, she had an insight to the recent market surges in the precious metals. For several days, silver simply was unavailable — dealers held on to it expecting price rises. And the recent boost in gold prices will mean higher prices for gold jewelry, of course.

It is not true, incidentally, that U.S. silver coins are now worth melting down. Besides the fact it's illegal for U.S. citizens to melt down the coins, they contain less silver than could be bought for their face value, she said. There is a good source of inexpensive silver, however, in old flatware — knives, forks and spoons — which can somtimes be picked up cheaply.

Carrying her jewelry around in the clear plastic box, she said makes it easy to meet people, and leads to perhaps $30 a week worth of on-the-spot sales to people she meets.

And it eliminates probelms of acceptance in most places, she said. "When someone asks what I do, I show them the box and say I'm a jeweler."

Susan began this work four years ago, learning from a jeweler in Greenwich Village. Coming to California two years ago, she has studied with several well-known jewelry makers, including Byron Wilson of Oakland.

Besides full-time jewelry making for sale, she is teaching the craft two days a week to children at the "no-school school" in Novato, a job that is helping see her through the scant post-theft days. She also works with a four-member group called Garden of Delight, which produces light shows for dances, a job that is pretty much non-income producing for the moment.

Red-haired, vital and candid, she has wasted little time mourning about the thefts. She is back in her studio turning out more work.

"This is the thing I do, and I like doing it," she explains. She doesn't seem to have time for regrets.

Tomales High Trustees Discuss Unification

Unification within Tomales High School District, the leveling of bonded indebtedness and the election of a seven-man board of trustees were discussed last night by about 25 people at Tomales High School. Supt. Anthony Matulich reported today.

The unification of the Tomales High School District with its elementary districts: Tomales, Bodega Bay, Watson, West Marin and Point Reyes, requires a simple majority of all the votes in the districts.

A move to unify all of the districts three years ago failed then West Marin voted against it. The state law has been changed now so that it no longer requires a majority in each district, but a majority in all of the districts combined, Matulich said.

Leveling of the bonds requires a two-thirds vote in each district. If any district votes it down it does not pass, and the matter is provided for in another section of the Education Code which has the effect of leveling indebtedness said Matulich.

The committee set 8 p.m., April 18, at the Tomales High School for its next meeting, according to Matulich.

LBJ Peace Plan Hits Draft Card Protests

A student leader of the draft resistance at San Francisco Theological Seminary, San Anselmo, said today that President Johnson's bombing pause and withdrawal from the nomination fight this week have cast doubt on the success of a draft card surrender planned for tomorrow in San Francisco.

Flint Anderson, a 26-year-old student who is seeking a court injunction to keep his draft board from inducting him, said only one student of the seminary has promised to turn in his card at the Federal Building in San Francisco tomorrow. A second student, said Anderson, is uncertain whether he will do it or not.

The draft card protest tomorrow is a project of the Peace and Freedom Movement, with which Anderson said the draft resistance is loosely affiliated. "It's more of a camaraderie than anything else," said Anderson. "The Peace and Freedom hasn't been able yet to give us any more concrete support than statements.

"We originally estimated that there would be a minimum of 75 cards turned in tomorrow, but with President Johnson's statement this week that he will not run, the thing is in doubt. It's a question how many cards will actually be turned in."

Anderson said that 19 of the 200 students at the seminary, most of whom are already exempt from the draft, have turned back their cards. One, Henry D. Gregory, 24, refused to take a physical exam at the Oakland Induction Center.

Anderson said he also received an induction notice after turning back his card, but he is making a court challenge of it on the basis that Selective Service boards have been denying young men due process by re-classifying them on a punitive basis.

The draft card turn-in, third in San Francisco since December, is scheduled for 1 p.m. tomorrow. About 100 cards were turned in on Dec. 4, and 175 on Dec. 16.

Couple To Plead On Dope Charge

Linda S. Revoir, 25, of San Anselmo, and John S. Gonzales, 20, of Berkeley, were arraigned in Marin Municipal Court yesterday on charges that they possessed marijuana in a car sheriff's deputies stopped early yesterday for a defective taillight.

Gonzales' case was continued until today for plea. Miss Revoir's was continued until Friday.

Officers said the car, stopped on Tiburon Boulevard near Alto, had what appeared to be marijuana seeds and the stub of a marijuana cigarette on the floor.

Novato Schools Budget Up $603,518; Tax Rate Unset

A preliminary budget of $8,278,895 for fiscal 1969 was submitted last night to the Novato Unified School District Board by Supt. James G. Bunker.

This is $603,518 more than the current budget of $7,675,377.

"I will not guess what the tax rate will be until about June 1 because we will not know the assessed valuation of the district nor the amount of debt retirement required by the state," Bunker said.

The current rate is 4.885 per

The budget is higher because the district will be operating three more schools next year than this year, he said. These are the San Ramon Elementary School, the Sinaloa Junior High School and the San Marin High School.

Bunker said that he and the staff will continue working on the budget to see where cuts can be made.

Novato Unified School District Board Also:

APPLICATIONS — Approved applications for National Defense Education projects for $58,357, with the federal government paying half the cost, or $29,178.50.

EASEMENTS — Granted the North Marin County Water District easements for the San Ramon, Sinaloa and San Marin schools.

EMPLOYMENT — Hired Robert Coman at $6,900 for elementary teacher; Karen Jones at $7,872 for Hill Junior High School and Patricia Montgomery at $6,624 for second grade at Rancho School.

$200 Fine And Probation For Drunken Driving

Joseph Walthall Clark, 39, of 816 Chamberlain Court, Mill Valley, was fined $200 and placed on six months of probation in Marin Municipal Court yesterday for driving while intoxicated Dec. 24 on Palma Way, Tamalpais Valley.

Four other persons were fined and given the same probationary period for drunken driving. They were:

David George Noren, of San Francisco, arrested March 29 on Highway 101, fined $150.

China Camp's Purchase Gets Top Priority

The acquistion of China Camp in east San Rafael should be given top priority in the county's park and recreation program, the Marin County Board of Supervisors agreed this morning.

On a motion by Supervisor John F. McInnis and a second by Supervisor Thomas T .Storer, the supervisors asked the park and recreation staff, headed by Pierre W. Joske, to pursue details of the acquistion. The action came during a joint meeting of the supervisors with the park and recreation commissioners.

NAME SUGGESTED

As suggested by Commissioner Lothar Salin, the supervisors also agreed that if China Camp is acquired, it would be named in memory of the late conservationist, Caroline S. Livermore.

Joske said 30 acres of land and about 100 acres of water is involved in the China Camp acquisition. He said a half million dollars is a rough estimate of the cost. He reported that $86,000 could come from the state park bond fund, and the commission is asking $189,000 in the new budget to complete the local share of the acquisition cost.

Joseke said he hopes the rest of the money can come from the state water conservation fund.

'A PLACE TO START'

"It is absolutely incumbent on the county to acquire more shoreline," said Storer. "A place to start is China Camp."

The half million dollar estimate of cost may be somewhat optimistic, warned Chairman Ernest N. Kettenhofen. He said the owner, Chinn Ho, might be offered other incentives so that China Camp could be acquired for less than market price.

"I would place this as Number One priority," said Supervisor William A. Gnoss. "We missed on McNear's Beach and I don't think we should miss this." Gnoss said he would even place this ahead of the additional purchase of 73 acres contemplated in the Stafford Lake area in Novato.

Broken Leg, Home Damage In Car Crash

A 20-year-old Novato youth, passenger in a car which slammed into two parked cars and a house on Rowland Boulevard, Novato, Saturday, was listed in good condition with a broken leg today at Marin General Hospital.

John William Rundle, of 7349 Redwood Highway, Novato, was the only one hospitalized of the six people injured in the accident.

Douglas Wayne Jarve, 16, of 2033 Center Road, Novato, driver of the car, who received a bruised left leg, has been cited for reckless driving and allowing an open can of beer in the car, police reported.

Richard Lee Brown, 48, owner of the smashed house at 648 Rowland Boulevard, was treated for cuts on his head and left shoulder at Hamilton Air Force Base Hospital. His son, Raymond, 12, received minor bruises when he was knocked to the floor of the garage at the home.

Also treated for minor injuries were two other passengers, Ritch Dave Hollingsworth, 16, 2377 Dominic Drive, Novato, and Thomas Anthony Madru, 15, of 1 Gregor Lane, Novato.

Damage to the Brown home has been estimated at approximately $4,000.

Hub Planners Pass Rezoning Of Property

The San Anselmo Planning Commission last night approved an application by Andrew Stafford to rezone property at 138 Tunstead Avenue from Two-family residence to neighborhood apartment.

It held a public hearing, then continued until the 8 p.m. meeting on April 15 the application of Gertrude and Violet Fowler to rezone property at 30 Tamalpais Avenue from two-family residnce to neighborhood apartment, and property at 15-A San Rafael Avenue from central business to neighborhood apartment.

College Presidency Plan Draws Fire From Teachers

Dr. William K. Ramstad, president of the College of Marin, today proposed major reorganization of the school administration, and the Academic Senate is upset about it.

Ramstad said college trustees have been summoned to a dinner meeting at 6 p.m. Thursday in Sabella's Restaurant in Alto to discuss naming a president for the Kentfield campus and one for new campus in Novato. Ramstad would relinquish his title of president, retaining the superior post of superintendent.

HIRING BEFORE JOB

Ramstad said the trustees would consider hiring the president before actually creating the post, but that this should not be considered unusual because trustees in recent years have reached a consensus that such a post ultimately should be created.

Ramstad said the hiring would be discussed in closed session. Later, the board would meet in public to create the post and fill it.

County Counsel Douglas J. Maloney said this procedure would be legal.

SENATE ANNOYED

Meanwhile, the Academic Senate, comprising 18 faculty members from the Kentfield campus, said today it was annoyed that Ramstad did not consult it beofre deciding to rearrange the college administration.

The senate scheduled a meeting this afternoon in the college fine arts building to discuss the developments. The group said it also was not consulted formally about north campus development, according to Samuel Schwartz, a political science instructor and senate president.

Ramstad did not indicate his choice for the Kentfield campus presidency, nor was a salary specified for the post. Ramstad said a salary will have to be studied. His salary would probably remain the same, Ramstad said.

Developing the second campus, Ramstad said, "is going to take my time . . . and consequently I'm not going to have time to take care of the inner workings of this (Kentfield) campus and there has to be a person to do that."

He said building a north campus was determined in 1962, and if the college is to succeed in opening the campus by 1971, "some real strong effort has to be made to accomplish this. If we do that," he added, "I'll need some help here on this (Kentfield) campus."

Dr. Ramstad said the proposed creation of the posts is not new for junior colleges in California.

"Internally the college is growing, the enrollment is growing, and one person cannot adequately do the job," he said. He added that the Novato campus presidency, if created, would likely have a salary comparable to the Kentfield view after a meeting last Thursday that it should have been consulted by the president in planning for the north campus, he said.

The same feeling arose yesterday after learning of the new presidency possibilities, he added. Schwartz said Dr. Ramstad consulted the faculty "generally" but never directly about the north campus planning.

Dr. Ramstad said he believes the north campus should be planned by persons including the faculty and other people in the community, but not by any official organization on the campus, including the Academic Senate.

"They feel as an official body they should participate in the planning, so at this point, we're at an impasse," he added.

The district board will leave the dinner meeting for its regularly scheduled meeting at 8 p.m. Thursday in Room G-1 of the physical education complex at the Kentfield campus.

Injuries Minor In Auto Crash

Novatan Watches Car Being Stolen

David Charles Miller III 27, of 40 Sierra Vista, Novato, was awakened at 1:39 a.m. today when he heard someone starting his 1960 model car in his driveway.

From his bedroom window, he saw it being driven away toward Novato Boulevard where it turned west. Novato police were unable to locate the stolen car and sent out an all points bulletin on it, license LEX-734.

Two Marinites Hurt In Crash

Two Marinites were among five persons injured yesterday in a four-car crash on Doyle Drive in San Francisco, the California Highway Patrol reported.

Treated at Mission Emergency Hospital for minor injuries were Stephen A. Sooper, 30 of 206 Caledonia Street, Sausalito, and his passenger, Mary K. Howard, 27, of the same address; William G. Ashburner, 55, San Francisco, and two passengers, May Schmidt and John P. Curran, both 50 and both San Francisco.

Drivers of the other cars in the 6:05 p.m. tangle were Roger A. Rathmuller, 28 of San Francisco and Barbara J. Fowler, 19 of 60 Moncada Way, San Rafael, according to patrolmen.

Shampooed carpets need rinsing too!

Ladies . . . . Would you ever think of shampooing your lovely hair without thoroughly rinsing it? Naturally not! Suppose we apply the same question to the cleaning of wall-to-wall carpeting in our homes.

Are you aware of the fact that the brush-shampoo method of carpet cleaning fails to remove the soil and detergent residue from your carpet because there is no rinsing?

. . . . That the scrubbing action of the shampooing machine actually weakens carpet fibers? . . . . That the dirt particles which are scrubbed deeper into the carpet act as an abrasive cutting agent on the carpet fibers, thus shortening carpet life?

But since carpet does require cleaning, what choice do you have? Until recently there was no effective way to extract soil and detergent residue from wall-to-wall carpet. The revolutionary new DEEP STEAM CLEAN EXTRACTION process applies, under controlled pressure, a cleaning agent with soil retardant, deep into the carpet fibers. Soil particles are flushed away from the fibers and held momentarily in suspension. Instantly, a powerful vacuuming action extracts the suspended soil into a sealed stainless steel container.

Use Deep Steam Carpet Cleaning and give your expensive carpet the proper care it deserves.

"Soil extracted, not scrubbed deeper . . . . That's the difference!"

NOTICE OF TRUSTEE'S SALE

NOTICE is hereby given that default having been made in the performance of the obligations secured by that certain Deed of Trust executed by THE LODGE NOVATO, INC a California corporation, to E. B. RING, as Trustee, and THE MORRIS PLAN COMPANY OF CALIFORNIA, a corporation, Beneficiary, dated August 14th, 1964 and recorded August 26, 1964 in Liber 1851 of Official Records, Page 532, Recorder's Serial No. 35178, Marin County Records:

AND notice of such default and of the election of the Beneficiary to cause the property described in said Deed of Trust to be sold to satisfy the obligations of said Deed of Trust having been recorded at the request of the Beneficiary in the office of the County Recorder on February 3, 1967 in Book 2106 of Official Records, Page 617, Recorder's Serial No. 2535, Marin County Records;

AND by Assignment of Indebtedness Secured by Deed of Trust, dated September 12, 1967 and recorded September 27, 1967 in Book 2160 of Official Records, Page 405, Recorder's Serial No. 25126, Marin County Records, the beneficial interest of said Deed of Trust was assigned by THE MORRIS PLAN COMPANY OF CALIFORNIA to WILLIAM FOSTER and OLIVER KULLBERG; and

By Assignment of Deed of Trust dated September 26, 1967, and recorded September 27, 1967 in Book 2160 of Official Records, Page 406, Serial No. 25127, Marin County Records, the beneficial interest of said Deed of Trust was assigned by WILLIAM Y. FOSTER to OLIVER KULLBERG;

AND by Substitution of Trustee Under Deed of Trust recorded in the office of the County Recorder on March 12, 1968, in Book 2196 of Official Records, Page 174, Recorder's Serial No. 6177, Marin County Records, SONOMA TITLE GUARANTY COMPANY, a corporation, was substituted as Trustee in the place and stead of the above named Trustee;

AND application in writing having been made to the undersigned Trustee by said Beneficiary that said Trustee sell said premises by said Deed of Trust conveyed, and therein described as by said Deed of Trust provided;

NOW, THEREFORE, notice is hereby given that the undersigned as Trustee will on FRIDAY, APRIL 12, 1968, at the hour of 2:00 o'clock P.M. of said day at the FOURTH STREET ENTRANCE of the MARIN COUNTY COURT HOUSE, in the City of San Rafael, County of Marin, State of California, in pursuance of the provisions of said Deed of Trust, sell at public auction to the highest bidder for cash in lawful money of the United States, without warranty as to title, possession or encumbrances, the following property and premises located in Marin County, California, and particularly described as follows, to-wit:

BEGINNING at a concrete monument known as Engineers Station "N 2" 235+00.00 on the center line of State Highway 101, District IV, Route 1, Section A, Marin County, California, and running thence along said center line North 3° 26' West 283.72 feet to Station "N 2" 232+16.28, being also the point of intersection of said highway center line with the easterly boundary line of the official survey of the Rancho Olompali; thence running along said Rancho line South 39° 04' West 119.89 feet to a point on the westerly boundary of said highway; thence running along the westerly boundary of said State Highway South 3° 26' East 325.32 feet to the point of commencement; thence South 86° 34' West 298.12 feet to said Rancho line; thence South 39° 04' West 206.54 feet to the center line of the 50 foot right of way of the old San Rafael-Petaluma County Road, now abandoned; thence following said center line of said Old County Road, South 11° 33' East 229.52 feet, South 7° 28' 40" East 55.0 feet to the most northerly corner of Parcel Two as described in the Deed from W. Quinby Wright, et al, to Homer H. Tooley, Trustee, recorded May 31, 1962 in Liber 1575 of Official Records, at page 136; thence along the northeasterly line of said parcel South 43° 30' East 392.8 feet; South 47° 26' East 130.9 feet, and South 43° 06' East 28.2 feet and South 3° 26' East 42.2 feet, more or less, to the most southerly corner of said parcel; thence South 40° 51' East 65.29 feet, more or less, to a point on the aforesaid westerly boundary line of said State Highway; thence running along said westerly boundary line North 3° 26' West 359.37 feet, more or less, to the most southerly corner of the parcel conveyed by W. Quinby Wright, et al, to State of California, by Deed recorded June 3, 1947 in Liber 554 of Official Records at page 73, and thence North 48° 26' West 21.21 feet, North 3° 26' West 485.00 feet, North 41° 34' East 21.21 feet and North 3° 26' West 70.00 feet to the point of commencement.

SAVING and EXCEPTING therefrom that certain parcel conveyed to Marin County Farm Bureau, by W. Quinby Wright, et al, on June 17, 1948 and recorded in Book 587 of Official Records, at page 228, Marin County Records.

HOW TO KEEP WELL

By DR. THEODORE R. VAN DELLEN

Through The Years, The Ulcer Is Still A Medical Mystery

VAN DELLEN

Ulcers continue to be a medical mystery. They develop in animals and man during stressful situations, possibly because resentment and anger increase the secretion of gastric juice and cause stronger contractions. Emotional upsets do the same to those who do not have ulcers, but to a lesser extent. Heredtiy, diet and environ- also play a role.

A peptic ulcer is a small, shallow crater in the stomach or in the beginning of the small intestine (duodenum). It begins as a small break in the lining which from then on is irritated by gastric acids. Lesions may be tiny as a pinhead or large as a half dollar.

AN ACTIVE ULCER usually is painful but the complications are feared most. The crater, for example may eat into a blood vessel leading to hemorrhage into the gastrointestinal tract. Occasionally, this is the first symptom. The victim passes tarry stools, vomits blood, or faints due to anemia caused by blood loss. The ulcer may perforate the wall of the duodenum or stomach leading to peritonitis. This is very painful and emergency surgery may be needed to save life.

Recurrences of duodenal ulcer may lead to imflamation and scarring that blocks the exit (pylorus) of the stomach. When digesting food cannot past into the intestine, surgery is needed to remove or bypass the thickened valve.

ACTIVE ULCERS are treated with frequent, small meals of milk and cream along with drugs that neutralize the acidity. Products to quiet the stomach and restrict the acidsecreting and restrict the acid secreting glands also are used. Healing takes from six to eight weeks but unless emotions are controlled, recurrences are inevitable.

Dr. Van Dellen will answer questions on medical topics if stamped, self-addressed envelope accompanies request to the Independent-Journal:

WAKENED BY HAND PAIN

D. T. writes: What would cause my wife to awaken at night with pain in her fingers?

REPLY

She may have a carpal tunnel syndrome, in which the pain stems from a compression of a hand nerve as it passes through the wrist. Relief may be obtained by putting the wrist and hand in a cast. And, if this fails, surgery leads to a cure. Pressure on the nerves where they emerge from the upper spine or where they pass through the neck may cause such pain.

BRIEF LOSS OF SPEECH

M. A. L. writes: A dear friend temporarily lost the ability to speak. This episode lasted for five hours, during which time he had no pain. Last week he suffered a similar attack. What causes temporary loss of speech?

REPLY

Speech loss may be due to a minor stroke or to hysteria. The condition is serious enough to warrant a complete physical examination.

EATS CIGARETTE ASHES

A reader writes: I was wondering if eating cigarette ashes over a long period of time could cause an illness?

REPLY

This is doubtful. Most of the harmful elements are in the smoke and ashes are merely an innocuous residue that is not digested. Pica is the medical term for eating strange items such as dirt, cigarette butts, chalk, etc.

NO DANGER TO LONG HAIR

Miss R. writes: 1. Can long hair affect the eyes and cause eventual blindness? 2. Also, in what other ways are long tresses harmful?

REPLY

1. No. 2. The only hazard to long hair is getting it caught in a wringer or fan. Most men regard beautifully coifed long hair on a lovely woman a treat for sore eyes.

Marshall Will Head Tiburon Commission

Joseph C. Marshall was elected chairman of the Tiburon Planning Commission last night to succeed Erik Rettig who has resigned.

Commissioner Allan N. Littman was elected vice chairman.

Newly appointed commissioner Joseph H. Bacheller III, took his seat and was appointed to the board of adjustments, according to Phil V. Scott, secretary and development administrator.

The commission rezoned Taylor tract lots abutting Paradise Drive into single-family zone requiring one-half acre lots, leaving the balance of the area in the residential zone requiring one-acre lots originally set up by deed restrictions, Scott said.

The Tiburon Planning Commission also:

LOT SPLITS — Granted permission for Raymond Weeks to split one and one-third acres of land at 949 Tiburon Boulevard into two lots instead of the three lots requested. Also approved was a split into two parcel of a 7,840 foot lot at 133 Esperanza Street from Philip Kircher, limited to construction of one single-family residence on each lot.

DOWNTOWN PLAN — Adopted a resolution approving the city's participation in a county and city planning council.

Marin Kennedy Leaders Named

The Marin Citizens for Kennedy in '68 has named committee chairmen for the local presidential campaign.

The chairman and their committees are: James Dunn and Peter Portugal, College of Marin; Dr. Robert Lee and Rev. Kent Miller, San Francisco Theological Seminary; Willard Andrus and Ronald E. Tatum, Marin businessmen; Robert A. Mills and Michael Berger, Marin attorneys; Rev. James Symons, Marin minister; Dr. Donald Young and Dr. Stuart Rose, Marin dcotors; Joan Diamond, Marin youth, and Diane Kothe, Marin teachers.

The group will hold a series of week-end cocktail seminars throughout the county, chairman William M. Taylor of San Anselmo reported.

Hearing Tonight In Marin City

Public hearing on a proposed land use change to allow building a convalescent hospital in Marin City on a site earmarked for school use will be at 8 p.m. today, not last night as reported in yesterday's Independent-Journal.

The Marin County Redevelopment Agency will meet jointly with the Marin City Community Services District board at the First Missionary Baptist Church, 501 Drake Avenue, Marin City.

The agency will meet prior to the hearing at 7:30 p.m. and will reconvene after the hearing is over.

Discuss Hirings

The Bolinas-Stinson School District board last night discussed hiring new teachers for 1968-9 at a closed meeting, but reached no decisions. The next board meeting will be at 8 p.m. April 16 at Bolinas school.

McCarthy Seeks Legislation On Greyhound Racing

I-J Special Report

SACRAMENTO — Legislation to allow greyhound dog racing in California has been introduced by Sen. John F. McCarthy, R-San Rafael.

State revenue from betting on dog racing should total $15 to $25 million a year, McCarthy estimated. His bill, still in skeleton form, would earmark these state revenues for property taxpayers' relief, he said.

Dog racing is "a legitimate sports venture," said McCarthy, "and its rights certainly are equal to those of other sports interests in this state."

McCarthy noted that track facilities at county fairgrounds throughout the state are unused 10 months of the year. "Reason dictates that we should make more efficient use of these local assets."

The details of the bill are being drafted with the California Greyhound Breeders Association, said McCarthy.

Funeral, Return Of King Raise Memphis Fears

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (UPI)—The mother of a Negro youth slain by police in last week's riot broke down at his funeral today, sobbing that "They killed you like a dog."

The mother of 16-year-old Larry Payne had to be helped from the church when she became hysterical. Authorities feared the funeral and the return of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. would build up tension again in the city.

King was to come back to lead more sympathy marches for 1,200 striking garbage collectors, mostly Negroes, out of work since early February in a dispute with the city over pay raises and union representation.

Belvedere Man Dies In Auto

While dozens of passersby watched, a Belvedere man shot himself to death yesterday as he sat in his parked car on Union Street in San Francisco.

Police said that Frank Webster Callahan, 47, of 3 Community Road, Belvedere, parked in front of a store at 1981 Union Street. He then got out of his car, took a small object from the car trunk and got back in the driver's seat.

He shot himself a few minutes later, witnesses said.

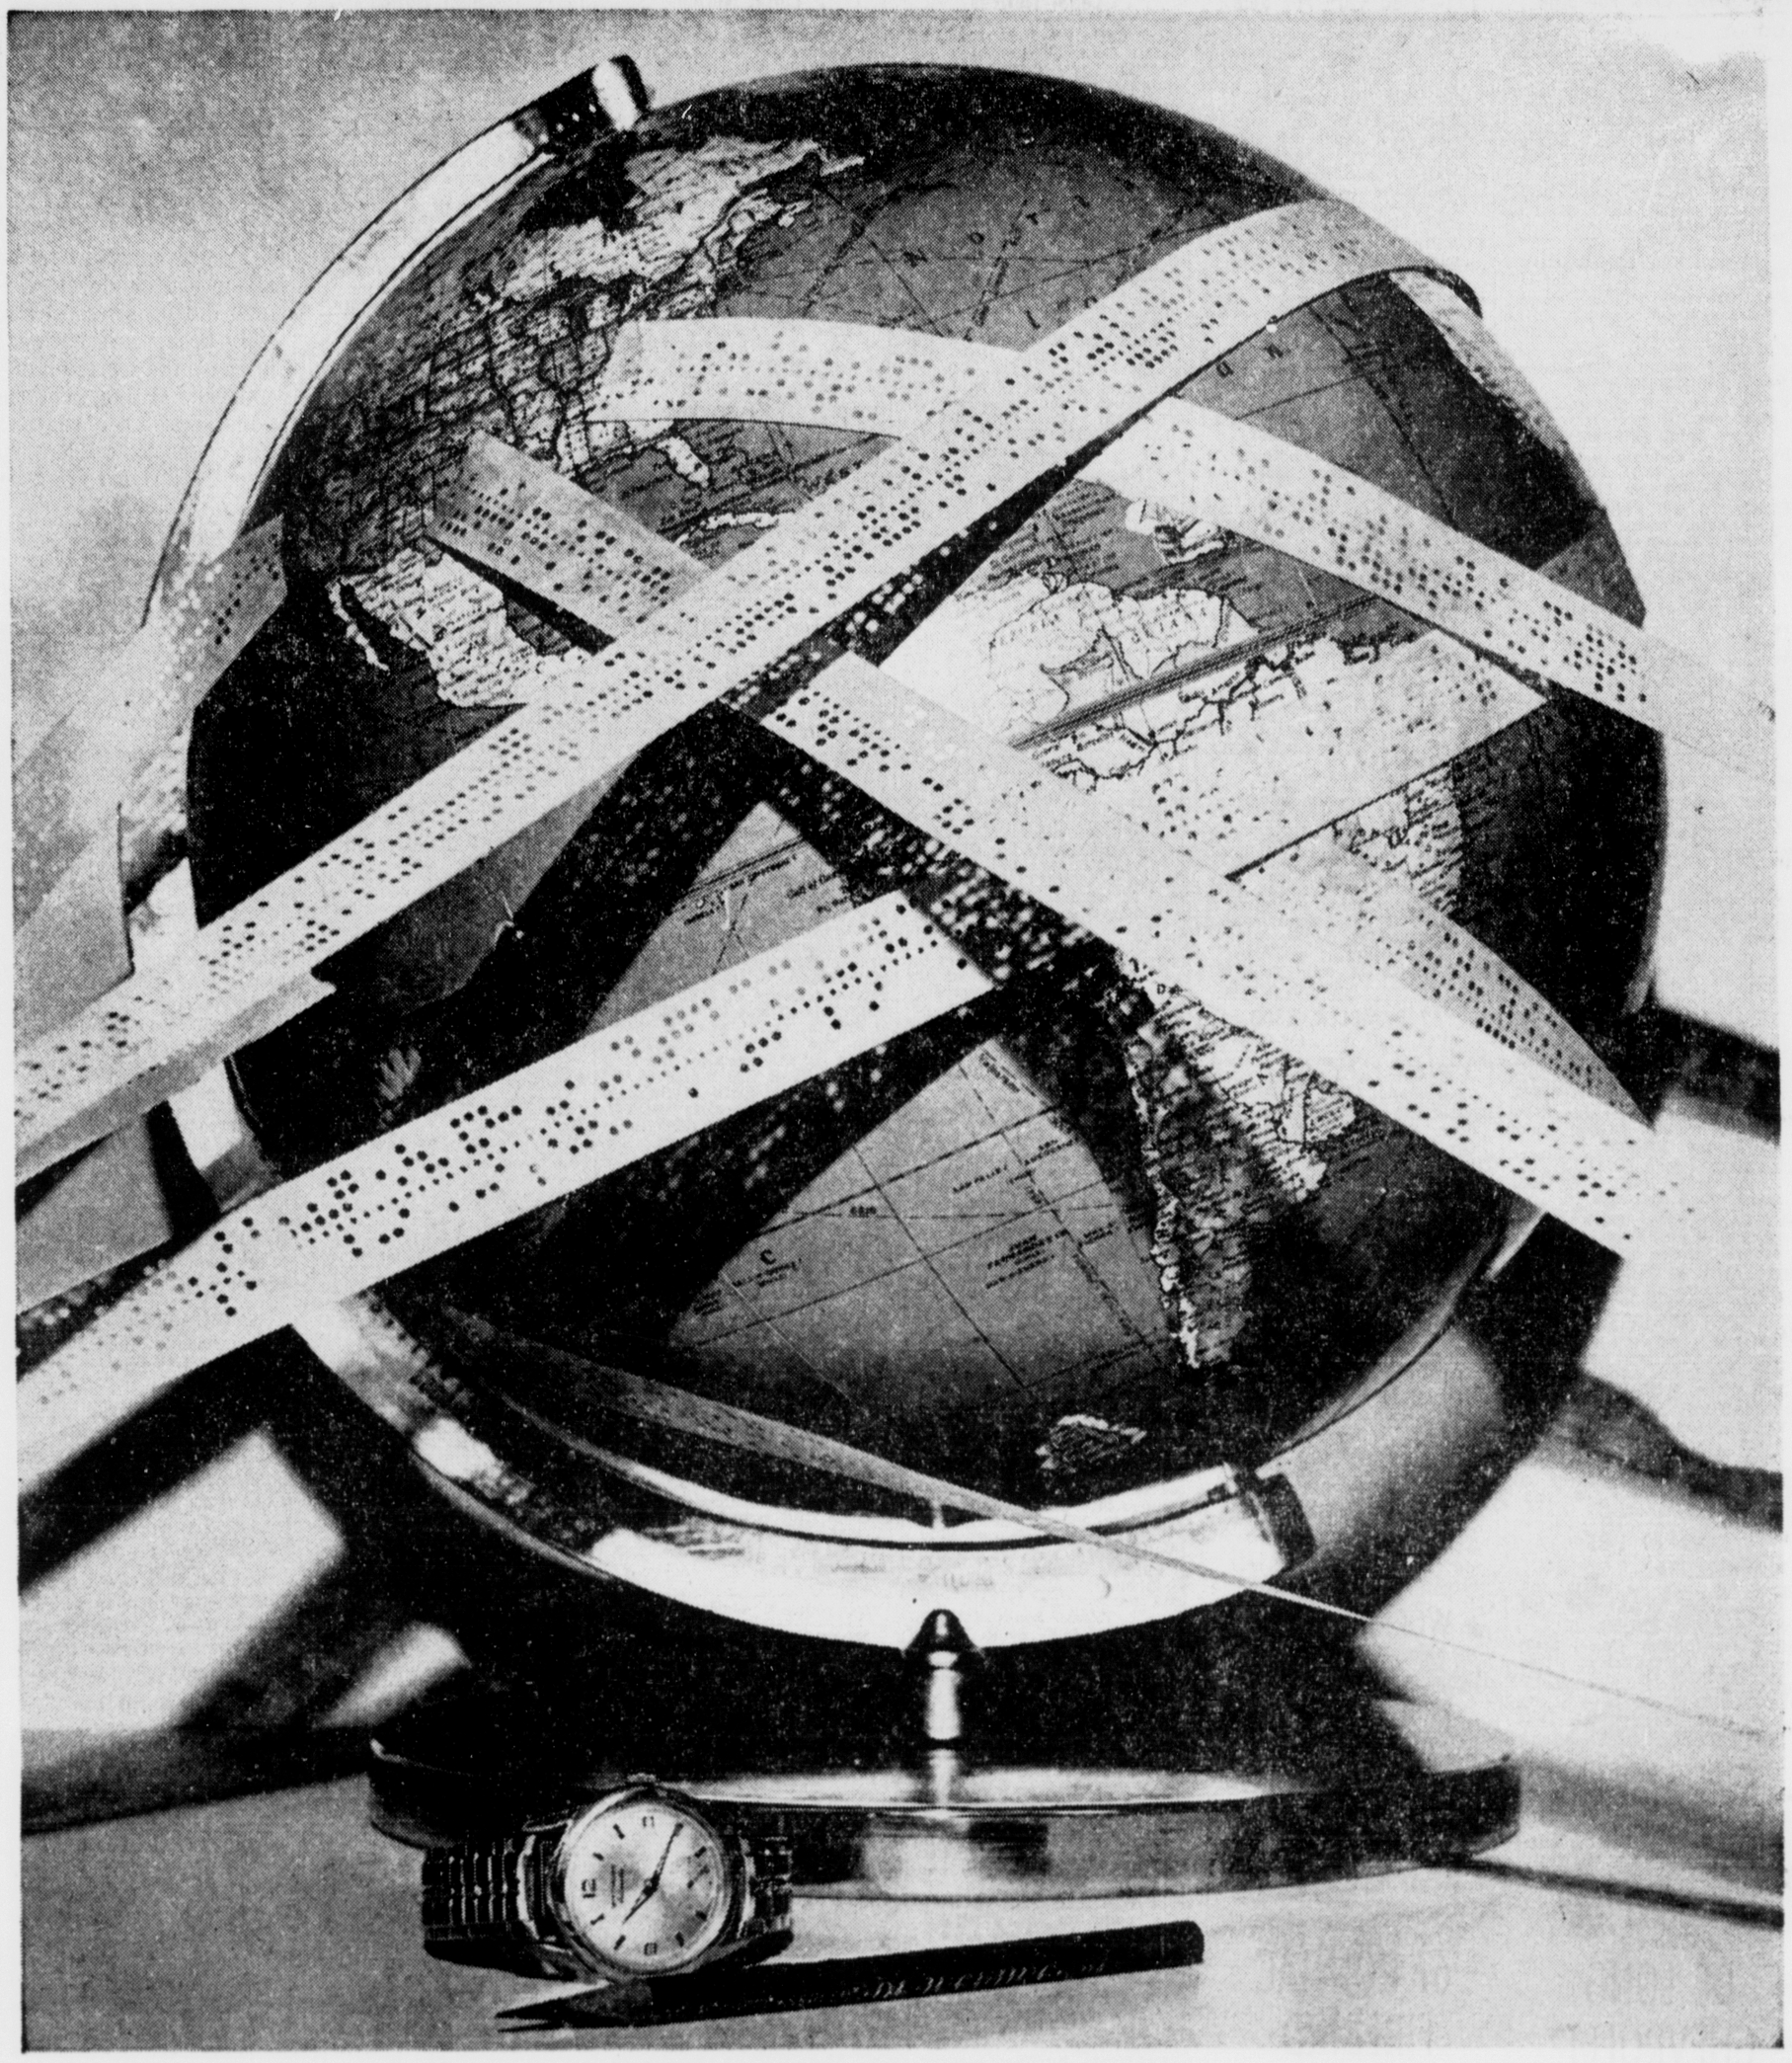
Callahan, an industrial relations man, left no note, police said.

He is survived by his wife, Virginia; three daughters, Sally and Molly Callahan of Belvedere and Sharon Weems of San Rafael, and his mother, Mrs. Helen C. Callahan of San Francisco.

Arraignment Held On A Forged Check

Jessie Thomas, 42, of Oakland, was arraigned in Marin Municipal Court yesterday on a charge that he possessed a forged check for $143 in San Anselmo Feb. 16 with intent to pass it.

The district attorney's office said the check was reportedly stolen from the U.S. Post Office and that Thomas passed it with Ronald E. Anderson of San Anselmo, and acquaintance.



For Marin, the world's fastest reporting

We tied up the globe in the I-J's new electronic tape to show there's something new in the world of news reporting in your daily I-J.

For that tape "speaks" a new electronic language which we take directly from the Associated Press sports wire, rather than news in the form of teletyped copy.

We feed this tape into a battery of new Elektron linotypes which "read" the little perforations and change impulses into words, set in metal. All at speeds Buck Rogers never dreamed of.

Result: MORE NEWS in less time and LATER NEWS . . . giving you a sports section with more depth and complete world coverage.

These electronic speed demons also enable us to bring you the closing prices of our New York Stock List TODAY, instead of tomorrow. And to print the entire weekly range of ALL New York stocks in our Saturday edition.

Just another way of advancing the I-J to further your reading enjoyment.

April Showers Turn To Snow

LONDON (UPI)—Spring in Britain disappeared today under a wave of blizzards, freezing temperatures and gales.

Fierce blizzards struck Scotland, Wales and England, blocking many roads and making others treacherous before snow plows got to work. The April showers which fell on London, where daffodils bloomed in the parks, came down as thick snow.

The winter weather returned after several days of temperatures in the 70s.

Purse Stolen

A purse belonging to Kathy Woolridge of San Francisco, containing $100 in travelers checks and $10 in cash, was taken from a car owned by Rufus C. Hurt Jr. of Travis Air Force Base while it was parked at Muir Beach Thursday, sheriff's deputies reported.

Artists Invited To Participate In Annual Show

Painters, sculptor and graphic artists from nine Bay Area Counties have been invited to participapte in the Marin Art and Garden Fair's annual art show, July 3 through 7, in Ross.

Cash awards will be made for works judged the best, according to Mrs. Marcelle B. McCoy, fair manager. Judges will be Ian McKibben White, associate director of the California Palace of the Legion of honor; Helen Henninger, director of the art department at Gump's, San Francisco, and Darrell Forney, art instructor from Sacramento City College.

Entry cards must be in the Marin Art and Garden Fair office, Box 437, Ross, before June 19. The show is open to residents of Marin, Alameda, Contra Costa, Napa, San Francisco, San Mateo, Santa Clara, Solano and Sonoma Counties.

Elephants Begin Work In Vietnam

TRA BONG, Vietnam (UPI)—tic red tape behind them, Bonnie and Clyde, Vietnam's flying elephants, went to work today at saving a little town's only industry.

The elephants were airlifted to Tra Bong yesterday aboard a giant U.S. Marine helicopter. They were the gift of U.S. Special Forces troops fighting in Vietnam who overcame a wall of official resistance to get them to the town.

They were needed to haul timber to the local sawmill, built with U.S. aid but in such rough terrain that trucks could not do the job.

Scout-O-Rama Is Set May 25

The Marin Scout-O-Rama, a demonstration of Scouting skills and programs by hundreds of the county's Cub Scouts, Boy Scouts and Explorers, will be held on May 25 this year at Forest Meadows of Dominican College.

Sale of tickets for it will begin on April 18 with a kickoff program at Scout Hall, 739 A Street, San Rafael.

Special On Opera

TELEVISION REVIEW

Effect On Viewer Concerning Vietnam

By RICK DU BROW

HOLLYWOOD (UPI)—President Johnson's address to the National Association of Broadcasters yesterday in Chicago raised the very provocative point of television's effect on the public concerning the Vietnam war.

The Southeast Asia conflict was, of course, at the heart of Johnson's weekend decision not to seek re-election or accept the nomination, so his diplomatic, but pointed, remarks yesterday had a sharp edge to them.

STRIKES HOME

His words struck home with some force because there is hardly a person in television who has failed to be keenly aware of his point. It is not new that war is a filthy, horrible business, but this has been the first of the nation's wars that television has had the opportunity to cover in full. And the effect on the public has been undeniably large.

In his address, the president indicated how matters might have been affected if television had similar pervasiveness at other difficult moments in the nation's past military history. Those who disagree with his position might, of course, argue that the justice of a cause is the pivotal factor, but there is no denying the suggestion that the sight of seeing one's soldiers killed and maimed heightens the horror of all wars.

NEW OUTLOOK

What we had here in the president's remarks, therefore, was not the old saw of, in essence, pointing the finger at the reporter for covering the story. Rather, it was a recognition of the simple fact that this monumental technical development — television-has helped to evolve an entirely new outlook on war itself, one that will increasingly have enormous effects on diplomatic, strategic and military maneuverings.

The old techniques of settling things behind closed doors—once considered altogether necessary by high-level diplomats so that the common people didn't foul up things because of their lack of understanding—now have been disputed. Whether this is good or bad is questionable, probably a bit of both. Because now even the best—or worst—national intentions can be altered in the public mind by the impact of awesome visual images, day in and day out.

One can say all wars are terrible, as indeed they are. But who, for instance, could deny the nobility of the Allied cause against the monster Hitler and his Nazi Germany in World War II? Yet it is fair to wonder, if just a little, what public reaction would have been to television accounts of the fighting in the lengthy periods of that war when the Allies were doing badly.

One wonders also: would the unrelenting frankness of television have heightened the chances of "credibility gap" charges against some past presidents as well?

The Channel Swim: ABC-TV has confirmed that Lana Turner and George Hamilton will star, beginning in September of 1969, in a weekly one-hour series, "The Survivors," by bestselling novelist Harold Robbins...the show has been described as a sort of jet set "Peyton Place"...it is also said to be an "open end" story.

Judge Grants Severence In Robbery

Mary Louise Arceo, 21, of Fairfax, was granted a severance yesterday of her armed robbery charge from the murder charge faced by her husband, John Arceo, 31, and Dennis C. Novoty, 22, of San Rafael.

Mrs. Arceo is accused of driving the getaway car for Claude (Frenchy) LeBas, 21, in the Dec. 11 armed robbery of Perry's Delicatessen in San Rafael.

LeBas is serving a life term now, having pleaded guilty to the Perry's robbery and the murder of Wesley L. Marshall, 68-year-old San Rafael gun collector.

The Arceos, Novotny and LeBas were all named in one grand jury indictment, charging several robberies and the Marshall murder.

The severance granted by Judge Harold J. Haley of Marin Superior Court will separate Mrs. Arceo's case from the murder trial.

Judge Haley set July 15 as the date for Mrs. Arceo's jury trial on the robbery charge.

Youth Arraigned In Fast Driving

A Sausalito youth, who police said sped through Sausalito streets at up to 80 miles an hour, driving sometimes without hands, was arraigned in Marin Municipal Court Friday on a charge of reckless driving.

Kirby David Chadd, 20, of 77 Central Avenue, was released without bail and told to return to court next Friday for entry of plea.

Police said they received upwards of 40 telephone complaints about Chadd in 20 minutes before his car was stopped by Chief Edward S. Kreins at Glen Drive and San Carlos Avenue Thursday night.

Pre-School Classes

Preliminary sign-ups for a proposed six-week class for preschool children are being taken by the Mill Valley Parks and Recreation Department at the Community Recreation Center. The class for children 3 to 5 years old will be held if there is enough demand.

10 Prison Years Given In Shoot-Up With Deputies

Ronald Edward Long, 24, a member of the Santa Rosa motorcycle club, The Grim Reapers, has been sentenced to 10 years in Sonoma Superior Court after pleading guilty to a charge resulting from a shoot-up with Marin and Sonoma sheriff's deputies Jan. 14.

Long, of Santa Rosa, was originally scheduled to appear tomorrow on a charge of felonious assault on a peace officer but on Friday pleaded guilty to a reduced charge of assault with a deadly weapon.

The shooting occurred when sheriff's deputies in search of two murder suspects called at the home where Long was staying. Long reportedly kept the deputies at bay with gunfire and was arrested, along with others, after the officers had raked the building with shots.

Long's co-defendent in that case, Thomas Caswell, is set to go to trial April 16.

The prison term is to run concurrent with a sentence imposed by Judge F. Leslie Manker following Long's conviction by a jury March 21 of felony assault on two youths in Santa Rosa.

The murder suspects deputies were looking for were Johnny Lee Sommerhalder, 24, and Kenneth Preston, 20, both members of The Grim Reapers. The two men were later arrested and charged with the slaying of barbers Curtis and Shirley Ackley in their Santa Venetia house trailer, Jan. 12.

Both suspects have pleaded innocent to the murder and a trial is set for the week of April 11 in Marin Superior Court.

Sommerhalder and Preston, along with Jack E. Brockman, 21, of Santa Rosa, are also charged with the murder of Charles Kaufmann, 19 year-old student of Santa Rosa Junior College, Oct. 7.

Cal Student Shot In Chest

BERKELEY (AP)—A former University of California football player was in satisfactory condition today after being shot in the chest during a scuffle with three other youths.

John Salisbury, 21, still a student, was en route to Harmon Gym with two friends to register for a physical education class when an argument in a parking area developed into a fist fight.

Police said one of the three antagonists pulled out a pistol and shot Salisbury.

The three then fled.

Salisbury, an economics major from San Francisco, was a varsity football player in 1966, but was out last season with mononucleosis. He also was on the U.C. wrestling team in 1966.

Marijuana Roundup Figure To Appear

Timothy Jack Coy, 23, of no fixed address, arrested during last month's Marin narcotics roundup, was held to answer in Marin Municipal Court Friday on charges of selling and possessing marijuana for sale Feb. 24.

He is to appear in Superior Court April 8 for arraignment on the felony charges.

Oswald To Return To Job At U.C.

BERKELEY (AP) — John W. Oswald, president of the University of Kentucky, will return to the University of California at Berkeley as executive vice president, President Charles J. Hitch said today.

Oswald, 51, was vice president for administration at the university before leaving to become head of Kentucky in 1963. Before leaving he had served the University of California system since 1945.

He succeeds Harry R. Wellman, who retires this summer after 43 years at the university.

Cabbie In Riot Found Guilty Of Hitting Officer

NEWARK, N.J. (UPI)—Negro cab driver John W. Smith was found guilty last night of assaulting a policeman during the arrest that triggered last summer's race riots.

An all-white jury of nine men and three women was deadlocked on a charge against Smith for attacking a second policeman.

Sentencing was scheduled for May 15.

The jury deliberated seven hours before finding Smith guilty of punching Patrolman John Desimone when Desimone and patrolman Vito Pontrelli stopped his cab for a motor vehicle violation.

College Reports Rash Of Thefts

A rash of thefts were reported from the College of Marin, Friday, sheriff's deputies said today.

Money was stolen from wallets belonging to Steve B. Richtman of 11 Apollo Road, Tiburon, who lost $53, and Eldridge L. Griffith of 346 LaVerne Avenue, Mill Valley, who had $35 stolen. Both thefts were reported from lockers.

R. E. Schmidt of 49 Bryn Mawr Drive, San Rafael reported a stereo and eight tapes, value undetermined, were taken from his car parked at the college.

Year's Probation For Theft Of Cash

Anne Rose Millonzi, 40, of 2 Tarrant Avenue, Kentfield, was placed on a year's probation in Marin Municipal Court Friday for stealing from her cash register in Macy's in San Rafael during November.

Judge Hadden W. Roth ordered Mrs. Millonzi to make restitution of $60 to the store.

Some Giants Already Limping

Early Injuries For S.F.

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP)—The San Francisco Giants are falling apart but there is still time to put them back together again before the National League season opens next Tuesday.

Several of the front-line players stayed in Phoenix today as the Giants traveled to Tucson to play Cleveland.

PROBLEM

Like Marichal, pitcher Gaylord Perry stayed in Phoenix, but Perry stayed to work out his control problem.

Another pitcher, Bob Bolin, has a stiff back. Catcher and first baseman Jack Hiatt, the team's leading hitter at .481, has complained of stiffness in his legs.

OUT OF HOSPITAL

Catcher Dick Diezt was discharged from a San Francisco hospital and was expected to join the Giants today. He had been hospitalized for five days after complaining of high blood pressure and dizzy spells. More treatments are scheduled.

The Giants leave Phoenix Thursday night and will play exhibition games in Palm Springs and San Diego en route to the Bay Area.

Five New Tennis Pros

INGLEWOOD, Calif. (AP) — "I don't think people look on a sport these days unless money is involved," says Billie Jean King, the tennis queen who could make $70,000 playing the game during the next year.

Mrs. King, Ann Haydon Jones of England, Francoise Durr of France and little Rosemary Casals of San Francisco signed contracts yesterday to play with the new National Tennis League.

Also joining the pros was Australian Roy Emerson who could earn up to $100,000 for each of the next two years.

Contracts for the five were announced by George MacCall, former United States Davis Cup captain who is now president of the pro group.

NOW TEN

Five players previously under contract are Rod Laver, Ken Rosewall and Fred Stolle, all of Australia, Andres Gimeno of Spain and former U.S. champion Pancho Gonzales.

The NTL makes its United States debut in a tournament at the Forum here, April 7, 9 and 10 with much of the interest centered on the gals.

Billie Jean believes the entry of the women will bring more interest in tennis among younger girls.

"It should create motivation and more purpose," she declared. "In this country, if you're a pro- you're somebody. If you're an amateur, you're nobody."

She also looks forward to open tournaments such as those in England this year ... at Bournemouth later this month and at Wimbledon in July.

MacCall said his group definitely would compete in those two and other open tournaments also will be studied.

"We want to show this is not just a sport of the rich people, an idea many have," the 24-year-old Mrs. King continued. "It is a true sport for all, a gruelling sport and more should be involved."

PLANS

Asked if she had any plans for the money she earns in tennis, she replied, "Our plans are not to live any differently than we have."

MacCall did not divulge the exact money involved in the contracts and the earnings ultimately will reflect how the players do in the tournaments.

He did say Mrs. King was guaranteed between $40,000 and $50,000 with the opportunity to earn up to $70,000. The other women are expected to earn in the $25,000 vicinity and Emerson, with a guarantee of about $75,000, could earn up to $100,000 for each year of his two-year pact.

JIM GILMARTIN

Russell Patrick Set To Start 20th Season

PHOENIX — I guess it's the little boy shyness in me, but every summer when I hear those golden tonsils screaming "Bye, Bye, Baby" over my transistor, I get a little tingly and my flesh breaks out in goose-bumps.

Over a few Shirley Temples and prime rib dinner here the other night, Mill Valley resident Russel Patrick Hodges, the voice of the Giants, explained his "Adios, Bambino" trademark in the radio field, to wit: "I invented it for the women. We have a tremendous women's following, but we figure they don't sit and hang onto every pitch. So I though a phrase like "Bye, Bye, Baby" would catch their attention, get them back to the radio and maybe hear a commercial. I started it in 1956 and it caught on real well."

Russell Patrick's trademark is perhaps as famous as other sportscasters' home run descriptions, like so: Red Barber — "Eatin' high on the hawg"; Mel Allen — "Going, going, gawn," Bob Prince — "How Sweet it is"; Harry Cary — "Holy cow"; Vin Scully — "You can forget it, it's gone."

Shot Heard 'Round The World

Hodges was the instrument for sportsdom's most dramatic event — the 1951 playoff in which the Giants defeated the Brooklyn Dodgers in the bottom of the ninth inning on Bobby Thompson's home run, the famous "Shot heard 'round the world." His hysterical screaming several times of "The Giants won the pennant, the Giants won the pennant" is a classic of sports broadcasting, comparable in a way to the broadcast of the Hindenberg dirigible crash, or Dec. 7, 1941.

"You know, it's a funny thing," Hodges said, "but that broadcast was never commercially tape recorded. The reason it sounds so hollow is that it is a home made tape. A gentleman named Lawrence Goldberg of Brooklyn was having a party at his home and tape recording his relatives. Well, we (the Giants) were trailing the Dodgers going into the last inning so Mr. Goldberg, being a staunch Dodger fan, put the recorder in front of the radio to get the last inning. He wanted that souvenir for the Dodgers. After the game he called me and told me about the tape he had and asked if I wanted it. Did I? I sent him $500. And a case of Scotch. That year I had the tape pressed and sent it to all the players as a Christmas present. Bill Rigney's wife played it all winter and every time I said "The Giants won the pennant, the Giants won the pennant, she would scream 'Five thousand dollars, five thousand dollars'."

Squire Of Enchanted Knolls

Born 57 summers ago in Dayton, Tenn., Hodges is married to lovely Gay, is known in Mill Valley as the "Squire of Enchanted Knolls," and says of Marvelous Marin County: "I wouldn't live anywhere else. We have everything we need right there, so why go to the City? Gay and I never, just never, go to the city."

Asked about his legion of fans, Russ smiled: "No, I don't have that back-fence type of questions from my neighbors, but, Gay and I shop at the Red Cart Market and they (the personnel) are all red hot fans, so I have to explain every game." Of his fan mail: "Fifty-five per cent of it is from women. One tenth of it (fan mail) is good, constructive criticism. One-tenth of it is waste basket material. About 80 per cent of it is asking questions. And a good portion of the mail is saying that Lon (Simmons) and Bill (Thompson) and I are either too much in favor of the Giants or not enough in favor of them."

Boxing Broadcast Veteran

Starting his 20th year with the Giants next Tuesday, Hodges has been a sportscaster since he broke into radio as a sophomore at University of Kentucky in 1929.

"I've been in radio all of my cotton pickin' life." He has covered the entire realm of sports from tennis to boxing and, in fact, did the television production of Pabst Blue Ribbon's "Wednesday Night Fights" for seven years. His last boxing broadcast, by the way was the Clay-Liston farce in Lewiston, Maine.

About sports in general, Hodges enthuses: "Fishing is my sport. I'll go anywhere to fish — just to wet the line." His favorite athletes: "Well, the guys I admire tremendously are Tommy Heinrich (the old Yankee). I gave him the nickname 'Old Reliable' because he always came through with a hit in the clutch. One of the most decent human beings I have ever met is Rocky Marciano. Of course, I was a great admirer of Joe DiMaggio and the most cooperative fellow I've ever known is Willie Mays.

"I've pulled some pretty good bloopers," Hodges said. "In November of 1945 I blew the play that put Illinois into the Rose Bowl. I called the wrong passer and the wrong guy who scored the winning touchdown. Now you just can't blow anything more than that."

Look Out! Bob Gibson Ready To Go

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

You can start the baseball season any time, Mr. Commissioner. Bob Gibson's ready.

The St. Louis Cardinals' World Series hero of last year pitched seven overpowering innings against the Chicago White Sox in an exhibition game yesterday. His only regret was that Manager Red Schoendienst didn't let him finish.

"I felt fine and could have gone nine innings," the big right-hander said after the Cardinals' 3-1 victory. Gibson gave up only five hits and one walk while striking out four. In addition, he retired the last 13 batters he faced.

In other games yesterday, Boston beat Atlanta 1-0, Houston edged Oakland 2-1, the New York Yankees shaded Detroit 6-5, Pittsburgh nipped the New York Mets 4-3, Philadelphia crushed Minnesota 8-1, Baltimore took Washington 5-2, the Chicago Cubs outslugged Los Angeles 9-8 and California nosed out Cleveland 10-9.

STARTER

Gibson, who won three World Series games over the Red Sox last year, has been named by Schoendienst to open the season for the Cardinals next week against Atlanta.

Mike Shannon provided the muscle in the St. Louis attack, with a homer and a double among his four hits, raising his spring batting average to .390.

The Red Sox also got a strong pitching performance from Gary Waslewski, who set down the Braves on seven hits in the seven innings he worked. Reggie Smith, who had three hits for Boston, drove in the only run of the game in the first inning with a single.

Steve Witaker's two solo home runs off Denny McLain beat the Tigers for the Yankees. Fritz Peterson was the winning pitcher despite giving up homers to Ray Oyler and Jim Price.

Jose Pagan's run-scoring single in the eighth, his third hit of the game, drove in Pittsburgh's winning run. Manny Jimenez had a two-run homer for the Pirates.

SLUGGERS

Richie Allen had a homer and two doubles while Larry Hisle had two homers and a double in the Phillies' slugfest triumph over the Twins. Hisle had five runs batted in, all told.

Curt Blefary hit a homer and Boog Powell had a two-run double for the Orioles. Frank Coggins had two triples for the Senators in their losing cause.

The Cubs scored five runs in the ninth, then survived a four-run Dodger ninth to win by a run. Don Kessinger's homer snapped a 4-4 tie, then an error by Rocky Colavito let in the final two runs of the inning.

Jumbo Jim Looking Sharp

COCOA, Fla. (AP) — Jumbo Jim Nash has a rising fastball and a military commitment. One slows up the opposition batters. The other slows up Nash.

The fastball had the hard-hitting Houston Astros popping up all over the place before they got to Jack Aker and beat the Oakland Athletics 2-1 yesterday.

James Edwin, called "Jumbo" because of his 230 pounds, then was rushed out to an airport right after the game to get in two more days of Army Reserve work at Ft. Leonard Wood in Missouri.

TOP ROOKIE

At the outset of training, the right-hander who was American League rookie pitcher of the year in 1966, missed more than a week because of his military obligation.

But Nash gave ample evidence yesterday he could be a mainstay of the A's pitching staff. He went six innings, allowed only two singles and a double, yielded one run and walked only one.

But his rising fast ball caused the Astros to pop up for nine of their 18 outs yesterday.

Houston's only run off Nash came in the sixth on a double by Ron Davis, an advance to third on a fielder's choice and a sacrifice fly by Rusty Staub. Actually Staub's fly was shallow and a faster relay might have held Davis at third.

TIED GAME

The Athletics tied the game in the eighth. Tony La Russa got on base on a fielder's choice, stole second and was singled home by Ted Kubiak.

The Astros won it in the ninth on Bob Aspromonte's double, a wild throw by Kubiak that allowed Aspromonte to reach third and a squeeze bunt by Hector Torres which scored pinch runner Dennis Menke.

Redwood Golfers Capture Opener

Redwood High got the jump on the rest of the league by downing San Rafael in a hair-raising Marin County Athletic League golf meet, 201-204 at Meadow Club in Fairfax yesterday.

It was the league opener for both teams and the first league meet of the season.

BIG GAME TONIGHT

Sharman Talks About 'Roughness'

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — If professional basketball gets any rougher, the players will have to wear shoulder, elbow and hip pads, says Bill Sharman, coach of the San Francisco Warriors.

"Pro basketball has gone to muscle," says the ex-Boston Celtic star, "and this is bad for the fans."

It's also bad for the Warriors, who have the height but not the muscle to match the St. Louis Hawks.

The teams meet tonight at 8:30 at the Cow Palace in the sixth game of their National Basketball Association Western Division semifinal playoffs, with the Warriors needing a victory for a stunning series upset.

The Warriors, defending Western Division champions, dropped to third without 6-11 Nate Thurmond for most of this season but jumped to a surprising 3-1 lead in the playoffs.

But the Hawks, using their brawn to outrebound the Warriors by 20 in the cramped court at Washington University in St. Louis, made it 3-2 with Sunday's 129-103 victory.

"I have nothing against the officials," says Sharman, "they let us get away with as many fouls as the other teams.

"But there is much more shoving and pushing now than when I was playing.

"Basketball should be a game of speed and finesse. This new muscular aggressiveness has slowed the game. It's not what the fans want to see."

Besides getting tough, the Warriors must rebound against the Hawks, who finished the regular season schedule in first place.

"When you get the rebounds," said Sharman, "you win. It's 70 per cent of the game. But you can rebound without getting rough."

Clyde Lee, 6-9 center filling in for the injured Thurmond, is the Warriors' top rebounder but may not be at full strength. He turned his foot in the Sunday game but will play, said Sharman.

Al Attles also must continue his fine defensive job on Len Wilkens, added Sharman, and Jeff Mullins must regain his shooting touch.

Mullins was held to 12 by Lou Hudson Sunday after scoring 33, 29, 33 and 35 in the first four games.

Jim Lonborg Recovery On Schedule

WINTER HAVEN, Fla. (AP) — Ailing Jim Lonborg's recuperation is right on schedule in his determined bid to be back pitching for the Boston Red Sox by May 15.

Lonborg, who plays 27 holes of golf daily, gets in plenty of swimming and works with weights as part of his rehabilitation. He plans to throw from the mound tomorrow for the first time this spring.

When the Red Sox break camp Friday, Lonborg will head for the Louisville training site at Deland, Fla., to continue his special therapy program and workouts until the club reaches Boston in mid-April.

Lonborg, injured shortly after signing a $50,000 contract, has been placed on baseball's restricted list. The Red Sox are not required to pay him until he's ready to pitch, but Yawkey is known as one of the most generous club owners in the game.

Richmond Grabs Veteran Miller

The Braves said yesterday that the 40-year-old Miller, 3-10 for the Orioles last year, will get a chance to win a job with the Braves during this week's exhibition games.

Club officials said Richmond paid more than the $25,000 waiver price for Miller.

BERNIE SCHNEIDER

Prep Basketball Is Way Of Life

By GARY TISCHLER

BERNIE SCHNEIDER

Late on Friday night in February, in the Tamalpais High School gymnasium, a pack of wild-eyed, slightly delirious teen-akers carried a grown man on their collective shoulder in a modern-dress Roman triumph.

The grown man was Bernie Schneider, father of six ladder-aged children, basketball coach and English teacher, a smallish man of thirty who looks disarmingly like a shy bookworm from a distance and who was once a starting guard on the University of San Franicsco frosh basketball team.

VICTORY

The reason for the celebration was a come-from-behind cage victory over perennialy stubborn San Rafael, a victory that gave Schneider and his players and the school the 1968 Marin County Athletic League basketball title and a coveted trip to the Tournament of Champions.

Schneider was even happier when he accepted the TOC consolation trophy in the mammoth Oakland Arena. And from far off in a distant corner of the arena, a faint but enthusiastic voice yelled "Yay, Bernie!"

Although he isn't telling, Schneider may have appreciated that faint cheer almost as much as the trophy and the amazing success he has had at Tam.

SAME PERSON

For one gets the impression, for all his coaching know-how, his knowledgeable approach to the game, and his professed distance from the players, that Schneider is not very far removed from that starting guard on the USF frosh team of 1955-56.

If ever a man was welded intensely to a basketball it is Schneider.

He has spent time at two MCAL schools, and at USF learning about basketball and himself. He turned the title trick at Tam in his second year there, coming from a junior varsity job at Redwood, and prior to that, a varsity job at Marin Catholic.

THE IFS

Schneider loves to talk basketball, about plays and defenses, games won and lost, and the almosts and ifs of that chance-riddled game. It would seem that he only needs players because that's what you play basketball with.

"I'm not one of those father-images coaches," Schnieder says. "My job is to prepare the boys for a basketball season and that's the main thing."

Or so it seems.

Schneider doesn't quite pull it off on the floor, or in the locker-room. The cool coach scene he will have to pass on to someone else.

IN FLUX

There seems to be a definite kameradie between player and coach in the Tam lockerroom. And when Schneider talks about his players, it is like a man talking about his Army buddy. The chill of a methodical coach just isn't there.

"I think I once almost had an attitude of doing just everything to win. I would ride the officials, yell at kids," he said. "But I've tried to control myself. Sometimes it isn't easy. But it doesn't do any good to yell at a kid during a time out. If he's made a mistake, he probably knows it already. I think I'm becoming calmer now."

CALMER

Last year, Schneider, at times, was a frantic up and downer. This year, especially at the Tournament of Champions, he was the picture of near unconsciousness during a game . . . but not in time outs, or after a game.

For Schneider, a smart coach who knows how to make the best of his period, success came after a frustrating season in which he was beset by the first-year coach problems, an unknown act trying to follow a big smash. The season wound up as a disappointment, but this year, the riches rolled in and the promise was kept.

DRAMA

"I'm interested in literature," he said. "Drama and things in that order sort of round out the intellectual side of me. And I can see parallels in drama that fit in basketball and vice versa."

Schneider will probably have a tough time duplicating this year's title feat, but he will have a team that will again be his team, or, whether he likes to admit it or not, his boys.

Nineteen Swimmers Make 'A Times

Nineteen San Rafael Swim Club "B" swimmers made "A" times at the Marin Swim Club "B" age-group swim meet at College of Marin last Saturday and Sunday.

Cadet Baseballers, Spikers Triumph

Bruce Camilleri hurled a five-hitter, stroked a pair of hits and drove in three runs to lead San Rafael Military Academy to an 8-4 baseball verdict over Anderson Valley in San Rafael last Friday.

Swimmers Make Class A Times

Cal Trackmen To Take On Rugged USC

The meets include Stanford at Washington State; San Jose at Tempe against Arizona State and Brigham Young; Pacific hosting Southern Oregon, and Hayward hosting Humboldt State and Chico State.

NO WEAKNESSES

"Southern California has no weaknesses," Bell told sports writers yesterday. He praised his own Stan Royster, a double winner in the jumps, and 7-1 high jumper, Clarence Johnson, for fine efforts as Cal lost to San Jose 87-58.

San Jose Coach Bud Winter was excited over his Spartans' times and distances. Nine of them set career records in defeating California. Winter said their meet marks were 15 points better than any other strong Pacific Coast team, including Southern California, Occidental and UCLA, which was third in the nation last season.

San Jose not only has consistent speed at all distances, but got surprising efforts by hurdler Larry Melquoind, 14.3; John Powell, 171-11 and Fred Hayden, 164-7, who did 1-2 in the discus, and freshman Darnell Hillman's 6-8 third in the high jump.

IN ARIZONA

In Arizona State, San Jose will face the team that bruised UCLA 77-66, and Brigham Young, which is in the meet at its own request. BYU wants to avenge a recent loss to San Jose.

Stanford's Payton Jordan hopes Bob Anchando, mile and two-mile, and Tom Massey, 6-8 high jumper and 51-feet triple jumper, will be available for Saturday's toughie against Washington State in Pullman.

He praised Peter Boyce, 7-3 high jumper; Andy Sears, 100 and 220; Jim Ward, 440, and Craig Vaughan, long jump, all winners in the Indians' victory at Fresno State.

Jordan said "we hope to win" but "Washington State seems to have too much strength for us. We expect to pick up a little."

O'Toole To Toil On Pirate Farm

DAYTONA BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Veteran Jim O'Toole, recently released by the Chicago White Sox, will try to pitch his way back into major league baseball as a Pittsburgh Pirate farmhand.

As Expected, It's 76ers Vs. Celts

Boston Thumps Pistons

DETROIT (AP) — The Boston Celtics have been in the Eastern Division finals of the National Basketball Association playoffs in each of the 11 years Bill Russell has been with the team.

"He's tough," said Coach Donnis Butcher after his Detroit Pistons were eliminated from the semifinals four games to two with a 111-103 loss to the Celtics last night.

Dave Bing, Detroit's sensational second-year guard, had 44 points, 22 in the third quarter and 37 in the second half, both Detroit and Cobo Arena records.

"Thirty-seven points in one half ain't bad, is it?" said Russell, examining the box score after the game. "I'd take that for a week."

The Celtics jumped to a 13-4 lead in the first four minutes, fell behind 24-22 at the end of the quarter and took the lead for keeps when Havelicek hit 17 points in the second quarter.

The Pistons, with Bing hitting 16 straight points, cut the 57-49 halftime deficit to six points several times. But Boston held

"I wasn't worried," said Russell. "But there is always a danger with a team like Detroit, with so many great shooters. Bing was hot and if (Jimmy) Walker gets hot like he can, we're in trouble."

Butcher said there would be no home court advantage in the Boston-Philadelphia series, which starts Sunday in Philadelphia.

"Boston's going to play Philly real rough," he said. "Russell and the Celtics will give Philly all they want.

Lotz Forges 69 For Pro-Am Win

SAVANNAH, Ga. (AP) — Don Lotz of Hayward, forged a 33 on the back nine yesterday for a three-under-par 69 and won the Savannah Inn and Country Club Pro-Am Golf Tournament.

Only two other professionals, Terry Dill and Johnny Pott, matched par over the 7,009-yard course, carding even par 72s.

They were trailed by Doug Ford, Rex Baxter and Larry Mowry, all at 73.

Dellepere Of Tomales Stands Out Again

Gary Dellepere, Tomales High's do-everything football and basketball star, was at it again Friday. He was on the pitching, hitting and base running star of Tomales' 4-1 victory over Kelseyville.

Dellepere pitched three-hit ball, striking out six and walking one, as well as going two-for-three at bat and stealing home, one of five thefts the Tomales nine pulled.

Wilt & Co. Too Much For Knicks

NEW YORK (AP) — The Philadelphia 76ers, faced by a harassing defense, used an attacking offense to win the battle, but the war is just beginning.

The world champion 76ers closed out their first skirmish by bombing the New York Knicks 113-97 last night to win their Eastern Division semifinal playoff series, four games to two, in the National Basketball Association.

Now come the Boston Celtics —again—and the Celtics keep coming, and coming. They erased Detroit 111-103 Monday night to grab their semifinal set, 4-2, and gain the division finals for the 11th straight time.

"Boston plays the same grabbing defense as the Knicks," said Hal Greer, whose 35 points shattered the Knicks. "But if we just play our game, nobody is going to beat us. As long as we move the ball and hit the open man, we're okay."

"The Knicks put pressure on the guards, the same way Boston does, but the Celtics are more successful because they have Bill Russell to back them up," said Philadelphia Coach Alex Hannum. "We just have to attack it by moving the ball quickly up the floor."

Hannum admitted he'd do the same thing if he were facing his taller, beefier 76ers, and felt the Knicks "missed Walt Frazier more than we missed Billy Cunningham. They needed that extra guard with such a defense."

Frazier, New York's sparkling rookie, injured a leg Saturday and didn't play the last two games. Cunningham broke a wrist last Wednesday.

The struggle was in doubt for about 35 minutes after the Knicks jumped to 17-4 and 31-17 leads, but Greer, Wilt Chamberlain and Co. finally wore down the Knicks in the final half.

Greer hit 13 of his points in the third quarter when the 76ers turned a 57-56 deficit into an 86-76 lead and Chamberlain towered over play near both boards, blocking shots and snaring rebounds. Wilt finished with 25 points and 27 rebounds.

Kentucky Derby Favorite Could Be Out For Season

COMBINED AP & UPI

NEW YORK — Vitriolic, the champion two-year-old of 1967 and the winter book favorite for the Kentucky Derby, was declared out of the Derby and perhaps sidelined for the season yesterday by owner Ogden Phipps.

Phipps said the son of Bold Ruler, who won six of 13 races in 1967, is suffering from calcium deposits on both forelegs and will be shipped to Kentucky for an operation. Vitriolic became afflicted with leg misseries following the Everglades race at Hialeah on Feb. 12 when he was roughed up at a turn and finished fourth.

BASEBALL

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. — Veteran utility infielder Dick Schofield, released by the Los Angeles Dodgers this year, was signed by the St. Louis Cardinals.

LAKELAND, Fla. — The Detroit Tigers sold Hank Aguirre, veteran left-handed pitcher, to the Los Angeles Dodgers.

HORSE RACING

California Vs. Florida On A Kentucky Track

GULF STREAM PARK, Fla. — Geography is a matter of indifference to horses—as are most things. Their interest in climate is minimal. They go around nude, sleep standing up. They spend most of their lives getting whipped, doing what they don't want to do, getting bullied by an animal only one fifth of their weight and size. They have been replaced by tanks and war and tractors and peace, and the only way they get even with man is when he bets on them.

To call a horse a "California horse" or a "Florida horse," then, is the rankest kind of nonsense. A horse is a horse, of course, of course. I well remember, some years ago, when a Japanese-bred, Hakuchikira, arrived in this country, and a young lady, on viewing him in the paddock, was disappointed. "He doesn't look Japanese," she said dubiously.

NOW, I DON'T really know whether she expected him to have glasses, buck teeth, and/or slant eyes, but the point was, he was, like all thoroughbred horses, descended from a line of three brought into the Western world two or three centuries ago. Unlike man, he (the horse) did not split off from his Adam and Eve into nationalities, form armies, or erect customs. His only natural enemy is the common fly and the common man.

He is not yet on the endangered species list of the U.S. Wildlife Bureau because his skin makes lousy suitcases, and his meat is too tough for store teeth. So far as is known, horses are not extremely religious, either.

WITH THIS IN mind, it would seem a race between running horses would offer as little in the way of nationalistic or provincial interests as one between jumping frogs.

Not so. Ever since George Washington's day when gentlemen from Virginia challenged those rascals from Maryland to tests of horseflesh, arguments have raged over the relative merits of one's native soils and vegetation as a producer of speel and stamina in horses. The contest became unequal when Boone opened up Kentucky, and asphalt began to cover the pasture lands of the East.

BUT IT WAS only in recent years when California and Florida asked for chips in this no-limit game that it became transcontinental. California horse farms are grassless by Kentucky standards, and the insect life is so voracious in Florida that the hecklers wondered if the breeders would have to cross their horse stock with Brahma bulls to make them bite-resistant as the crossed cattle are here.

The Kentucky Derby is the measuring stick in this struggle, albeit, the horse owners argue a vain one. It has been won by Cal-breds and Florida-breds — but not often. At stake are millions of dollars in stud fees and, in a sense, the whole reputation of a breeding industry.

LIKE HAKUCHIKIRA, a California horse does not necessarily have seaweed hair or wear dark glasses or tell every other horse he meets he's a producer. But I suppose Silky Sullivan comes as close to typifying the popular horseman's concept of a "California horse." Silky was big and beautiful, and he was one part prowess and two parts press-agentry. Silky, in a sense, had gone Hollywood. He ran some races out West that were right out of "The Story of Black Beauty," or old Loretta Young movies. He started off so far back that you could almost see the bad guy with the black hair curling his long mustache with his thumb and first finger at the finish line. But there was always The Happy Eending.

When Silky came East he was the most photographed visitor since Rudolph Valentino. But in the Kentucky Derby, they had to wait up late to photograph him. The Kentucky horses didn't wait up for him. It became clear he had been running down a lot of laundry horses out West.

NEEDLES WAS the best of the Florida breds. He to ran late, but, unlike Silky, also fast.

Swaps was the best of the Calbreds, but he was an honest horse, virtually range-bred, and his cowboy owners made it clear to him they expected no nonsense. He could either run or cut cows. Swaps' victory in Kentucky was sweetest because he beat a vintage Eastern crop that year. It was enough to make you believe in Tom Mix — or John Wayne movies.

A carryover of the breeding controversy has come to include horses, of whatever natal health, who have ever campaigned in the respective states. Which makes this year a unique one in that California has increased racing dates (a move the state hopes will produce better revenues and the breeders hope better horses). Also, the Santa Anita Derby and the Florida Derby are on the same day and date.

THE SCIENTISTS in the press box will have to weigh such factors as the depth of the track, dexterity of the riders, and other imponderables that make horses even more inconsistent than women. But the virtual simultaneity of the races means both fields will be coming up to their peak pre-Kentucky form at the same time under similar circumstances.

The consensus is that California has more good horses this year, but Florida could have the one better one.

Like most other residents of the two respective states, the horseflesh is largely made up of arrivistes this year. But two states that can argue over the relative superiority of oranges (which also look alike) or sunshine (which rises and sets in the same directions) cannot be expected to behave unemotionally over horses. The governors are ready, the journalists more so, and Kentucky is waiting in the wings to settle the issue.

THE ONLY PRINCIPALS unconcerned are the trainers and horses, the horses because a bag of oats is a bag of oats, and the trainers because you don't judge a horse by an address but by a timeclock.

It's Group Therapy For Dodgers

By DICK COUCH

VERO BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Zoilo Versalles has unpleasant memories of 1967 in Minnesota, but his new Los Angeles teammates are trying hard to help him forget.

It's a kind of group therapy for the Dodgers. They, too, have been trying to forget 1967 all winter.

Versalles, the American League's Most Valuable Player in 1965, struggled through the worst year of his career, batting just .200 for the Twins and wishing he were miles away from Minnesota.

STUMBLED

The Dodgers, meanwhile, stumbled through their worst National League season in 62 years, finishing eighth after winning the pennant in 1966.

Now, Versalles is the Dodgers' shortstop, having come to Los Angeles with another disgruntled Twin, pitcher Jim Grant, in a winter trade that sent catcher John Roseboro and relief pitchers Ron Perranoski and Bob Miller to Minnesota. Zoilo can return the favor by plugging a big gap in the Dodgers' infield opened when shortstop Maury Wills was dealt to Pittsburgh last year.

HIT .302

Wills hit .302 for the Pirates while Bob Bailey and Gene Michael, picked up by Los Angeles in the deal, plodded home at .227 and .202, respectively.

They had plenty of company. Jim Lefebvre developed a power failure, sagging from 24 homers in 1966 to eight last year; Willie Davis fell from a .284 average to .257 and Ron Fairly plummeted from .288 to .220.

"It was almost like a plague," said Fairly. "There's only one thing about a season like that. It surely humbles you."

GOT HALLER

The rehabilitation of the Dodgers started with the Minnesota deal, picked up steam when catcher Tom Haller was obtained from San Francisco in exchange for Ron Hunt and progressed through a rigorous winter conditioning program that carried into spring training.

Walter Alston, dean of major league managers, is cautiously optimistic about the Dodgers' 1968 chances as he embarks on his 15th go-round. "We've filled a few holes," he said, "and we might bounce back a little higher than expected."

Pitching was, and still is, the big plus for the Dodgers. Claude Osteen, 17-17, Don Drysdale, 13-16, Don Sutton, 11-15, and Bill Singer, 12-8, are returning starters. Rookie Alan Foster also has earned a starting shot. Grant, 5-6 with the Twins, will start or relieve, or both.

A MISERABLE MIEULI

San Francisco Warrior owner Frank Mieuli doesn't find things too pleasant during the Warriors' 129-103 loss to the St. Louis Hawks in St. Louis. Mieuli is waiting to ring a cablecar bell which he brings to every playoff game and rings at every Warrior basket. Mieuli will get another chance to ring out the news when the Warriors play the Hawks in the Cow Palace tonight at 8:30 in a chance to clinch the best of seven series which they lead 3-2.

CINCINNATI (AP) — Chuck Fidatti of Scranton, Pa., broke into the regular singles standings of the American Bowling Congress tourney yesterday. He rolled a 693 series—good enough for a sixth-place tie.

Harvey Dutzel, Sugar Creek, Mo., had a 300-game going in team competition last night He rolled 10 straight strikes before leaving a hanger. His team, R. V. Distributing Co. No. 2 totaled a 2,627.

The FISHIN' FOOL

By RALPH STEVENS
I-J Fish and Game Writer

Happy Days Are Here Again For Lucky Salmon Trollers

STEVENS

Sorta looks like happy days are here again. Wednesday and Thursday were productive days for salmon trolling, Friday was nearly as good and Saturday was tabbed as good also. All sportfishing boats had fish — lots of them.

Out of Caruso' Sausalito headquarters the Mike 3 and and the Marion each had 21 salmon with the Mike 3 neeting her 21 ranging to about 21 pounds. Considering that there were only eight anglers aboard the Mike 3, that's getting pretty close to limits. Most fish were taken in the Double Point-Duxbury region.

DON ZUNINO of the Lincoln Bait Shop in San Rafael reported two very productive days while fishing from Skipper Bill Crozier's boat the Ka-Took. "We had four rods working and four limits were boated on both Wednesday and Thursday," said Don. "As far as I could learn all salmon were kings and only anchovies were used for bait — no hardware."

Zunino who keeps abreast of current action, also pegged bait fishing for striped bass as fair or good, depending on the locale fished. "Seems that the larger fish which were boated, while still in the Corregidor-Pump House area, have run heavier than in the Flats Area, in the deeper water.

I NOTE THE Southern Pacific Rod and Gun Club members are staging a dual fishing trip for some of the more dedicated anglers on Saturday. There will be trolling for salmon on the morning, and rockfishing in the afternoon. Outing headquarters will be at the "The Tides," Bodega ay, and the fee is $10 per angler and that includes both salmon and rockfishing. If no material change in the weather, chances are that a flock of fish will be deducted from the ocean supply.

AN ITEM of news that is bound to please wherever a Rod and Gun club exists is a father, son and daughter fishing program that will become a reality on Tuesday, April 9. According to Ray Bartleson, secretary of the Castro Valley Rod and Gun Club, Frank Hubbard, of the Fish and Game office, will show a moving picture of great interest to anglers on both sides of the Bay. The meeting will be held at the Elks Hall, downstairs, 1081 N Street. The project should be a good membership drive, wouldn't you say? A swell feed will be served. Costs: Adults $2.25, Juniors, $1.50.

A late release from the DFG announces the first wild turkey hunt for California nimrods. It's only a proposal so far but could become law. Here's hoping.

Tamalpais Girls Sure Run Fast

Suzie Battle, Mary Pizzio and Ivory Foster paced the victory along with Diane McKelvy. Suzie, Mary and Ivory were part of the winning relay team and the won the 50-yard dash, the 100 dash and long jump, and the 440 and 220, respectively. Diane won the 50 hurdles and the high jump.

McNulty Boys Place In Midget Races

Pat McNulty, 12-year-old San Rafael boy, was second in the main event and had second fastest time in Senior Stock Class last weekend in the quarter-midget races at Sunnyvale.

Pat's brother, Bill, 13, was third in his heat and sixth in the main event, competing in B Class.

George Scherba Wins Indian Valley Title

George Scherba won the first flight of the Indian Valley Golf Clubs spring handicap tournament by downing Bob Hachmyer four and three Sunday.

Bob Richard stopped Harold Walton, three and two, for second flight honors while Lamar Wyattt defeated Bob Boggs, one-up, in third flight championship play. Jack Clifford took the fourth flight title with a four and three win over Jerry Hannigan.

WINNING BRIDGE

Someday a leader of the people will rise to free us all from the bondage of the finesse. Today only good bridge players know that it often pays to refuse a finesse, but perhaps you can learn what they know from this week's articles.

JACK OPENER

West opens the jack of hearts, and the average debt-ridden man gets himself deeper in the hole by trying the hopeless finesse with the queen of hearts. East wins with the king of hearts and returns his singleton diamond, and now the fat is in the fire.

If South finesses, he loses to the king, and West can defeat the contract very easily by returning a diamond for East to ruff. South is just as badly off if he takes the ace of diamonds and leads a trump. West can take the ace of spades and the king of diamonds and then lead a diamond for East to ruff.

HERO IS NEEDED

The player who can look a finesse in the eye and say "no" makes four spades. Our hero begins by playing dummy's low heart at the first trick.

West continues with the 10 of hearts, and dummy's ace wins. Declarer cashes the ace of clubs, ruffs a heart, ruffs a club in dummy and leads a trump.

West takes the ace of trumps and gets out by leading the king of clubs. South ruffs the club in dummy, draws one more trump with dummy's king and then leads a diamond to take a deep finesse with the nine.

DIAMOND TAKE

West wins with the 10 of diamonds, but is then helpless. If West returns a diamond, South gets a free finesse; and if West returns anything else, dummy ruffs while South discards the queen of diamonds.

South makes his contract by refusing to dally with either red queen. Who but a bridge expert could display such courage?

DAILY QUESTION

ANSWER: Pass.

Your best chance for a good result is to play possum and let the opponents get into trouble.

Auto Licenses For Life Out

HONOLULU (AP) — Hawaii has eliminated its life-time drivers licenses for motorists.

All motorists in the state have to apply for new licenses, turning in the old licenses which were good for life.

Under the new law enacted by the state Legislature, motorists under 25 and over 65 will have to renew their licenses every two years. Drivers between 25 and 65 will have to obtain new licenses every four years.

Hawaii was the only state with the life-time licenses.

ALMANAC

Today is Tuesday, April 2, the 93rd day of 1968 with 273 to follow.

The moon is between its new phase and first quarter. The morning star is Venus. The evening stars are Mars and Jupiter.

On this day in history:

In 1932, Charles Lindbergh left $50,000 in a New York cemetery for an unidentified man in hopes his kidnaped son would be returned. Bruno Richard Hauptmann was found guilty of kidnaping and murdering the Lindbergh child and was executed.

In 1954, the International Longshoremen's Union called off a 29-day-old strike along New York's waterfront. It was the longest dock strike up to that time in the history of New York.

A thought for the day: American drama critic Percy Hammond said, "The female knee is a joint and not an entertainment."

TIME AND TIDE

Department of Commerce, United States Coast Geodetic Survey. Times and heights of tides at San Francisco (Golden Gate):

Recreational Travel Vehicles Being Offered By A New Firm

A newly opened business in recreational travel vehicles — sales and rentals — is Artie-Vee Associates, 5820 Paradise Drive, Corte Madera, between J and B Ford Sales and Don W. O'Neil Real Estate.

Artie-Vee specializes in tent camping trailers, accessories and service and has two major lines as exclusive dealerships for Marin Clunty: Nimrod, manufactured by Ward Manufacturing Co., Hamilton, Ohio, and Sherwood, manufactured in Los Anteles by Interstate Engineering. Several models of each are offered, from small basic designs to luxurious trailers with deluxe appointments.

Hanks

manager with a division of Gisholt Machine Co., Madison, Wisc. before moving to the Bay Area. He is a member of several travel and outdoor clubs.

JOHN C. SMITH of Kentfield, assistant to the general manager of Pacific Coast sales for Bethlehem Steel Corp., has retired after 40 years of service with the corporation. He joined Bethlehem in management training as a mechanical engineering graduate from the University of Washington. He has been assigned to both the Seattle and Los Angeles offices and has been assistant to the general sales manager at San Francisco since 1961.

MORRIS A. LUPINI of San Rafael has been appointed San Francisco district manager of the State Compensation Insurance Fund. He began his career with the State Fund as an underwriter and has subsequently served as salesman, assistant superintendent, safety representative and training officer — a post he has held since 1964.

CORRECTION. A garbled typesetting error in last Thursday's column placed Gorb Jewelers at Strawberry Town and Country Village. The item should have included the names of Mildred Cates and Richard Humphrey of the Village Jewelers, Strawberry as attending the California Retail Jewelers Association in San Francisco. Gorb Jewelers is located in downtown San Rafael.

Van Keulen

Cowan

ROBERT VAN KEULEN of Belvedere will head the newly opened San Francisco western regional offices of Copystatics Manufacturing Corp., a subsidiary of Saxon Paper Corp. and manufacturer of office copying machines. He was formerly northwest regional manager for Ditto Division of Bell and Howell and previously regional manager for S. C. M. Corp.

FORMER SAN RAFAEL RESIDENT Joseph C. Cowan, one-time district representative here for Pacific Gas and Electric Co., has been appointed manager in Los Gatos. Since 1964 he has been sales manager of the Santa Rosa district.

THERE ARE TWO newly licensed additions to the staff at York Securities Corp., San Rafael:

Isabel MacRury of San Rafael has been eight years in real estate. She was formerly with Melvin Marlowe and also Rivers and Jackman. Previously she was with the National Industrial Conference Board in the midwest.

Marston Thall of Novato has been a resident of Marin for over 20 years. He was formerly with New York Life Insurance Co.

G. ROBERT ROGERS of Larkspur, interior designer formerly associated with Lorette Larson Interiors, Inc., Mill Valley, will open a design studio April 1 at 1730 Jefferson Street, Napa. Drapery and fabric specialist Mrs. Charlotte Sheeks of Mill Valley will be associated with him.

The studio will offer color and design services for residential and commercial installations, furnishings, imported ceramics, glass and crystal and carpet and draperies. Rogers at one time owned and operated Robindale Interiors, San Anselmo.

Stocks Close Higher, Wiping Out Decline

The market weathered some profit taking in the morning, brokers said. They noted that the great upsurge of Monday on record volume of 17.73 million shares could not have been sustained.

Glamour stocks and blue ships, many of them clipped for sharp losses in the morning, bounced back handsomely as selling pressure was lifted. News of industrial gains in March despite labor problems was cited as encouraging, but the snapback was seen mainly as technical.

Chrysler was the most-active stock in late dealings as it gained about 2 points. Among other active issues, Itek rose 5, Control Data, Lockheed and Teledyne 3 each, Fruehauf, "Automatic" Sprinkler and Ford more than 2 each.

IBM and Xerox advanced 4 or better.

NOT FANCY LAMP SHADES

Spools of polyester tire yarn are inspected by a worker at Goodyear's cord production facility near Point Pleasant, W. Va. Each spool, called a "pirn," weighs 10 pounds and holds up to 18 miles of polyester yarn—enough for the reinforcing piles of six passenger tires.

ABA Now Writing Law For California

Although the Reardon Report of the American Bar Association has not been accepted by the California State Bar, our state's Supreme Court has seen fit to give it official recognition.

It did so last week in over-ruling the Mendocino County Superior Court's denial of a change of venue for a murder trial.

There seemed no need for the California Supreme Court to make any mention of the Reardon Report, which sets up proposed restrictions on what shall and shall not be made public in a criminal case before trial. The reasons it advanced for ordering the Mendocino County court to grant a change of venue stand just as well without mentioning the Reardon Report. Yet the report is mentioned no fewer than four times in its opinion.

THE RESULT is to give legal standing in California to a report adopted by the American Bar Association but not adopted by the California State Bar and having no more weight as far as the legal profession in this state is concerned than any report of any organization concerned with law enforcement and the courts—until the court cited it.

The case at issue is a murder case. Defendants Eugene Maine and Thomas Eugene Braun asked for a change of venue from Mendocino County, contending the state of public opinion there was such that they could not receive a fair trial. The superior court denied the change. Defendants' counsel then asked the state Supreme Court to mandate the change, which it did —a first in such a case, but not without precedent.

The state Supreme Court found that: (1) the victims — a youth who was killed and a girl who was seriously wounded — were popular members of prominent local families, while the accused are itinerants; (2) local residents contributed generously to a fund raised by the Ukiah Daily Journal to defray medical expenses of the girl victim of the attack; (3) an official in Washington State, where the same two men are charged with murder, disclosed a purported confession of one of them there; (4) Ukiah is a small community and this was the first murder case in a long time in Mendocino County, so exercised an unusual influence on public feeling; (5) the district attorney and one of the defense counsel are both candidates for a Mendocino County Superior Court judgeship, so politics might enter into the trial.

WHAT DID THE REARDON Report have to do with these circumstances? Nothing.

One cannot, of course, know what was in the minds of the supreme court justices which caused them to quote four times from the Reardon Report—and once from the American Newspaper Publishers Association's retort to it—in their mandamus ruling.

The effect, however, is that law is being written for California by the American Bar Association.

The American Newspaper Publishers Association certainly did not intend to be writing law when it criticized the Reardon Report. It has no right to write law for the State of California or any other state. No more does the American Bar Association.

WHAT OUR READERS SAY

Fiction Award For Editorial

Editor, Independent-Journal:

As one who appreciates good fiction, I shall, when asked by the National Book Association to nominate a choice for 1968, propose your editorial of March 25: "Two Kinds of Conformity—Where They Lead." I too have observed the button-down-collar conformists and those who are noticeable for lack of grooming.

An attribute of good fiction is that it reveals a writer's attitude, which usually reflects the society in which he works. Your piece shows a keen perception of physical attributes of three persons. It gives a glimpse into the mind of one, an establishment conformist. Because the two who are unshaven, unbarbered and sloppily dressed are slumped against a building, it must follow that they have traded ideals for drugs. I am not in a position to state equivocally that any of these young men are not on drugs. It would seem that you are in such a position merely on the basis of their appearance. In a face to face encounter such as a job interview, this kind of a judgmen might be almost valid.

Why I think the editorial is expressive of our times is that it mirrors an unfortunate aspect of our society; namely, that we have yet to learn how to make judgments respecting human beings on any basis except the external. What is tragic about our lost generation is the colossal waste of human resourcefulness and time these young men represent.

As for "Two Kinds of Conformity—Where They Lead", what about an answer such as Vietnam?

In death, there is no nonconformity . . .

Glue Sniffing Serious Problem

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Some weeks ago you published an article headed "Arrest Comes Unstuck," dealing with the apprehension and later release of a young man for "glue sniffing." I am sure the facts were dealt with quite accurately. My objection is to the rather facetious tone with which the article was written. Although the matter may, on the surface, seem quite amusing, the problem of "glue sniffing" for "kicks" is very widespread and very dangerous. In contrast to marijuana, which has yet to be proven to do actual physical harm to the body, "glue sniffing" involves the inhalation of many volatile substances which not only may cause permanent damage to the liver, and possibly other internal organs, but it also may lead to permanent blindness, and sometimes, irreversible damage to the central nervous system.

Under the circumstances, it is my impression that to deal with such a potentially harmful practice with such levity is to invite the participation by large numbers of young people in the practice, particularly because it is not illegal, and the materials are so readily available.

Wirephoto Captions Disturb Reader

Editor, Independent-Journal:

It has seemed to me that very often those on your staff responsible for the captions under the various wirephotos take great delight in writing lurid captions that must be the result of people who are very biased and particularly biased against those customs and institutions that have evolved and are accepted as a result of this country's 200-year development.

Particularly, I refer to the photo on page 4 of March 28 I-J. Now looting cannot be tolerated whether it occurs in Memphis or on the corner of B and Fifth streets in San Rafael. The age of the looters is not a factor unless it is meant to conjure up such illused and too often inaccurate phrases as "Police Brutality." Look at the picture yourself and see if you do not also see a brave policeman, doing his duty to protect the property of ordinary citizens. Is it really a night stick or a piece of wood that he took from the looters? How about that poor young looter behind him that has his arms around the law enforcement officer? How about the man in the background who appears ready to throw an object at the policeman?

What's right is right. If you have doubts let us go along with what is accepted as orderly or just print the picture and let your readers write their own captions. . . .

Barham Against Brown Act 'Mania'

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Your "Brickbat" to me of this date (March 30) shows a gap in your information. I told the GOP Central Committee that they knew Bagley better than I. Having been in marketing for years, I am accustomed to selling myself rather than spend precious time digging my opponent. The presence of a newsman made discussion of the "nitty-gritty" of my campaign illogical.

This situation brings to mind Bagley's "Brown Act" mania. It shows how the "need to know" can cripple the ability to act. Public display of every man's ideas, comments and suggestions in working sessions of legitimate government bodies can prejudice performance. It can prevent good men and women from serving. If every word must be measured to stand by itself in the public eye or print, good people won't serve, the bashful will fall before the showman, and the sincere become trophies to the mediocre and the demagogue. There are two sides to this "Brown Act" coin as it applies to "home-rule" government. . . .

YOUTHFUL DRUG ADDICTS PENALIZE THEMSELVES

Urging a group of 12,000 teachers at the National Education convention in Minneapolis to "tell it like it is," the drug company official described the spiraling rise in drug use among school-age youths as "chemical Russian roulette."

He warned that outside of medical use drugs can produce physical and psychological dependence.

"Penalties for illicit sale are severe and rightly so," he pointed out, "and yet these individuals have constructed a surer prison for themselves and their minds than any jailer could hope to build."

If youth is to show initiative and preseverance in resisting the deceptive allure of drugs, they need intelligent assistance and spiritual guidance.

With God's help and the cooperation of parents, teachers and others, young people can find true self-fulfillment and not fall prey to drug addiction.

"I know the plans I have for you, says the Lord, plans for your welfare and not for evil."
(Jeremiah 29:11)

Republican Senators Kill Bill To Raise Legislators' Salaries

By HENRY C. MacARTHUR

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — History really was made in the Legislature last week when the Republican caucus of the state Senate, 20 members strong, decided to oppose the proposal of Democratic Assemblyman Edward I. Elliott of Los Angeles, to increase salaries of legislators $1,600 a year.

Elliott is a veteran legislator who is retiring from service this year, and entitled to a legislative retirement pension. He introduced the measure with the knowledge it couldn't hurt him politically, as he won't be running for public office again.

LEGISLATORS now receive $16,000 a year, compared to $6,000 before proposition A-1 was voted into the constitution by the people. The measure gave the legislators the authority to raise their own salaries within certain limits.

However, a bill for a raise wasn't expected so soon after the new, annual sessions started, especially in face of the current fiscal condition of the state's general fund, and also in face of the fact that they increased taxes last year to the tune of a billion dollars.

The Republican caucus, headed by Sen. Donald A. Grunsky, R-Santa Cruz, recognizes the facts of life, especially in an election year, so it took fast action to head off what undoubtedly would have turned out to be an issue calling for a flood of criticism.

On behalf of the caucus, Grunsky said:

SENATOR GRUNSKY left the door open, however, for future consideration of salary increases when he said a cost-of-living increase should be considered at the earliest appropriate time. But, he said, 1968 is not the time.

Shortly after the caucus statement, Assemblyman Elliott announced that as long as his bill had become a partisan issue, he doesn't intend to press the measure, which means, in effect, that the proposal is deceased for at least this session. Few other legislators would be brave enough to introduce such a measure and face their constituents in June.

TRY AND STOP ME

By BENNETT CERF

Jim Bacon, visiting the headquarters of one of the those weird cults that seem to thrive in the balmy air of Southern California, was startled to discover this notice posted on the clubroom bulletin board: "Due to the shortage of trained trumpeters, we have been compelled to postpone the end of the world."

Willie McCovey, slugging first baseman of the San Francisco Giants, is not exactly a loquacious fellow. In fact, compared to McCovey, Calvin Coolidge was an old blabbermouth. One summer morning a baseball scribe called Willie, who mumbled an unintelligible reply. "I'm sorry, Willie," apologized the scribe. "Did I wake you up?" Willie reflected duly, then answered, "Some."

INSIDE WASHINGTON

McCarthy To Extend Fight To Kennedy

By ROBERT S. ALLEN

WASHINGTON — A spectacular eruption is in the making that is certain to further exacerbate the already torrid Democratic presidential melee.

Senator McCarthy is pondering expanding his targets to include Senator Kennedy.

This course is being strongly urged by close McCarthy advisers. If their counsel is followed, foremost among the charges that would be raised against Kennedy is that he is "trying to buy" the White House nomination.

Reason for this tough advice is growing apprehension in inner McCarthy circles that he is losing ground nationally to his younger mop-haired rival.

BEHIND THIS gnawing anxiety are a number of stark realities, such as:

1. The huge size and professionalism of Kennedy's campaign organization and virtually unlimited millions available for its operations. As previously disclosed in this column, $5 million has been budgeted —with as much more forthcoming as needed.

2. Large amounts of Kennedy money already "are at work" lining up delegates in Midwestern, Rocky Mountain and other states.

3. Extensive raiding of McCarthy workers and delegates all over the country.

It goes as follows: "McCarthy simply cannot win the nomination. He hasn't got what it takes to stand up against the power and might of an incumbent president . . . So why waste effort and strength on McCarthy, who is going nowhere, while Kennedy presents the real threat to Johnson's renomination."

"Kennedy can't win because Johnson won't let him. Johnson has no love for McCarthy, but he deeply and unrelentingly hates Kennedy. Johnson will go to any length to prevent Kennedy from being nominated. If Johnson can't get it, he will take McCarthy. But never Kennedy. So the more strength McCarthy has, the better his prospects to get the nomination in the crucial convention showdown."

THERE WAS ONE curious absentee throughout the week the Senate spent adopting the first code of conduct in its history.

Sen. Charles Percy, R-Ill., not only took no part in the five days of debate on the code, but missed every vote on it and amendments. Neither from him nor anyone else was there an explanation for his absence.

Adding piquancy was the fact that two months previous, Percy announced the junking of a plan for a group of Illinois businessmen to raise a $100,000 fund to defray his office expenses — over and above the $265,000 allowed him by the government.

Members of the ethics committee, which formulated the code, made no secret that press disclosure of Percy's "office expense fund" was an important factor in the inclusion of a provision barring such funds.

The Illinoisan's official payroll is exceeded by only five other senators —all from larger states and with larger allowances. They are Senators Jacob Javits, R, and Robert Kennedy, D, N.Y. Joseph Clark, D, and Hugh Scott, R, Pa., and George Murphy, R-Calif.

Promise Of Budget Cut Not Followed By Specifics

By EDMOND LeBRETON
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The White House trial balloon of a $9 billion budget cut never soared very high in the estimation of congressional leaders demanding deeper reductions as the price of a tax increase.

And now it seems to have fallen flat. No specific reductions have been sent to Capitol Hill, formally or informally, and the indications are that none will be ready for some time.

Congressional economizers are showing irritation. Some are suggesting that the $9 billion reduction talk was really intended more for the ears of the international monetary authorities meeting to stem the gold rush than for consideration by Congress.

THERE WAS a point at which key congressmen were talking of an even steeper increase than the 10 per cent income tax surcharge Johnson is asking. Some suggested restoring the regular income-tax bracket rates, except in the lowest brackets, as they were before the massive 1964 tax reduction, instead of merely adding a surcharge.

Such a rollback is estimated to yield a $14 billion increase in revenues instead of the $10 billion plus which the surcharge is supposed to bring in.

But the asking price was a budget reduction in the range of $15 billion—meaning an actual spending cut of about $6 billion —instead of the $9 billion budget trim that would mean about $4 billion in actual spending.

There was no meeting of minds on an economy move of these dimensions.

IT WOULD require dropping postponing indefinitely or at least drastically scaling down some whole domestic programs.

This is exactly the course some economizers are advocating. They say the built-in expansion of these programs over the next five years or more will cost more than the present revenue structure can provide—even if the economy maintains a healthy growth.

As the dialogue between the executive and the legislative branches falters, conferences within Congress on the possibility of a legislatively dictated cutdown on domestic spending continue. These now cross party lines, bringing in Republican leaders as well as the economy-minded Democratic chairmen of the taxing and spending committees. If they agree, the administration may find itself fighting budget cuts it had no hand in preparing.

A development which can have given the administration no comfort was a speech by Rep. Charles A. Vanik, D-Ohio, one of the five Ways and Means Committeemen who tried in vain to keep the surcharge proposal alive last September when the committee shelved it.

But Vanik told the House he cannot support a tax increase to escalate the Vietnam war, nor approve further cutbacks in programs to cope with urban crises.

Role Of Volunteer Firemen Sizable In Novato District

The Novato volunteer firemen just had another successful fund — raising St. Patrick's Day dance. When the bills are all paid, it looks as though the volunteers will net between $800 and $900 for their sick and benefit fund.

Someone raised the question why Novato needed volunteer firemen when it has a paid fire department. So I went to Fire Chief George Cavallero to get the facts on the volunteer program.

In Novato's case, the volunteers almost double the number of firemen available to answer fire calls. There are 26 volunteers and 29 paid full-time firemen.

Volunteers get paid for their services, but it is not much. They drill two nights a month, using the regular equipment, and occasionally have a live drill when they have an old building to burn down. They get $2.50 per drill.

THE VOLUNTEERS are expected to answer all general alarms if they can hear the fire siren on the main fire station, or are at home where a radio controlled plectron sounds, telling them where the fire is located.

For this they are paid $5, but only get $4 of it because $1 goes into their sick and benefit fund, according to the chief.

Last year the district paid $1,944 for the volunteers to answer 38 general alarm fires. It paid $1,060 for the drills and $428 into the sick and benefit fund, the chief said.

The sick and benefit fund of the firemen is used to pay both accident and life insurance for the firemen while they fight fires. In addition it pays $20 per week to the firemen if they are sick and off their job, the chief said.

In addition, the volunteers carry on some charitable activities for the community. Each Christmas they have a Christmas party for the children. Each June they hold a chicken barbecue for the public.

In years past, when the community was smaller, the firemen used to hold Easter egg hunts and Halloween parties.

PETE LIND, who has kept track of the Novato swallows, reported that they arrived on March 15 this year at the old granary by the Marin County Airport. This was four days ahead of those at Capistrano and two days ahead of their usual schedule.

Pete said they gained a day because theis is Leap Year and also that we had a strong southeast wind for the few preceding days, which probably blew them in faster than they normally would have flown.

Pete was out of town and could not be reached on March 19 when the Capistrano swallows arrived, so we did not learn earlier when the Novato swallows arrived.

THE NOVATO Garden Club has voted to take care of planting the parkette at Highway 101 and Grant Avenue this year. It will plant new flowers in the circle. The club gets its funds for these projects from its annual bazaar sale of garden plants, which will be held Friday and Saturday in the downtown shopping center at Grant Avenue and Seventh Street.

Successful Impostor Makes Rules Look Somewhat Silly

You probably read the recent news story of an Eastern Airlines captain who had been flying a shuttle run between New York and Washington with only a private pilot license to his name.

Naturally, Eastern and the FAA were aghast. The embarrassment of these two stalwarts must have been beautiful to behold.

Eastern fired him.

The FAA is investigating.

YOU'D THINK they'd leave well enough along. This elusive gentleman managed to fly over one of the world's most congested routes for years without so much as a scratched wingtip. You'd think they'd simply give him his airline transport rating (ATR license) and ask him to be quiet about the whole affair.

Or perhaps they should simply have classified his case as "on the job training."

But the FAA, stern bird-watchers that they are, do not take such matters frivolously. They are planning to ask the Justice Department to prosecute Eastern for using an amateur in a professional capacity and will check and double check all airline pilots' licenses throughout the country against their master file in Oklahoma City.

IT HAPPENED about 1951. I was based in San Antonio and the Korean War was on. The airlines were busy transporting cargo and personnel for the war effort and there was an unprecedented demand for commercial flight crews.

One sunny Texas day a long, yellow Lincoln convertible drove up to our operations office and out stepped a captain. There was no doubt in anyone's mind that here, indeed, was a captain! Wearing flight boots, a cap set at a jaunty angle and a large chronometer on his wrist telling the time in Tokyo, Rio, Ankara and Greenwich, England, he steamed self-confidence as he breezed into the office of the vice president of operations. That open-mouthed worthy was presented with a three-color brochure singing in glorious technicolor of the background and experience of our hero. He had a history that would have done Jimmie Doolittle proud.

So bedazzled was the VP that he hired him on the spot as captain.

The chief pilot in due course gave him a check ride. Although our swashbuckling friend's performance in the airplane was not all it should have been, the glitter of his background and the glibness of his excuses glazed the chief pilot's eyes and stunned his mind. Our hero passed!

HE FLEW for several months, carrying military personnel from coast to coast, and managed, somehow, to escape catastrophe although his landings were euphemistically described by his fellow pilots as "controlled crashes."

The FAA (the CAA in those days) uncovered the hoax when they recalled all licenses to issue a new type.

Our San Antonio star had no license at all! None whatsoever! Nada!

Could he have gone to work for Eastern?

Ankle Sprained In Cliff Plunge

A Sacramento area man escaped with a sprained ankle Saturday when he slipped climbing down a Bolinas cliff and fell to the beach.

Bolinas firemen were called at 3:15 p.m. to rescue Edward Gaucher of Fair Oaks, who was unable to climb the cliff with his injury, but when firemen arrived an unidentified man had already brought Gaucher to the top of the cliff at Overlook Drive.

Gaucher declined medical treatment and said he would see his doctor in Sacramento.

Pranksters Act

Pranksters Saturday dumped a ketchup-splashed dummy on Shoreline Highway in Tamalpais Valley. Tamalpais firemen responded at 10:22 p.m. to a first aid call, found the dummy, and turned the case over to sheriff's deputies.

Johnson Decision Due To His Own Party

By EVERETT Mc KINLEY DIRKSEN

There is a refrain from a patriotic American poem that goes, "The harpies of the shore shall pluck the eagles of the sea." Those words make a fitting epitaph to the results of the attacks of Democrats on the leader of their party, President Lyndon B. Johnson.

President Johnson's decision to set a deadline for himself, to remove himself from the presidential race, now gives him a period that will be free from political implication and restraint in which to bring the war in Viet Nam to a successful conclusion.

His decision might well have been expected in the light of the confusion and lack of support for his leadership from high ranking members of the Democratic party. When we add to this fact that very evident dissatisfaction with developments on the part of the general public, it is no wonder that Mr. Johnson has determined to turn the responsibilities of the presidency over to someone else.

THE RE-ELECTION of Mr. Johnson would not have solved the problems of Vietnam. He recognized that only a change in administration could hope to demonstrate clearly to the North Vietnamese and the rest of the Communist world that the United States would not sacrifice the lives of thousands more of her young men and them shamefully bow in defeat. I am sure he was willing to sacrifice his career to make such a change possible without further handicapping his country, or his party.

There can be no thought that Lyndon Johnson is confessing personal defeat or quitting in the face of the mounting problems at home and overseas. That is an impossible thought.

Mr. Johnson instead is risking his reputation, his lifetime of political achievement, on a single turn of the card, firm in his belief that, unfettered by politics and freed from Democratic party responsibility, he can yet achieve a settlement with honor and dignity.

THERE NOW is no other course for the Republican party than for its leaders in Congress to redouble their efforts to bring order out of chaos, to provide the direction that will bring our nation through its present perils in the Far East and the disorders here at home.

The United States carried the free world on its shoulders to victory twice in this century. And we had the strength left after those victories to rebuild the wartorn countries thereafter. Americans have not yet lost their sense of responsibility or their ability to face these latest challenges.

It is still too soon to evaluate the decision of Mr. Johnson. We must not expect immediate results on his intention — if that is what it is — to emphasize to the world his determination to bring the Vietnam war to a close. If his decision was aimed primarily at putting an end to political interference with a program of firm control of domestic unrest and uncertainty, the results should soon be clear.

President Johnson has taken a giant step toward reclaiming the allegiance of the American people, if not his party, under these circumstances.

Wallet Looted

Patrick T. Flynn of 251 San Pedro Road, San Rafael, reported to sheriff's deputies Wednesday that $105 to $110 was taken from his wallet at the Meadow Club. He said he was showering and the wallet was in his pants pocket in the locker room when the money was taken.

Higher College Percentage Seen

WASHINGTON (UPI) —The Census Bureau predicted today the number of college graduates in the United States will double by 1985.

New census figures indicate the number of college graduates will double to about 20 million while the number of high school graduates will increase from 51 million to about 95 million.

The Census Bureau also said the percentage of men and women graduating from college will increase, the rate for men from 12 to 17 per cent and 7 per cent to 11 per cent for women.

Easter Vacation Rec Events Set

The Novato Recreation Department will conduct daily recreational programs for eight of the school playground areas during the Easter vacation, the Novato Parks and Recreation Advisory Commission agreed last night.

These daily programs will start next Monday and run through April 12, from 10 a.m. to 3:30 p.m.

Edward W. Adams, parks and recreation director, reported that there were 14,545 in attendance at all recreation functions last month, a decrease of 1,268 from March last year when the Easter playground activities were in March instead of April.

The commission asked the city council to recommend to the state Legilsature that it place a Constitutional amendment on the November ballot to permit adoption by simple majority vote of park and recreational bonded indebtedness by cities and local agencies.

Trio Nabbed As Suspects In Slaying

SLIPPERY ROCK, Pa. (UPI) —State troopers and FBI agents converged on an abandoned farmhouse last night and captured three men charged with abducting two couples, raping the girls and shooting to death one of their escorts—a Virginia Military Institute cadet and star athlete.

One of the suspects was shot and wounded when he refused to surrender after six troopers and four FBI agents surrounded the farmhouse at Plain Grove township in adjacent Lawrence county.

Captured were Arthur McConnell, 45, Donald R. Hosack, 27, and Kenneth Perrine, 21, all of the Mercer, Pa., area.

Also arrested was Harry Barnes Sr., 35, of Volant, Lawrence county, who was charged with being an accessory after the fact of murder.

Unruh Labels Reagan's Tax Idea A Mess

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Assembly Speaker Jesse M. Unruh, the leading advocate of a mandatory state income tax withholding system, labels Gov. Ronald Reagan's voluntary plan as "the ultimate in illogical and confused thinking."

Underlining his opposition to the first venture by Reagan into the field of withholding, Unruh said the Republican governor's idea "requires, and it will receive, the most careful scrutiny and examination by the legislature."

Reagan explained that while he still opposes the whole concept of withholding personal income taxes from paychecks, he isn't averse to some voluntary way of letting a worker do it himself. Under the governor's proposal, a worker would notify his employer that he wanted some of his pay withheld and the employer would deposit the sum in a bank or savings and loan association.

Named CRA Director

Marinwood's Easter Egg Fete Planned

Marinwood's annual Easter egg hunt will be held on April 10 at 10 a.m. at the community center, recreation director William A. Gordon announced last night at a meeting of the Marinwood Park and Recreation Commission.

The commissioners, headed by chairman William Stewart, also approved the expenditure of about $75 to build lath sun shelters around the swimming pool area.

April 4 — New tumbling class for 3 to 5-year-olds starts at 3:15 p.m. New judo class registration at 4:15 p.m. Rock Ridge 4-H Club at 7 p.m.

April 15 — "Spring swim" club starts. Hours are 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. on Monday, Wednesday and Friday.

April 17 — Marinwood Funsters and Friends meet at 9 a.m. to leave for trip to Hawaii.

April 23 —Marin Bonsai Club at 8 p.m.

April 27 — Marin County recreation for the handicapped, 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. Little League opens. Dance for Little League parents at 9 p.m.

April 29 — Swim team practice opens, 3:30 to 5:30 p.m.

Goldwater Backs LBJ On Peace Proposals

PHOENIX (UPI) — Barry Goldwater, defeated by President Johnson in 1964, says the President "deserves and needs" the support of all Americans in his search for peace in Vietnam.

The former Arizona senator told a news conference yesterday, "I personally send to the President my sincere wishes that his decision will prove to be the right one."
